Amusements.

COOK'S OPERA HOUSE

There is always a warm greeting extended to that delightful sweet-voiced comedian, Charles T. Ellis by our theatre goers, and the announcement that he is to appear after a long absence will be welcome news to them. He will be the attraction at the Cook Opera House for the first half of next week, when he will present for the first time in this city, his great New York success, "Count Casper," with the original cast and scenery as used during the Metropolitan run of the play. Ellis is said to be in better voice than ever, and he has a new collection of sweet songs.

Andrew Mack, who appears the latter half of next week at the Cook Opera House as the Star of "Irish Loyalty" will be remembered by Rochester theatre-goers as the original "Darby" in Powers' Ivy Leaf Company, and as the busting manager last season with Fannie Rice. He is one of the sweetest singers on the dramatic stage.

ACADEMY

A very [illegible] niche in the history of things dramatical is filled by Gus Thomas' pretty play of "The Burglar," which will be given at the Academy the first half of next week.

SOCIETIES MEET NEXT WEEK.

MONDAY—Br. 134.
TUESDAY—12. 139.
WEDNESDAY—88.

Catholic societies will participate in the great parade in New York on the evening of the 11th of Oct. His Grace Archbishop Corrigan addressed the following letter to Rev. R. J. Keoffe of the church of the Holy Cross, West Forty second street. The question has been proposed whether the Catholic Societies of this city should take part in the coming celebration in honor of the discovery of this country. It would give me great pleasure to see our Catholic Societies well represented, provided proper arrangement can be made in time. For this purpose, I beg to invite you, in union with Mr. E. L. Barnard, President of the Holy Name Society, and Mr. Victor J. Dowling, Secretary of the Catholic Benevolent Legion to form a committee of inquiry and arrangements.

AUBURN

Council No. 1, C. R. B. A, at a special meeting held Sunday afternoon, adopted resolutions on the death of their brother Thomas Whelan. The committee that drew up the resolutions was composed of Mrs Margaret Coughlin, Miss Anna S. Wall, and J H. Rogers.

At a special meeting of the Holy Name Society of the Holy Family Church resolutions of sympathy were adopted on the death of Mrs. Wm. Tobin, daughter of their brother member Bartholomay Coughlin. Wm. Bryant, James O'Brien, and Charles Gerin, composed the committee that drew up the resolutions.

At a regular meeting of Branch 59, C. M. B. A., held in their rooms Tuesday night, two new members were initiated. The Branch now carries 217 names on its roll.

death of Thomas Whalen at his residence in Evans street. Mr. Whalen was well known and respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances who share their sympathy with the bereaved family. He leaves besides his wife, one son Charles. The funeral took place from St. Mary's church Monday.

A pretty afternoon wedding took place at St. Alphonsus' German church on Wednesday afternoon of last week, the contracting parties being Miss Mamie E. Laules and George Schilling. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Netzel. Miss Latie Laules, a sister of the bride acted as bridesmaid and Harry Schilling, a nephew of the groom, was best man. After the marriage ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served at the groom's residence 96 Wall street where the congratulations and best wishes of the many friends of the newly married were showered upon them. Mr. and Mrs. Schilling left on the late train for a brief bridal tour to Buffalo, Lockport and Niagara Falls after which they will keep house at the groom's residence in Wall street.

The forty-hours' devotion opened at the 10:30 o'clock mass Sunday at St. Alphonsus' church. Rev. Father Netzel celebrated a high mass which was followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament after which the opening exercises of the forty-hours were held. The pretty little church was handsomely decorated and trimmed and the altars was alive with vines, potted plants and fresh, fragrant flowers.

The service was a very successful one and a large number of the congregation availed themselves of the opportunities afforded and made the forty-hours.

Mrs. Maggie Tobin, wife of William Tobin, died at the family residence in Dexter avenue on Thursday morning last after a lingering and very severe illness. Deceased was a very kind and generous woman and was liked by all who knew her. She leaves besides a loving husband, one child, an infant.

The young ladies' literary circle of the Holy Family Church will resume their meetings this winter and the first one will be held on Oct. 1st when the study of Shakespeare, which had not been completed when the meetings were discontinued for the summer months, will again be take up.
