

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Go to the fair.

Thanksgiving Nov. 24.
Miss Anna Dunphy is, we regret to say, dangerously ill.

The engagement is announced of Augustine M. McDonnell, son of Mrs. Dr. T. A. O'Hare, to the daughter of Hon. Frederick Cook.

Tuesday evening Holy Redeemer Church choir gave an excellent musical and dramatic entertainment at concordia hall.

Our Rt. Rev. Bishop will preach at the dedication of a new church in Yonkers tomorrow. On Tuesday he will give confirmation at Palmyra.

Mr. John N. Forbes and Miss Beatrice Felicia McCarthy, sister of the late Father McCarthy, were married at the Immaculate Conception church Thursday of last week.

The funeral of Lena L., daughter of Charles Weber, took place from the family residence, 243 Campbell street, Wednesday at 8:45 a. m. and from the Holy Family church at 9:15 a. m.

Wm. Peasley has returned from a visit with relatives in his former home—Chicago. He has grown so big and handsome since he left Chicago four years ago, that his own mother did not know him.

Resolutions prepared by a committee composed of J. C. Hughes, E. J. Sullivan and W. C. Mallon have been adopted by Rochester Council, 207, C. B. L., upon the death of August Drees.

Tuesday morning of this week Miss Katie Wolf and Joseph Kasper were united in marriage at St. St. Michael's church at 8 a. m. by Rev. F. Pascual. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 66 Scrantom street.

Walter Elmonage died at his residence, 22 Faver street, Sunday. He leaves a wife and two brothers, John of Toronto and Joseph of New York city. The funeral took place Wednesday from the house at 8:30 and from the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock.

August Drees, aged 46 years died Tuesday morning at his residence, corner Allen and Platt streets. The deceased leaves besides his wife, Anna, four sons, Charles, Gustave, John and Peter, two daughters, Eva and Annie, and one brother, Father Drees, of Bristol, Wis. Mr. Drees was a member of the St. Francis Xavier Society.

During his recent visit to Ireland W. Foster Kelly met the renowned archbishop of Cashel, Most Rev. Dr. T. W. Croke, and enjoyed a short conversation with the patriotic prelate. "The archbishop," says Mr. Kelly, "is looking well and hearty. He is hopeful of Ireland's future and believes the existing differences between the people will be satisfactorily settled." Mr. Kelly also met Dr. Sheehan, who was consecrated Bishop of Waterford about two years ago. Mr. Kelly's father, John Kelly, of Waterford, Ireland, breathed his last on Sunday.

There was a very interesting entertainment given Monday evening last by Rochester talent for the benefit of Father D'onnely's church at Victor. The following programme was rendered: Quartette composed of Messrs. O'Brien, McCracken, Roach and Ryan; tenor solo by M. J. O'Brien; basso solo by M. A. Rodenbeck; dialect imitations by Miss Katherine Burns and P. J. Dwyer; duett, Miss A. Roache and Mr. F. Ryan; instrumental solo by Miss M. Hickey, and a contralto solo by Miss A. Roache. The entertainment was a success both financially and musically, and was attended by a well pleased audience of about nine hundred.

On Friday morning last occurred the death of Mrs. Brown, at the family residence in Maple place. She had been in ill health for some time past, and the last week of her illness was particularly painful. Her sufferings were patiently borne, and her death a truly Christian one. Her funeral was held from St. Mary's church Monday, and was one of the largest held from that church in years. Besides her husband, the deceased leaves three children—all boys—the youngest two years of age and the oldest seven. They have lost a loving and kind mother Mrs. Brown was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Trant, of Alexander street. To the sorrowing relatives we extend our sympathy. May she rest in peace.

Moravia.

Moravians will be given a rich treat on the evening of November 23. It will consist of an illustrated lecture on "Rime," by Rev. J. H. Conroy, of Ogdensburg. Father Conroy lectured in Cathedral hall, Rochester, two years ago to a delighted audience. He has many friends in Rochester.

THE ORPHANS' FAIR.

A Grand Electrical Display—At Various Tables.

A fine portrait of Father Kiernan is on exhibition at Scrantom, Wetmore & Co's.

The greatest novelty of the fair will undoubtedly be the electrical display prepared for the Immaculate Conception table by Electrician Chas. B. Barnes. It consists of a gigantic arch, center piece and cross, formed of electric lights. The words "Immaculate Conception" constitute the arch, each letter being at least 18 inches high and a foot across, composed of about twenty 16 candle power electric lights on a background of powdered marble dust, which will make it sparkle like a thousand gems. In the center, between the words "Immaculate" and "Conception," is a star of white lights, surrounded by a circle of blue lights; in the center of this star is a one hundred candle power light. Then there is an immense cross at least five feet long and three wide, also made of 16 candle power lights of varied color, another 100 candle power light being in the center. More than 90 horse power will be required for the display; this will be furnished free by the street railroad and electric light companies. Mr. Barnes states that the whole can be so arranged that the dropping of a coin in the slot will turn off any section of lights.

ST. MARY'S.

Father Angelo's table will be attended by Messdames Jeremiah Hickey, M. Maloney, John Thies and others; Fred Madden is secretary. Miss Lillie O'Hallaghan will be in charge of Father O'Hallaghan's table, assisted by Misses Kate Lucas, Nellie Lucas, Lizzie Conlon, Minnie Mahoney, Libbie Moore, John Rogan, Dr. L. J. Somers, Dan'l Sullivan and others.

The parishioners are working energetically and hope to place the parish among the leaders, so far as receipts are concerned. Many handsome donations have been received. Over $250 have been turned over to treasurer Somers of Father O'Hallaghan's table. The profits of the fair, which will be considerable, judging from the energy of Father Stewart and his assistants, go to this parish.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

Table will be under the direction of Stephen Rauber and Miss E. F. Baker, assisted by various young ladies. There will be a fish pond in charge of Misses Collins, Tuohy and McGurn. A fine list of donations is reported. $160 has been raised by the school children; there is no doubt that St. Bridget's will make a good report.

A handsome portrait of Father Hendrick is on exhibition in Fahy's window. It will be disposed of during the fair.

ELECTION RETURNS

The result of Tuesday's election may well be called a Democratic avalanche. Cleveland and Stevenson will have 803 of the 444 electoral votes, Harrison 109, and Weaver 33. It is the most crushing defeat the Republicans have ever sustained. In this county the local Republican ticket was successful. John Van Voorhis was elected by a majority of about 265.

Foraythe, rep., beats Decker, dem., for district attorney by about 458.

Three Republican assemblymen were elected—Stone in the first district, O'Grady in the second, by 742 maj., and Denniston in the third.

The Rep. majority in Monroe county is cut down to 3,498.

The next assembly will be Democratic, and a Democrat will succeed U. S. Senator Hisecock.

The United States Senate will stand 42 dems., 40 reps. and 6 Populists.

The scenes on our streets election night were beyond description. There was a mixture of wild Democrats, small boys, big tin horns and little tin horns, and all combined to make the night hideous.

The Freshest and best pies, crackers, cakes, bread etc., are sold at the Culross bakeries 30 and 499 State st.

Catholic Reading Circles.

George Parsons Lathrop, L. L. D. will open the course of lectures arranged for this fall and winter, under the auspices of the Cathedral Reading Circles of the city, on the evening of November 29th in Cathedral Hall. Mr. Lathrop's subject will be "The Pole Star of American Literature." Mr. Lathrop has been long noted as a poet author and literateur, and his conversion to the Catholic church, together with that of his talented wife, was announced a few months ago. The lecture which Mr. Lathrop will deliver here was delivered before the Catholic summer school at New London last August, and was the recipient of much admiration. That Mr. Lathrop will be greeted by a large audience goes without saying.

At the Catholic "Literary" meeting Monday evening a piano and violin duet was played by Miss L. Daley and Frank Ashe; Miss Eugenia Cunningham recited "The Inventor's Wife;" Miss Tessie Gavigan played a piano solo and the members discussed these questions: "Who is the Greatest Living Man?" and "Who is the Greatest American Orator?" In regard to the first, opinion was divided between Pope Leo XIII, Gladstone, Bismarck and Thomas A. Edison. Chauncey M. Depew seemed to be the favorite orator, although Burke O'Connor, W. C. P. Breckenridge, Henry Watterson and Senator Hill had their champions.

At the last regular meeting of the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle, which was held in their rooms at Cathedral Hall, the following programme was given:

Miss Cooper read a paper on "The Mound Builders," Miss McGarry on "The Cabots," Mrs. B. J. O'Donnor on "Palestina," Miss Redmond on "Elections," Miss Alice Fox read "Columbia" and Miss O'Kane Longfellow's "The Building of the Ship;" Miss Helen O'Connell favored the circle with a vocal solo, "Promise Me;" Miss Julia O'Connor sang "St. Agnes" Miss Taylor and Miss O'Connor accompanied in the vocal solos. The meeting was well attended.

Amusements.

Eva Mountford's Remarkable Success.

Miss Mountford presented her new version of East Lynne at the Academy of Music three days last November to the biggest receipts that theater ever experienced during H. R. Jacobs' management of it. Hundreds of people were turned away and seats were placed in the aisles, the orchestra moved on the stage to make room for the audience, and over one hundred seats placed on the front of the stage and sold. This remarkable success encouraged Mr. Jacobs to engage the attraction for a full week this season for Cook's Opera House, where it is expected the great success will be continued.

ACADEMY.

Beginning next Monday and continuing throughout the week, the latest New York success, "Current Cash," will be produced. The play is English and contains many startling situations and effects. The scenery is entirely new, costing not less than $15,000. The cast includes many well-known and metropolitan favorites.

MUSEE THEATRE.

By special request of the patrons of the people's popular music theatre the wonderful talking horse, Mahomut, has been secured for next week. This beautiful horse is undoubtedly the most intelligent animal on earth, and his performance is an argument in favor of the theory of animals possessing reasoning power. You should see this wonderful animal and take the children with you.

In addition to this magnificent attraction Signor Galetti's trained birds will amuse the theatre goers this week.

In the theatre an unusually good bill has been provided and the reputation of the house goes up one notch higher for first class variety performances. The Paynes, Billy and Alice, well known comedy and vocal artists, will lead the performance, and will be followed by Christie and Pearl in refined comedy. Celeste, the supreme monarch of the black wire, will hold the audience spellbound while he executes his wonderful and dangerous act. Jessie M. Beatty, superior vocalist, and a number of other strictly first-class artists will complete a magnificent programme for the theatre.

East Rush.

On Friday evening next the young folks of St. Joseph's parish will hold a social party at Kinsey's hall, East Rush. The committees in charge include the following: Edward Collins, William Lyons, Richard Bogy, John Rice, John Sweeney, Jas. Gleason, John Kavenaugh, Daniel Maher.

MOVING.

Furniture Moved, Stored and Packed by Sam Gottry & Co., Furniture Movers. Orders left at Erie Street 112 Exchange street or at home 8 Thompson street. Telephone 643 or 267.

La Roy.

Miss Anna Rielly has been visiting in Rochester and Batavia the past few days.

Miss Susie McMannis has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. E. Welch, at Batavia for a week.

Miss Kittie Achinson has gone to Oswego, to attend the wedding of her brother William, which occurs this week.

Miss Katie Leahy, of Rochester, has been spending several days at her home here.

On Wednesday occurred the funeral of little Leo Whalen, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whalen of this place.

The funeral of Mrs. Bernard McCarrick took place on Monday, from Pavilion. She was at one time a resident of LeRoy and is the mother of Mr. Patrick McCarrick of this place.

Mr. Edward Brown, of Washington, D. C., has been visiting his father, Mr. John Brown the past ten days.

Business Education.

Do you wish to have a good practical knowledge of book-keeping penmanship, arithmetic or any, or all of the commercial branches? If you do, you can, by joining the classes at Taylor's Business College, 127 East Main St. The rooms are open both day and evening. Tuition low. For terms apply in person or by letter.

Our Correspondents.

Owing to the late arrival of our valued correspondence, our readers will see that we are compelled to cut it short; much to our regret.

Auburn.

The Knights of St. Alphonsus have adopted appropriate resolutions on the death of their late brother, James Harmon.

The eight hour system has been adopted by the police commissioners. The death of Mrs. Thomas Cunningham occurred at the family residence in Baker avenue Saturday. She leaves, beside her husband, four sons and one daughter to mourn the loss of a loving wife and a kind mother. The funeral took place from the Holy Family church Monday.

The Auburn free reading room opened for the winter season Nov. 1st.

Ithaca.

Mr. J. F. Hickey has opened a music store over 44 east State street. With favorable weather the work of paving with brick Cayuga street from Green to Seneca will be completed this week.

Notwithstanding numerous counter attractions Thursday evening, the spelling match between citizens of Ithaca and Cornell professors was attended by an audience representative of Ithaca's best citizens. Every seat was occupied, and the novel entertainment provided proved very amusing. The Ithaca quartette and the Cornell Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club rendered several pleasing selections.

I DRESS UP ON CREDIT

Crowded to the Doors. We are dressing more people under our Original Credit Plan than all other houses together. Thousands of Fall and Winter Overcoats, styles, suits, single pants, etc. In Ladies' Wear—Robes, Jackets, etc. Peoples' Sale—Nov. 25 & 26. First floor, over 16 State street. Open day and night.

Sibley, Lindsay &amp; Curr.

The all important question is how to keep warm; how to protect ourselves from taking cold. This depends largely on the underwear. The outer garment may be light or heavy if the underclothing is right.

Underwear.

Yesterday we commenced a special sale of underwear; odd pieces and soiled garments; many of them manufactured by Cartwright & Warner, Norfolk & New Brunswick Co., and the American Hosiery Co. The garments are perfect for wear, but not quite so good to sell.

Men's extra heavy four-ply Scotch lamb's wool shirts and drawers at $2 a garment. These have been reduced from prices ranging from $2.50 to $7.

Ladies' full fashioned Saxony wool Jersey ribbed vests and pants reduced from $1.75 and $2 to $1.50 a garment.

A few ladies' white merino combination suits manufactured by the Norfolk & New Brunswick Knitting Co., and the American Hosiery Co., which formerly sold from $2 to $5.50 now for $1.50 and $2.

Ladies' full fashioned white merino pants, Norfolk, New Brunswick & New Britain Knitting Co.'s, goods, but slightly soiled, reduced from $1 and $1.25 to 50c.

Carpets.

The carpet room is more than full; much of the surplus stock has been moved up stairs to make room for holiday goods. A few moments spent in the back part of the carpet room will give an idea of the immense stock of Ingrains we carry. These are "one-price to all, and that the lowest."

Knit Goods.

Right in line with the underwear are the knit goods; warmers for old and young, but especially for the little ones. Everything, most, which will keep Jack Frost away from the babies all the way from head to foot. Angora hoods and crocheted silk bonnets and the warmest kind of boots.

Hosiery.

100 dozen ladies' seamless merino hose, 2 pairs for 25c.

100 dozen ladies' black all wool seamless hose, ribbed tops, merino heels and toes at 25c a pair.

A special line of ladies' fine black cashmere hose at 39c, a regular 50c article.

At 50c we make a special point to have the best value offered on the American continent. A big statement but true.

100 dozen ladies' black fleece lined, full fashioned hose with double heels and toes at 20c a pair; better qualities at 25, 30, 35c, 40c and 50c.

In children's hose we have all qualities, styles and prices. A large lot of odd sizes in various qualities we are closing at 2 pairs for 35c.
