YOUNG MEN'S NATIONAL UNION. The President of the Young Mens National Union has sent out the following: DEAR SIR: The approach of the reat Feast of the Immaculate Conception reminds us of the sacred duty of reception of Holy Communion which all the members of the National Union are expected to fulfill on the dunday within the octave of the teast, to be this year. December 11 Since the establishment of this au unal communion day numerous, in leed, have been the blessings conferred on our association. Increase of numbers and renewed seal for the glory of God and welfare of our fel measure the graces which have achieve were 5 500 in attendance. crued to individual lives and which are hidden from human kin? So must it ever be, since in Holy Communion we receive the bread of life, which nourishes our faith and renders it "living" and fruitful in every good

There is no more important project than that which our National Union has placed for itself, viz the raising ip, the religionizing of the young men of America. Whatever of success we may attain in our noble cause must come through the help of Guk Let us ask it of Jesus in the sacrament of His love. He who counsel d the young man seeking eternal life who went over the youthful Lazarus and on whose sacred heart rested the virginal St. John, longs for the youthful worship and fealty of even our day and country. In unison. then we should observe this annual communion day Let every young man who loves the honor of God and of our holy faith seal his professions Archbisnop Katzer was born in 9 o'clock and was escorted to the by the reception of the Holy Com munion, feeling sure that God's choicest favors will follow a work se sacred and be manifest in the future of individual lives as well as of our National Union.

We will recognize with gratitude that the time set for this holiest duty proclaims the Immaculate Concep tion of Mary our Holy Mether, whom thus we honor and whose powerful protection we most perfectly secure It is desired that the members on their communion day make special supplication to God for Holy Church and for our Souvereign Pontiff and for the work of our National Union Pray for our associates living, that they may ever prove faithful to al sacred duties, and for our deceased brethren that they may find peace and rest with Christ and his saints.

I take occasion of the present opportunity to express and hope that Capt. McCormick, Chief Bemish, you are not wearying of that portion Father Kiernan, Chief of Detectives of the general interest of our National Union which has been confided to you and in which you have heretofore merited so well Assured that there is no respite for him whose pur puec is to do good, let us persavere: knowing that God, whose designs we serve, will ever quetain sus and grapt us reward exceeding great.

The despoilers of the Course Heldom strive in this world. This is a tact which history, tradition, and experience well and thoroughly attent the restoration of the old Mission of San Luis Rey, near San Diego, in this -tate, recalls another instance of this cruth. There is in the southern part of our state a gray-haired old man who was the Governor of California many, many years ago. Nature en towed him with keen intelligence, strong will power and a large ac uve, and healthy frame. His dutation was by no means neglected in thespringume of life, and in every respect he was deemed a man well qualified to govern. His prospects to life were surely flattering at the outset.
