Bishop McQuaid's Work.

Sunday last the Rt. Rev. Bishop confirmed a large class at St. Mary's at 4 p. m. The boys numbered about sixty and the girls about seventy. The Bishop was accompanied by V. Rev. H. DeRegge, Revs. T. A. Hendrick, J. P. Kiernan, Wm. Gleason, A. A. Notabaert, J. J. Leary, Very Rev. J. F. O'Hare, and Father—a French missionary priest, whose name we have not learned. The latter wears a full beard and has done missionary work among the Indians. He will preach at the French church Sunday. Revs. J. F. Stewart, A. Lugo and F. O'Hanlon were also present.

After Confirmation had been administered, the Bishop addressed the class at some length. He referred to the fact of the previous Sunday having been the Feast of Pentecost—the commemoration of the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles. It was the same, Holy Ghost they had just received. He referred to the countless young martyrs of the days of the Roman Empire, who after being strengthened by this great Sacrament, fearlessly gave up their lives for the faith. While there was no longer danger of martyrdom, he exhorted them to be true soldiers of Christ and to grow up as noble Christian men and women.

To-morrow, at 4 o'clock, the Bishop will confirm a large class at the Cathedral.

Monday Confirmation will be administered at Fairport.

Father McGrath's Brother Dead.

AT HOLY ROSARY.

First Communion Administered—First Time in the History of the Parish.

Thursday was a memorial day for the congregation of Holy Rosary on Rowe street. For the first time since this modest little church was dedicated First Communion was given to a class of young children. The parishioners entered into the joyous spirit of the occasion and the altar was decorated prettily in honor of the happy event. Rev. J. P. Kiernan celebrated the Mass assisted by Rev. J. E. Hartley. Father Kiernan gave Communion to the little ones, twelve of whom are boys and eight girls. All feel delighted at being members of the first First Communion class from the parish. Sunday afternoon they will all proceed to the Cathedral and receive the Sacrament of Confirmation from the Rt. Rev. Bishop.

At the Immaculate Conception.

The annual subscription for the payment of the church indebtedness is now being taken up. During the past six years the sum of $30,000 has been paid. There now remains but $9,000 unpaid upon the entire property of the parish, and it is hoped that within two years this debt will be entirely wiped out. Considering that much new property has been purchased, in the past six years, this is truly a magnificent showing.

At Corpus Christi.

A lawn party will be given by the Young Ladies' Sodality at Corpus Christi church grounds on the evening of June 29th. Admission 15c. A number of such parties were given last season and all were very enjoyable.

Thursday, being the Feast of Corpus Christi, was observed in a fitting manner at this church. Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Leary at 8.30. About sixty little ones enjoyed the happiness of receiving Holy Communion for the first time. In the evening there was benediction, and the children renewed their baptismal vows.

At St. Mary's.

Fathers Stewart, O'Hanlon and Lugo are visiting their parishioners, taking a census of the parish and a subscription. They are delighted at the evidences of thrift, and prosperity in the homes of St. Mary's people.

Cardinal Newman Reading Circle.

The Cardinal Newman reading circle held its last meeting for the season Tuesday evening, the exercises being very interesting. Miss Bertie O'Rourke read a paper on "Thomas Moore; Philip Golding gave an exhibition of club swinging, with musical accompaniment, that was well received; "The Harp that Once Through Tara's Halls," was sung by Miss Julia Madden; Miss Julia O'Connor sang "The Vale of Avoca;" Miss Hattie Stone, "Last Rose of Summer;" Miss Aggie Madden Moore's melodies with variations and Pape's "Irish Diamonds." At the conclusion of the literary programme, refreshments were served by the ladies. Rev. T. A. Hendrick, Rev. M. Hendrick and representatives from other reading circles of the city were present; also Rev. James O'Connor, of Seneca Falls. Tuesday was the sixteenth wedding anniversary of the president of the circle, Mrs. James Fee, who received many hearty congratulations.

Raymond, and it was observed in a pleasant manner. Besides a merry troupe of Master George's younger friends, numbering forty-eight, and who made the house ring with mirth and laughter, there were present at least thirty older friends of the family. Music of an excellent quality added to the enjoyment. In the evening, the house and lawn were festively illuminated. Mr. and Mrs. Tobin were voted capital entertainers by the guests of the occasion.

Thursday at 7 p. m. another marriage took place, the contracting parties being John H. Schawb and Mary L. Knapp.

At the last three marriages Father O'Hanlon officiated.

To all these happy couples who have received this holy sacrament the JOURNAL wishes many long years of prosperity and happiness.

Amusements.

ROBINSON'S MUSÉE.

The hot weather does not seem to have any effect on the patronage of the Musée Theatre as the electric fans are proving a decided success, and the house throughout is as comfortable as it has been any time this season. Ali Bey's Performing Bedouin Arabs in the various sports of desert life, Master Chas. Carrer, the boy magician, Merry Singleton, with his comical woman headed family, Bingham, the ventriloquist, the three Albinos in a very graceful acrobatic work and Harry Budworth, comedian, vocalist and dancer, Bryant and Saville, the philosophers of music, and Zomora will be the attraction for next week. Madeline and Kennedy made such a remarkable impression on the Musée patrons on their former visit that they have been secured for the coming week. The Musée Theatre bids fair for a prosperous week's business.
