Trick or Treat For UNICEF

Halloween trick-or-treat callers in area counties will include thousands of youngsters collecting money for UNICEF, the Rochester Association for the United Nations pointed out his week.

The volunteers are members of organizations that have adult supervision, and they will be carrying official black and orange cartons, RAUN said.

The announcement, noting that all money will go to UNICEF, said that the United Nations childrens' agency could provide, for 25 cents, enough antibiotic ointment to cure five children of trachoma; seed to produce 3,000 tomato plants; enough BGC vaccine to protect 25 children against tuberculosis; or a basic education kit for a primary school child.

DON'T ELECT ANOTHER ROCKEFELLER RUBBER STAMP

Someone has to stop the spiralling State spending which has risen 400% since Rocky started his "Arrogance of Power" fourteen years ago. Someone must say NO to the unfair state aid system that helps the wealthy down-state school districts at the expense of our local tax payers.

Arnie, pictured at left with his wife Vicki and their six children, is aware of the problems of today's young people and the costs of a Catholic education.

Jamie Ciaccio is a student at Boston College. Daughter Mary Ann is attending Newton College of the Sacred Heart. Andrea is a student at Mercy, Chris at McQuaid, Elizabeth and Margaret are at St. Salome's.
