Holy Redeemer.

The celebration of the Forty Hours' Devotion in the church of the Most Holy Redeemer from Friday, Sept. 24, till Sunday the 4th, was one of the most solemn ones ever witnessed in this church. The attendance was a very large one, and the church was beautifully decorated, especially the high altar, which was a masterpiece of decoration. The venerable Sisters deserve the highest praise for their work. The singing of the choir was of an excellent choice. Sunday at 10, High Mass was celebrated by Rev. R. M. Ferrer, of Baltimore. The sermon was given by the celebrated speaker Rev. A. Schweineger, of New York, and was eloquently rendered. The closing ceremony was a very grand one. The procession was a beautiful sight and will be long remembered by those who witnessed it.

The following Rev. gentlemen were present during forty hours devotion:

Very Rev. L. A. Ricklin, Chancellor and Secretary of Rt. Bishop Messier of Green Bay, Wis.; Rev. R. M. Ferrer, of Baltimore; Rev. Schweineger, of New York; Rev. Ryan, of Canada; Rev. ## SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS.

Cowan-Kennedy.

J. T. Cowan and Miss Sarah E. Kennedy, both of New York, were married at 10 o'clock Thursday morning in the chapel of the Convent of Mercy on South street. John W. Kennedy and Miss Gertrude Kennedy, brother and sister of the bride, acted as groomsmen and bridesmaids. Rev. J. P. Stewart, rector of St. Mary's church, performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass, assisted by Rev. Felix O'Hanlon and Rev. Angelo Lugero, of St. Mary's. The bride is a niece of Rev. Dr. Barker, formerly rector of St. Mary's, and was educated in the Convent of Mercy. A large number of her old school friends were present at the ceremony. Among the guests were William J. Kennedy and wife of New York, father and mother of the bride. After a western trip Mr. and Mrs. Cowan will reside in New York.

Cunningham-Connolly.

F. J. Cunningham and Miss Frances Connolly were united in marriage at St. Mary's Church by Rev. F. O'Hanlon, at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. Both are highly esteemed young members of St. Mary's parish. Their married life will be a long, prosperous and happy one is the wish of a host of friends.

Maloney-Murphy.

Dr. F. W. Maloney and Miss Jennie Murphy of Macedon were married at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Church of the Holy Apostles. Rev. T. C. Murphy, a brother of the bride, officiated. James B. Maloney was best man and Miss Margaret Murphy bridesmaid. The bridal couple left in the afternoon for a trip to New York and Boston. They will reside at 352 West avenue.

Wedding Bells at St. Peter's.

Under the above head we find in the Peterborough Daily Examiner of September 7 the following interesting item:

This morning at St. Peter's Cathedral at 8 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Melvina Archambault, youngest daughter of Mr. Hilaire Archambault, to Mr. Alex. W. Gendreau, merchant of Rochester, N. Y., was celebrated by Rev. Father Archambault, uncle of the groom, and parish priest of Ste. Monique, Deux Montagnes, P. Q., who was assisted by Rev. Father Desautels of the Cathedral. Miss Celina Archambault, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Idas Archambault performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony the party drove to the residence of the bride's father, No. 1 Cedar street, where about forty guests sat down to the wedding breakfast, gave their felicitations and admired the many beautiful presents among which was a handsome one from the bride's former associates in the dressmaking department of Turnbills. The happy couple took the 5:20 train for Toronto on their wedding tour, which will include Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and thence to Rochester, which will be their future home, where their many friends wish them a long and happy life. They were accompanied by Rev. Father Archambault, who will visit them in their new home.

The Polyhymnians.

Through an accident, the following reference to the part taken by this society in the exercises at Washington Rink last week was omitted. In a future issue we will give a history of this promising young musical organization, and a statement of its aims and objects.

The Polyhymnians made their first public appearance at Washington Rink Tuesday evening, and entertained the delegates and members of the C. M. B. A. in a most pleasing manner. The following selections were rendered:

Minstrel Boy, Shelley; encore, Tinker Song, by DeKoven; I Long for Thee; Sailor Song, Wagner.

Thrown From a Carriage.

Stephen W. Adwen was thrown from his carriage on Monroe avenue Tuesday evening and severely injured about the head. His daughter, who was also in the carriage, was thrown out, but escaped serious injury.

COLUMBUS DAY.

Pastorals issued and about to be issued—Sculptural Demonstrations.

Many of the archbishops and bishops of the United States have already issued pastorals relating to the religious observance of the anniversary of the landing of Columbus. The occasion will be observed in a fitting manner in all the dioceses of the country. As yet little has been done towards preparing for a secular demonstration in this vicinity, but a pastoral from our Rt. Rev. Bishop giving directions as to the religious observance of the day in the churches throughout the diocese will be issued at a very early date. It is not unlikely that it will be read at tomorrow's masses.

Thursday evening the German-American society held a meeting at Maennerher hall and made partial arrangements for celebrating the day by a mass meeting at Germania hall.

There will be addresses in both German and English and there will be singing by the combined singing societies of the city. The Fifty-fourth Military Band will furnish military music and the Mandolin Orchestra will also take part.

The address in German will be made by Herman Pfafflin. Second Assistant City Attorney Rodenbeck will make the address in English. There will be other features provided by the committee which has the matter in charge.

Auburn.

The National Encampment of the G. A. R. at Washington will draw a number of Auburnians to that city. A special train will leave Auburn Saturday night, September 17, and arrive in Washington the following night stopping a few hours at Gettysburg.

St. Mary's school opened the new school year on Tuesday morning last. Rev. Father Mulhern celebrated a high mass at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock at which the children of the school were present after which they proceeded to the school and commenced the year's work.

Never in the history of Auburn was any organization received more enthusiastically than were the Wheeler Rifles on their return from the Buffalo battle field Saturday night. The Wheeler Rifles band and thousands of enthusiastic friends were at the depot to welcome the soldiers home and as soon as the train pulled into the depot the din and racket commenced and lasted until the tired and weary men reached the army where a bountiful supper was awaiting their arrival. They laid to with a will and for some time were too busy to relate any of their experiences and adventures, but after the wants of the inner man were satisfied they commenced and many were the interesting stories related by some of the boys. One of the Wheelers, Chas. B. Young, who was employed as an insurance collector by the Metropolitan, found his position filled when he arrived from Buffalo. He is the only one who lost his place by going to the scene of the strike.

The season at the Burtis Opera house opened last Tuesday with Lillian Kennedy in "She couldn't marry three." The house was crowded and if the opening night speaks for the winter's season Mahager Newton may expect a good run.

Thursday occurs the annual inspection and parade of the Auburn Fire Department. As usual great preparations have been made and a lively time is expected.

Labor Day was quietly observed in this city. No demonstration of any nature occurred to awaken the slumbering nature of the place and its inhabitants. A large portion of the population went to Seneca Falls for the day where they enjoyed a good, old, rousing time. The Knights of St. Alphonsus participated in the parade and were applauded more frequently than any company in line.

On Wednesday morning fire was discovered in the barn of the Auburn Orphan Asylum on North street. Before the department arrived the building was in flames. The roof was burned and the structure was nearly gutted before the flames were extinguished. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A pretty morning wedding took place at the Holy Family church, Tuesday morning when Miss Mary E. Dunn, daughter of the late Patrick Dunn, and Frederick P. Mullen were united in the bonds of wedlock. Miss Katherine Arundel acted as bridesmaid and Charles H. Stafford as best man. Very Rev. Dean Seymour, pastor of the church, performed the marriage ceremony and tied the nuptial knot. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the residence of the bride on Cottage street, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served by caterer Henry Lucas. The newly married couple were the recipients of numerous beautiful presents from their many friends. The groom's parents presented the bride a handsome piece of gold. Mr. and Mrs. Mullen will reside on Cottage St.

Miss Mamie Carraher is visiting her friend Miss Kittle Briggs, in Auburn.

The sad death of Mrs. Bernard Rooney, which occurred Friday of last week, was a most sorrowful affliction to the bereaved husband and relatives. The young mother leaves besides her husband two children, one an infant of only a few weeks, the other a girl three years old. Her age was 27 years.

Miss Essie Trant returned to her home in Rochester Wednesday last, after a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends here.

Miss Pauline Meehan, who has been a guest at the home of James Easton on Walnut street, returned to her home in Phelps Thursday.

Attention is called to the advertisement in another column, of "Neurokon," an alleged cure for Neuritis. We cannot pass upon the merits of the medicine before trying it, but it strikes us that the offer of "no cure, no pay," is entirely fair.

Amusements.

ACADEMY.

Wherever presented this play has been heartily endorsed. The action takes place in New York city, opening on pier 24, East River, showing Brooklyn Bridge, boats and ferries. Of this play the Pittsburgh Press says: "If continued applause and enthusiasm to the point of embarrassment to those upon the stage constitutes a measure of merit, 'The Midnight Alarm,' presented in the Bijou Theatre last night for the first time in this city, and to be seen there the remainder of the week, is, with the present company an excellent performance. The realistic feature introduced is highly effective, two spirited horses, to which is attached a magnificent and highly burnished engine, emitting flame and smoke, dashes by in answer to the midnight alarm just as the curtain is about to fall in the fourth act."

MUSEE THEATRE.

Robinson's Musee will open its doors next Monday afternoon. Two performances will be given each day, one in the afternoon, and the other in the evening. The Carmencita Spanish students will be the attraction. The general admission has been placed at 15 cents.
