Deaths

Sister St. Rita

Mass of Christian Burial for Sister St. Rita Judd of the Sisters of St. Joseph was held in the Motherhouse Chapel Nov. 26, 1976. Sister St. Rita died in Parkridge Hospital Nov. 23 after a long illness.

The principal celebrant of the Mass, Father Joseph Reinhart, was assisted by Msgr. Gerard Kreig. Also present were Msgr. William Naughton and Father Frederick Walz.

Sister St. Rita entered the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1918 from St. Mary's Parish in Elmira. She graduated in music from Marywood College in Scranton, Pa. and taught music from 1928 until 1946. Her assignments included St. Francis Xavier School, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Nazareth Hall, St. Stanislaus and the Music Conservatory affiliated with Nazareth Academy; also, St. Mary's Boys' Home in Rochester.

She taught elementary grades in St. Joseph's, Wayland, from 1946 until 1954 and then taught at St. Patrick's School, Seneca Falls, St. Patrick's Mt. Morris, St. Augustine's, Rochester and St. John the Evangelist, Greece. She retired in 1967.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Flora Turner of Buffalo, and several nieces and nephews, including Sister Genevieve Turner of the Sisters of St. Joseph.
