

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. P. J. O'Reilly, of Utica, is visiting Mrs. Sheridan, of Phelps avenue.

Mary, wife of the late Patrick Welch, died Wednesday afternoon at the family residence, 27 Ward street, aged 68 years.

George V. Fleckenstein, son of ex-Postmaster Valentine Fleckenstein, has opened a law office at 74 German Insurance Building.

Work for the Orphans' Fair still goes merrily on. A "Fair Journal" will be one of the features of the occasion. Father Stewart will have charge of it.

Officer William McGuire was united in marriage October 17th, to Miss Kittie daughter of Charles Kuttlinger, of 50 Coal street. A brief honeymoon was spent at Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge.

Frank J. Doyle, aged 25 years died Tuesday night after a lingering illness, at the family residence, 130 Reynolds street. He was a son of the late Robert E. Doyle. The funeral took place Friday morning from the immaculate Conception Church.

A quantity of the new return postal cards have been received at the Rochester office and placed on sale. The card is folded once. On one side is printed "Postal card with paid reply," and the direction "Detach annexed card for answer." The attached card bears the words "Reply postal card," and is easily separated from the message card.

The Rochester Catholic Reading Circle held a meeting in Cathedral hall Tuesday evening. The members have decided to devote themselves to American history and literature during the winter and the programme following was the first of the course: Reading, Lives There a Man, Miss Gertrude Nugent; Reading, Early Americans, Miss Maria Moynihan; Piano solo, A Dream of Love, Miss Corinne Mahon; Paper, Isabella, Co-Discoverer of America, Miss Mary McMorrow; Vocal solo, My Little Love, Miss Katharyn Moran; Reading, Columbus' Voyages, Miss Emily Joyce; Vocal solo, As the Dawn, Mrs. K. O. Mahon; Current Topics, Emily L. Kehoe.

Dr. Frederick H. Goddard, and Miss Catherine J. Ritz, daughter of Joseph Ritz, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Boniface's Church by the pastor, Rev. Herman Renker. The pastor celebrated high mass, being assisted by Rev. Dr. Edward J. Hanna of the Cathedral as deacon, and Rev. August Pungl, of St. Joseph's church as sub-deacon. Music was furnished by a quartette consisting of Misses Mahoney and Vogt and Messrs. Skinner and Witsky, with George E. Fisher officiating at the organ. Miss Anna Nold and Rosa Ritz, sister of the bride, were the bridesmaids; Jacob A. Ritz, a brother of the bride, and Frank Hahn acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 265 Meigs street.

The Columbus celebration in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Sunday Oct. 17, was a very impressive one. At the first High Mass the rector of the church, Rev. T. Oberholzer delivered a very appropriate sermon. In the second High Mass, Rev. Svenson, of Detroit, Mich., who was the guest of Rev. Oberholzer, gave an eloquent sermon on the subject of the day. Last Sunday the same congregation celebrated the anniversary of the dedication of the church and at the same time the feast of the Most Holy Redeemer. Solemn High Mass was celebrated with the Rev. Dr. Hanna, as celebrant; Rev. F. Oberholzer as deacon, and Rev. Hopkins as sub-deacon. A very good sermon was given by Rev. J. Stano. The church was beautifully decorated and the singing of the choir was fully in accordance with the great celebration.

Married.

Mrs. B. Tidebeck, of Cleveland, O., and Louis B. Savard, of this city, were united in marriage at Cleveland Wednesday morning. After a short wedding trip they will take up their residence at 105 Weld street, in this city. The bride is a young lady who will be welcomed by her many friends in Rochester. Mr. Savard is the general secretary of Branch 134. We extend congratulations.

Yates-Duffy.

Harry Yates, son of A. G. Yates, and Miss Mamie Duffy, eldest daughter of Walter B. Duffy, were married at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning in Bishop McQuaid's private chapel. The Bishop officiated, assisted by Rev. J. P. Kiernan, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, and Rev. Father Winkler, of Punxsutawney. A. Ames Howlett, of Syracuse, was best man and Miss Antonette Duffy, sister of the bride was bridesmaid. The ceremony was witnessed only by immediate relatives. A wedding breakfast was given at the home of the bride, at the residence of the bride's father, at the residence of the bride's father on Lake avenue. Myring's orchestra played selections during the breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Yates left in the afternoon for an eastern trip. On their return they will reside at 277 Delaware avenue, Buffalo, in which city Mr. Yates is engaged in business.

Auburn.

Kate, wife of Michael McDonough, died at the family residence, 61 Holly street, Friday last. Deceased was an amiable christian woman and her demise will be deeply felt by her husband and family. The funeral was held from the Holy Family Church on Monday morning at 9:30 and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The remains were interred in St. Joseph's cemetery.

On Tuesday of last week occurred the death of James Harmon, at the home of his mother, on Chase street. Deceased was a popular young man and had hosts of friends who deeply mourn his death. He had been ill but a few days when death relieved his suffering. He was a prominent member of the Knights of St. Alphonsus. The funeral was held from the Holy Family Church last Friday at 9:30 when Rev. Father Quinn celebrated a requiem High Mass and conducted the funeral services. A large number of floral offerings were received from sympathizing friends. The Knights of St. Alphonsus attended the funeral in a body and the bearers were selected from among their number. The interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

The four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America was observed in this city in a manner befitting the occasion. The children of the Holy Family school attended mass at the Holy Family Church at 9 o'clock and then assembled in the school where exercises appropriate to the occasion were held. At St. Mary's church a solemn high mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock in which Rev. Father Mulhern performed the office of celebrant; Rev. Father McGrath, deacon; Rev. Father Dougherty of St. Stanly, (formerly of St. Mary's) sub-deacon and Alexander McCabe, master of ceremonies. In the afternoon a flag was raised in front of the parochial residence when Rev. Father Mulhern delivered a short address relating to the occasion. Exercises were held by the children of the school in Lyceum Hall when a programme national in character was rendered consisting of songs, recitations, drills, etc. In the evening the programme was repeated and Rev. Father Dougherty delivered his much looked for lecture on Columbus. The lecture was a masterly effort, highly entertaining and instructive.

At St. Alphonsus' German school a very pleasing entertainment was held on the lawn in front of the school. The exercises opened at 2 o'clock with the reading of the President's proclamation after which a large American flag was raised on a flag staff nearly 100 feet high. As the flag was ascending to the top of the staff the children of the school sang in choruses, "The Flag of the Free." Rev. Father Magin, of Spencerport, delivered an address appropriate to the occasion. Taken altogether, Columbus Day was a day that will long be remembered by the children of the schools of Auburn.

Willie, the little son of Mary and the late Thomas Breen, died at the residence of Thomas Shayler, his grandfather, on Thursday of last week after a short illness of scarlet fever. A few months ago the little fellow's father was called away, and this death makes it particularly sad for the bereaved mother who has the sympathy of the community in her sad affliction. The funeral was held last Saturday afternoon from the residence of William Shayler, 244 State street, and the interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Danaville.

The Redemptorist Fathers are holding a mission at St. Mary's church this week.

Phil Schummeel, of Rochester, is visiting at home.

Miss Minnie Noland is in Buffalo this week having her eyes treated by Dr. Starr.

The ladies of St. Patrick's served a supper in O'Connell's Hall, one evening last week. Seventy-two dollars were realized, which sum has been used for the purpose of renovating the church.

The Redemptorist Fathers will open a mission in St. Patrick's church the 7th of next month which will last a week. On the closing day, the Rev. Bishop will administer the sacrament of confirmation.

The Freshest and best pies, crackers, cakes, bread, etc., are sold at the Quince bakery, 30 and 499 State st.

Souvenirs of Confirmation Printed in an artistic manner and at reasonable rates at this office. CATHOLIC JOURNAL CO.

MUSEE THEATRE.

For this week, commencing Monday, Oct. 31st, a magnificent bill of attractions will be presented at the popular people's Musee Theatre. Commencing with the Earl Sisters, who are the four leading songsters, song and dance artists and aerial performers, the list runs down through a varied galaxy of stars whose talent and versatility is recognized throughout the country. Among the more prominent performers are Joseph F. Campbell and Maggie Evans in a new comedy sketch, The Coponties, Chas and Sadie, in their pleasing and laughable burlesque, entitled "Biddy, the Market Woman." Tom Haley, the Irish comedian, who captures the hearts and attention of all who love the Emerald Isle, and Sherman and Morrissey, the greatest of all burlesque and trap-ze performers.

In the lecture hall the special engagement of the world renowned Prince Alban and Loraine are announced and G. Mann, with his remarkable trick of Australian cockatoos. Friday will be ladies' day and each lady visiting the musee will be presented with an elegant silver-plated butter knife as a souvenir of the occasion.

A Good Candidate.

Mr. McNaughton has taken up in earnest the work of his canvass; and everyone is heartily in favor of his success.

Mr. McNaughton is one of those men who take up public business with special zeal and activity. He is untiring in public service, exact, prompt and faithful to every obligation. It has sometimes been said that in his profession he has lacked the constant, determined application of other leading lawyers; but no such criticism can be made on his official action. He has never spared himself when working for the public.

He is honest as a public man not only in the sense that he keeps his hands clean of jobbery, but in the sense that he deals openly and fairly with all his constituents; is never the slave of a clique and very seldom the creature of party interests as against the interests of the people.

He has the faculty of accomplishing what he sets out to do. Democrats give him loyal support and Republicans are always ready to make him the widest concessions consistent with party policy. He has the exceptional tact that manages without seeming to manage.

He knows Rochester and Monroe county thoroughly, and if there be any point in which it is possible for congress to serve either he will never rest satisfied until he has brought congress to act.

His career as a state senator is the best guarantee of his activity and success as a congressman.

It may be his fault that he will be more anxious for the good of his constituents than for making a reputation in national affairs; but even in national issues his saving common sense may be relied on.

Public duties may have delayed his canvass; but his friends will no doubt make up by zeal for loss of time.

HON. ALBERT L. CHILDS.

The Candidate of the First District Democrats for Member of Assembly.

There are few residents that have not heard the name of Albert L. Childs, the Democratic nominee for assemblyman in the first district. Mr. Childs is a native of Seneca county. He graduated from Hamilton College and is by profession an attorney. He is thoroughly versed in legislation, as he was elected a member of the Assembly from his native county, where he also held the office of justice of the peace for four years to the entire satisfaction of the people. While a member of the Assembly he made the noted speech on the Normal schools of the State of New York, which had wide circulation and received favorable comment by the press. As a public speaker he has a wide reputation and is well known throughout the State, as he has stumped in many political campaigns to the benefit of the Democratic party.

HON. DONALD McNAUGHTON.

Candidate for Congress.

Our citizens know that Donald McNaughton did not seek the Democratic nomination for Congress. The people called for him; and it was only after the earnest solicitation of friends and at a great personal sacrifice that he consented to run.

The degree of confidence reposed in Mr. McNaughton by the people of this county was twice indicated by his triumphant election as a State Senator in this strong Republican Senatorial District. He carried it by 429 in 1887, when the Republican State Ticket had over 3,000 plurality here; and in 1890, over as strong an opponent as William A. Sutherland, by 371 plurality, though the Republican State ticket received nearly 4,000 plurality. It was something more than the mere popularity of McNaughton that caused this political phenomenon. It was the deep-seated conviction of a majority of our people that in McNaughton they had a candidate who could be absolutely relied upon for honesty, painstaking, intelligent service to his District.

His career in the State Senate justified this high opinion. Throughout his four year's service in Albany he was never identified with questionable or extravagant legislation. He gave his vote and his voice to none but clean and useful measures. Every bill having for its object the amelioration of the condition of the working classes found in him a cheerful supporter. So far as the interests of Monroe County were concerned, he was always wise, active and loyal. No State Senator ever worked more zealously for the welfare of his community than did Donald McNaughton. It seems almost idle to repeat this statement, so well do the people know his truth. In Albany, McNaughton was first, last and all the time a Monroe County man.

If elected to Congress, Donald McNaughton will carry this unselfish devotion to his country's interests into a broader legislative field. He is honest; he is energetic; he is industrious; he is thoroughly familiar with public affairs. His fund of strong common sense is inexhaustible. It is men of his sagacity and conservatism that should make laws for the Republic. He always has his temper well under control, and is the soul of courtesy to men of every class. To know Donald McNaughton is to trust him. The people of Monroe County know him and have trusted him; and he has never broken faith with them.

Mr. McNaughton will get more than his party vote in Rochester and every corner of the County. The Congressional District is to-day debatable. Shrewd Republicans admit it. With proper activity by his Democratic friends, ex-Senator McNaughton can and will be elected.
