

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Wm. Purcell has been ill at his residence on Lake avenue this week.

Dr. J. J. Evans has been appointed School Commissioner from the Fourth ward to fill a vacancy.

Louis B. Savard, of 54 Hudson st., is spending a few days at Cleveland, Ohio.

Police Justice Bartholomay Keeler will be married next Wednesday to Miss Mary Roche, daughter of Mrs. Rosa M. Roche, of No. 439 Lyell avenue.

The Easter services at all the Catholic churches of the city were very impressive. The music was of a high order of merit.

Rev. Dr. Edward J. Hanna left Monday morning to spend the week in New York. He will attend the consecration of Bishop-elect McDonnell, of Brooklyn, which will take place April 25th.

An entertainment was given Wednesday evening by the pupils of St. Boniface's School in the school hall, in commemoration of the birthday of Rev. H. Renker. The affair was a complete success, and owing to the large number of people turned away the programme was repeated Thursday evening.

The Rochester Catholic Reading Circle with a view to replenishing their library, have made arrangements to have a "book party" on Tuesday evening, April 26, in Cathedral Hall. The members are all cordially invited to come and bring a book, and bring their friends also. One of the interesting features of the evening will be the personating of book characters and book titles by the different members in ingenious ways. All will have the privilege of testing their skill in guessing. A prize will be given to the one who interprets correctly the greatest number of names. There will be a fine musical program prepared for the occasion, and a repast will be served under the auspices of the librarians.

Rev. L. A. Ricklin, secretary and chancellor of Rt. Rev. Bishop S. Messmer, of Green Bay, Wis., and Rev. George Schmitt of the Catholic University of Washington are the guests of Rev. F. Oberholzer, Rector of the Church of the Holy Redeemer.

Rev. Ricklin will take a trip to Europe with Bishop Zardetti of Saint Cloud, Minn. The distinguished Rev. gentlemen will leave New York April 30th on the French steamer La Touraine. They will visit Rome and Switzerland where they will be guests of Rev. T. Kuegg, Vicar General of the diocese of St. Gallen, a nephew of Rev. F. Oberholzer. From there he will visit his parents and relations in Alsace. The ceremonies in the Holy Redeemer church on Easter Sunday were very impressive. The eloquent sermon of Rev. L. A. Ricklin, the richly wild flowers, decorated altars, the beautiful singing of the choir under direction of Professor F. W. Seibold everything combined helped to make the services such grand ones, that the Rector and congregation may well be proud of.

The closing ceremonies of the renewal of the mission for the above mentioned church was the crowning part of the whole mission. It took place in the presence of the Bishop, the Vicar General and a great number of Priests.

Deaths and Funerals.

The death list among our Catholic people this week includes those mentioned below:

Margaret Ann, only daughter of Patrick and Mary Nash, aged one year, 123 Ontario street.

Theodore Spiekermann, corner of South St. Paul and Griffith sts. Funeral took place from St. Boniface Church.

William, son of George and Rosa Schnepf, aged 6 years, 81 Weld st. The funeral took place from St. Joseph's Church.

John Schlickmann, aged 87 years, 24 Meng Park. The funeral took place from St. Francis Xavier Church.

Margaret Howard, aged 62 years, who died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. William O'Leary, 16 Columbia avenue. Funeral was held from the Immaculate Conception Church.

Eugene J. McEntee, a prominent shoe manufacturer, who has been in business a number of years at 113 Allen street, died at his home 24 Bloss street. He leaves a wife and ten children. He was born in Rochester in 1847, and has resided here continuously. He has been engaged in the manufacture of shoes, at which he has been very successful. The funeral took place from St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Seneca Falls.

Rev. James O'Connor celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination Wednesday. Solemn High Mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's church in honor of the event. The reverend father received a number of presents from friends in Rochester and in Seneca Falls.

A WEEK OF ENTERTAINMENTS.

St. Peter and St. Paul's Fair—St. Mary's Entertainment—St. Joseph's C.Y.M.A.

This has been a week of entertainments with our various parishes, and we are pleased to say they have been successful too.

C. Y. M. A.

At St. Joseph's Hall Monday evening St. Joseph's C.Y.M.A. gave an entertainment. The proceeds are to be applied to liquidate the church debt. Among the leading participants were Mrs. Celia Meyerling-Rampe, Miss Messmer, E. J. Groh and John Hart, vocalists, and Miss Katherine J. Burns, elocutionist; Misses Meyerling Otto and Schantz and Frank Schlitzer. The entertainment closed with a one act comedy presented by members of the association.

THE KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.

The Knights of St. John gave a reception in French Hall Monday. Like all their receptions it was a pleasant and well managed affair. A dress parade was given by the knights. The Rochester Rifles Band made its first public appearance and acquitted itself very creditably. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Joseph H. Savard was general manager of the arrangements, Capt. Charles K. Phifer was chairman of the reception committee, and Louis B. Savard acted as floor manager.

ST. MARY'S ENTERTAINMENT.

Which continued three nights was as successful as could be desired Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the hall on South street was filled with a delighted audience, who cheered and applauded and admired as the excellent programme was carried out. The children who took part in the fan drill and minuet came in for a good share of merited praise for the graceful manner in which these two numbers were carried out. Those who trained them certainly deserve congratulation. The older ones who took part are too well known to need any special mention. It is only necessary to say that Prof. Huebner, Prof. Abercrombie, the Messers Keyes, Miss Katherine Burns, Miss Coppinger Lafe Heidehl, Prof. D'Ewyer and F. McGahan charmed their hearers.

SS. PETER AND PAULS.

The good people of this parish have worked like beavers during all the week to make the Fair held in the new gymnasium a success, and judging from the crowds present each evening their efforts have not been in vain. The attractive booths, trimmed in gay colors and containing stacks of handsome articles, form a pretty picture. One can view a pleasing scene by visiting the gallery and looking down on the smiling happy crowd below. The courtesy and kindness shown to visitors is a noticeable feature of the Fair. Monday evening the Young Men's Association opened the week's festivities by giving an interesting musical and literary entertainment.

The program included overture, instrumental selections, English Negro farce, "The Black Shoemaker," Staud family mixed quartette, violin solo by Fred Pohl, club swinging by William Smith, cello solo by Herman Pohl, Staud quartette and Wyckhouse Brothers, German operetta by John Lusater and Fred Brien. The new hall will be occupied as a gymnasium after the fair, and is admirably adapted to the purpose. It is 74x38 feet in area and 30 feet high. Father Ege has taken a deep interest in the association, and its members now enjoy the advantages of an excellent gymnasium.

Tuesday the Fair opened and it will not close until Tuesday of next week. Each evening a short and varied stage entertainment is given, which adds much to the enjoyment of those attending.

The presidents of the societies are competing for a crayon portrait of Father Sinclair, and these young ladies are competing for a gold watch: Miss Carrie Poff, Miss Ida Bantel and Miss Theresa Kondoif.

The Booths are named as follows: The L.C.B.A.; Flower; American Art; Refreshment and Ice Cream, and Pop Corn.

Gentlemen's Booth com.—George Strassner, George C. Miller, Charles Glatschaar, F. L. Bauer, John Strassner.

Door committee—A.M. Dengler, H. J. Renaud, Joseph Georger, George Yawman, Edward Rejdman, Joseph Barker, John Barker.

Press committee—A.J. Smith, Rev. J.E. Ege, F.H. Daus, J.A. Staud.

Peter A. Vay is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The names of those on the other committees we will publish next week when a full report of the close of the Fair will be given.

KNIGHTS OF ST. LOUIS.

The annual reception of the Knights of St. Louis was given Monday evening at Germania Hall. Nearly two hundred couples attended and the entertainment continued until a late hour.

Auburn.

Easter was appropriately observed in the Catholic churches of the city last Sunday. After the solemn season of Lent the church emerged in all its glory upon the joyous Easter time. The churches were transferred into perfect bowers of beauty and loveliness, the altars in particular being very attractive. They were handsomely trimmed with trailing vines, fatted plants and cut flowers and at the high masses numberless burning candles and wax tapers added materially to the beauty of the altars. Appropriate sermons were delivered at the high masses and in the evening vespers and benediction were celebrated in all of the churches.

Now that Lent is past marriages are the order of the season. This, the first week, has seen but four or five but next week the happy young couples will join hands in a much larger number. Marriages are down on the calendar in all of the churches and one or more for every day of the week. We wish them all much joy and prosperous voyages through life.

Among the marriages to occur next week is that of Miss Dorothea Lower and Theodore Kesters both well known and popular young German people. The marriage will take place at St. Alphonsus church on Tuesday morning next at 9:30.

One of Geneva's rising young men who was formerly an Auburn boy and a prominent member and officer of the Young Knights when that organization was flourishing, is to be married next week to one of Auburn's most charming daughters. We wish them both much joy and a pleasant and prosperous future.

The death of Mrs. Patrick Toole occurred at the family residence 187 Seymour street Monday morning after an illness of several months. Deceased was an amiable christian lady and was beloved by all who knew her. The funeral occurred from the Holy Family church Thursday morning.

On Easter Sunday for the first time was seen in the sanctuary of St. Mary's church three handsome altar chairs, a side altar table and a neat brass missal stand. The articles are very beautiful and are something that was needed to be in keeping with the splendor of the sanctuary. They were received as an Easter gift from the people of the congregation.

The marriage of Miss Mary Andrews and Thomas Morrissey occurred at St. Mary's church Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Mary Ann McCarthy and Geo. D. Ireland were quietly married in the parlors of the parsonage of St. Mary's church on Wednesday morning at 7:30. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McGrath. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. They received many best wishes from their numerous friends.

Ithaca.

Mr. J. M. Nolan and wife, of Rochester, spent Easter here, the guests of Mr. Nolan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan, of West Hill.

Mr. Thomas Doyle, of Pittsburg, Pa., formerly of Ithaca, was in the city this week.

Mr. Peter F. McAllister, of the senior class, Cornell University, has been selected one of six speakers for the Woodford Oratorical contest of 1892. As this is one of the highest honors at Cornell, Mr. McAllister is to be congratulated. His subject is "Charles Stewart Parnell, and his place in History."

An effort is being made to establish a council of the Catholic Relief and Beneficiary Association in this place.

At the meeting of the Cornell Catholic Union Sunday, the subject "Monasticism" was very ably discussed by the members present.

At the church of the Immaculate Conception, Sunday, Rosewig's Mass in G was sung for the first time in this city. It was rendered in a superb manner, for which much credit is due to the individual members of the choir. Miss Mary Fahs, organist; soprano, Misses E. Maloney, E. Sheldon and M. Maloney; alto, Misses S. Fay and K. McAllister; tenor, J. Burns and L. Maloney; basso, Messrs. F. P. Wall and J. Welsh.

The church was beautifully decorated for Easter. It was a grand sight. There were about one hundred lights and sixty bouquets which added much to the grandeur of the church. The vespers sung by the children and former pupils far surpassed any effort the children ever made. Much could be said in praise of Sister Joseph and Sister Hortensia, who are in charge of the children's singing, for the assistance in the training. On Monday the altars were photographed by Lawrence Maloney.

Amusements.

H. R. JACOBS' ACADEMY.

Mr. Wood appeared at the Corinne Lyceum last night in a new comedy-drama called, "The Orphans of New York," written for him by Con. T. Murphy, author of the "Ivy Leaf" and other similar productions. Of course the star is given opportunity to display to the full extent his versatility, and he does not miss any of the chances. As Percy Atwood, "The Shiner," Mr. Wood appears to better advantage than ever before, and he secured the indorsement of a large audience. Jerome Stansill in the part of Hiram Maywood did a really artistic piece of acting. Miss Ida Lewis in a dual character was very satisfactory, and Anna Lloyd as Elsie, the orphan, deserved the recognition she received. The other characters were well taken care of, and the lengthy cast was well balanced throughout. The scenic appointments were in keeping with the excellent performance.—Buffalo Courier.

"The Orphans of New York" will be the attraction at the Academy all of next week.

ROBINSON'S MUSEE.

Carpiculous nature's most stupendous whim will be graphically depicted in the leading attraction at Robinson's Musee Theatre next week when the public will again have an opportunity of seeing the most marvelous human being ever placed on exhibition, the two-headed boy of Laconia. Though having but one body, there are two heads, two legs, two minds, two hearts, four arms.—In short, it is a case of two beings rolled into one, and, yet having a double set of the organs of sense and vitality, each performing its own individual functions. This is a case that has no parallel in the history of medical science, and as this is the last time the two-headed boy will visit Rochester, no one can afford to miss the final opportunity to see the great eat living curiosity ever brought before the public. The other new features in the lecture hall will be Master Eddie, a juvenile magician, who will be assisted by Prof. Abbott in an amusing delineation of Gumbo comedy. Alf. Sydney, the whittler, Meteoric specialties, assisted by the Eureka quartette, will give the performance in the theatre. The company includes La Petite Freddie, a child actor, musician, dancer and linguist. James Wesley, whose "new ideas" are provocative of uproarious merriment, Tom McIntosh, the ebony comique; the Inman Sisters, refined Song and Dance Artists.
