

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Rev. J. J. Hartley left for Europe Monday.

Our Rt. Rev. Bishop will give Confirmation at St. Morris to-morrow.

The feast of the Immaculate Conception was appropriately observed in all the Catholic churches.

On Sunday, Dec. 31, the annual election of the Children of Mary, of St. Mary's, will take place at the convent of Mercy, South street, at the usual hour.

Mrs. Louisa Benson gave the fourth of a series of readings on "The Poet Laureate" before a large number of ladies at the Chamber of Commerce Monday morning.

Miss Elmore Coppinger writes to Rochester friends that she arrived safely at Antwerp on the 31st, after a very enjoyable voyage. She left Antwerp for Berlin, where she will be a pupil of Schumann.

The will of John C. Dugan was admitted to probate this week. The estate is valued at $7,000. Bequests of $100 each are made to St. Mary's Hospital, St. Mary's Boys' Orphan Asylum, St. Patrick's Girls' Orphan Asylum and St. Bernard's Seminary.

Mr. Richard Fennecy, of Frost avenue, this city and Miss Lulu Connors of Brooklyn were recently married in the latter place. Mr. Fennecy is a favorite in Rochester and especially so in musical circles. A young man of noble character his popularity is well deserved. May the blessing of Heaven be showered upon him and his chosen companion throughout their career.

James W. Whitney and Edward E. contemplate the erection of a six-story commercial building on the corner of the Farmers' Hotel, corner East Main and Elm streets. It is said that Gorton and McCabe, carpet dealers, will occupy one-half of The Security Trust Company has had plans prepared for a fire-proof hotel to be erected on its property at the corner of East Main street and East avenue.

Bishop McQuaid when asked this week about the appointment of Mgr. Sotoli, said: "The appointment simply confers upon Mgr. Sotoli the powers of an apostolic delegate. Authority of the same nature, though perhaps not so great in its extent, has been conferred upon American bishops many times before this. In many cases where particulars are to be obtained by the pope with extreme difficulty, the case has been referred to some delegate, whose decision in the matter was final. No, I do not look upon the recent appointment as anything out of the ordinary rule that I have explained."

Deaths and Funerals.

The deaths since our last issue include:

John P. Strick, aged 45 years, of 31 Nazareth Place. Funeral from St. Joseph's Church.

John Wirth, aged 74 years, of 539 St. Joseph street. Funeral from the Holy Redeemer Church.

Edward, son of the late Thomas Norton of 393 Alexander street, aged 37 years. Mr. Norton was a graduate of Fordham College. Funeral Monday from Christ Church.

John Peter Tschung of 57 C. Campbell street, aged 75 years.

Mary O'Connor, aged 54 years. Funeral Friday morning from the cathedral.

Anna, wife of Patrick Mullen, died Sunday at her house, No. 7 Woodbury street, aged 39 years. Deceased leaves, beside her husband, five children. Daniel M., Thomas P., Florence, Loretto, and Marie. Mr. Mullen was a railroad engineer in the Central railroad yards at East Rochester. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from the house and 9 o'clock from St. Bridget's Church.

The funeral of George Merklinger took place Monday morning from St. Peter's and Paul's church.

Catholic Literary.

At the "Catholic Literary" Tuesday evening the program included an instrumental solo by Miss Flynn, a paper on English literature during the Saxon period by Dr. J. R. Gullin, a vocal solo by Miss McCarthy, a paper on English history during the Saxon period by Dr. James H. Fennecy, debate: "Should Foreign Immigration into the United States be Further Restricted?" Affirmative, Willard A. Marable; negative, Thos. F. Boylen. The principal speeches were made by Rev. Felix O'Hanlon in the affirmative and John D. O'Key in the negative. The discussion was spirited and instructive. The election of officers for the Literary and the annual banquet will take place soon.

French Church.

The retreat of the Young Ladies Society is now in progress at the French Church. Rev. E. J. Hanna preached Thursday evening. Forty French students return tomorrow at

OFFICERS ELECTED.

John J. Quirk has been elected president of Branch 98 O. M. B. A.

At a meeting of Rochester Council No. 207, Catholic Benevolent Legion held at their rooms Tuesday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chaplain, Rev. James F. O'Hare; president, Robert J. Lennon; vice-president, M. J. Fitzgerald; orator, John J. Heveron; collector, William O. Mallon; secretary, John H. Lenzhan; treasurer, William F. Hanna; marshal, Peter Oullen; guard, Patrick Reddy; board of trustees James M. Nolan; P. H. Spillane; John S. Burns; representative to state council, John O. Henghes; alternate to state council, John F. Kinney; medical examiner, Dr. J. W. Casey.

Branch 88, O. M. B. A., last Wednesday night, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Spiritual Advisor, Rev. Jas. P. Kierman; Chancellor, James L. Whalen; President, James P. O'G.; 1st Vice-President, Frank D. Knight; 2nd Vice-President, Chas. E. Gure; Recording Secretary, James Garvey; Assistant Secretary, Richard F. Noonan; Financial Secretary, John F. Casey; Treasurer, James H. Casey; Marshal, Thomas Killackey; Guard, John Glavin; Trustees, for two years, James Garvey, Joseph Stephan and Thos. McNamara; Representatives to Central Council, James Garvey, James H. Casey, Richard F. Noonan.

Flower City Council.

Flower City Council, Catholic Benevolent Legion, has chosen the following officers: Spiritual Director, Rev. F. Pascalar; Chancellor, Otto Roth; President, Louis W. Maier; Vice-President, M. J. Whitman; Orator, Charles Ritter; Secretary, Louis J. Heindl; Collector, M. J. Lasehaet; Treasurer, Robert Siebert; Marshal, Joseph Kamb; Guard, John Faquet; Trustees, August Klingler, Emil Kern, Charles T. Scherbaum; Representative to Grand Council, Robert Siebert.

The Polyhymnists.

On Tuesday evening, January 6, the Polyhymnists will give their first concert at Cathedral hall. This young society should be encouraged by our Catholic citizens. The organization is composed of young men who are ever ready to assist in any work of Catholic charity where good voices and musical accomplishments are required.

The society was organized in January last and numbers 16 male voices. W. F. Redwood, in pres.; Chas. M. Lane, in vice-pres.; F. H. Heister, secy.; D. H. Darcy, Treas. In the coming concert the Polyhymnists will be assisted by Miss Frances A. Lederle soprano and Mrs. Marie Hale Loeley elocutionist.

At Nazareth Convent.

At Nazareth Convent last Thursday morning the beautiful ceremonies attending the profession of candidates for the sisterhood were gone through with.

Three novices took first vows of the order of St. Joseph. Their names in the world and religion are: Miss Susan Turner, of Canandaigua, a graduate of the class of '91, Nazareth Academy, Sister Mary Haverline; Miss Clara Golden, of Rochester, a graduate of the class of '91, Nazareth Academy, sister Mary Agnes Miriam; Miss Charlotte Gaffney, a graduate of the class of '89, Rochester Free Academy, Sister Mary Vincentine. The novices were received by Bishop McQuaid, assisted by Very Rev. H. D. Rigge, Chancellor of the diocese of Rochester, Rev. J. P. Kierman and Rev. J. E. Harley of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Rochester Catholic Reading Circle.

An interesting meeting of the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle was held on Tuesday evening at the rooms of the club in Cathedral hall. The paper on "American History" was carefully prepared by Miss Rose McIntyre, and that on "Early Missions in America" proved an entertaining subject well handled by Miss McAleer. Miss Mahon read an account of the life of Handel and Miss Katherine Purcell gave Mrs. Remans "Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers." A paper on "Current Topics" by Miss Goudy, containing well chosen items of interest, was attentively listened to. The musical numbers were thoroughly enjoyed, Miss Moran's instrumental solo being brilliantly executed and the vocal solo by Miss Norman and Miss Stella Purcell excellently rendered.

Wednesday.

The interior of St. Joseph's church is being newly grained and varnished.

Miss Nora Mehan is very sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. Chas. Brown, her cousin, is also very sick with the same disease.

The O. M. B. A.

The O. M. B. A. is preparing for a grand ball and festival.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Bishop McQuaid at Waterloo.

Bishop McQuaid administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of eighty candidates in St. Mary's church of Waterloo, Sunday, after solemn high mass of which Rev. John Quinn, of Auburn, was celebrant.

The church was crowded to the doors, both morning and evening, not only by members of the congregation, but by Protestants of every denomination, and many were unable to gain admittance. The Bishop delivered a masterly discourse on the nature and effects of the Sacrament he was about to confer.

In the evening at half-past seven another immense audience assembled in the edifice. The occasion was the blessing by the Bishop of the new altars of the cross, recently imported from Munich. The Bishop preached another eloquent sermon in explanation of the ceremonies, which was listened to with marked attention throughout. Among the clergy men present were Rev. Fathers O'Laughlin, Kiernan and Hopkins, of Rochester; Quinn, of Auburn; O'Neill, of Phelps; M. Donald of Geneva; and St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Father Hick. The bishop and visiting priests expressed great delight in the artistic decoration so recently completed in the church and eulogized both pastor and people for the zeal manifested by them in the erection of so beautiful an edifice.

Nunda.

The many friends of Mrs. J. H. Hughes, who has been seriously ill, will be pleased to learn that she is on the road to recovery.

Frankie Driscoll, who has been an invalid for some time, is able to be out once more.

The Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered to a class of about fifteen at Holy Angel's church, Sunday, Dec. 11th, at 8 p. m. by Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid.

Will the "Mite Society" be continued this winter? It is to be hoped that it will.

The wedding bells will soon be ringing.

Among the latest additions of Catholic families to this place is the family of Mr. Stula, who reside on Washington st.

Miss Kate Brick expects soon to go to Hornellville.

The military drama, "The Scout of the Rappahannock" will be given in the Academy of Music, Dec. 15, 16 and 17. Mr. "Bud" Steele takes part.

Seneca Falls.

Council 20, O. R. B. A., held an interesting meeting on Thursday evening last and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Michael E. Regan; 1st Vice-President, John E. L. O'Neil; 2nd Vice-President, Miss Julia M. Huland; Recording Secretary, Miss Nora Mulhern; Assistant, Miss Ellen Lavell; Financial Secretary, Patrick Ferguson; Treasurer, Chas. Furness (re-elected); Marshal, John Garabert; Guard, John Dowdell; Trustees, Patrick Ferguson, John E. Mackin, Chas. Furness; D. Legate to Supreme Council, John E. Mackin; Alternate, Chas. Furness. The newly elected officers will be installed Jan. 13th, 1893.

Miss Marguerite Mahar of Penn Yan, is visiting her friend, Miss Jennie Flanagan, on Myhras st.

The young pianist, Master Freddie Easton, aged 8 years, and his brother George, the violinist, aged 10 years, of this place, who took part in the musical program given at the fair of St. Francis' church, held in Phelps a short time ago, delighted the audience very much and are worthy of great praise.

Fur Rugs.

A large and well selected line in all colors. Some very handsome bordered ones now in for the holiday trade. Hows & Rogers Co.

Business Education.

Do you wish to have a good practical knowledge of book-keeping penmanship, arithmetic or any, or all of the commercial branches? If you do, you can, by joining the classes at Taylor's Business College, 137 East Main St. The rooms are open both day and evening. Tuition low. For terms apply to person or by letter. A. J. Taylor, Principal.

Carpet Sweepers.

No person would please mother or wife better than a good carpet sweeper. Do not buy a poor one, they are worthless. We guarantee those we sell, and if they are not satisfactory will refund money.

Hows & Rogers Co.

Fur Boxes for Baby Carriages.

A nice lot now in store in white, gray and brown colors.

Hows & Rogers Co.

THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Bishop McQuaid at Waterloo.

Bishop McQuaid administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of eighty candidates in St. Mary's church of Waterloo, Sunday, after solemn high mass of which Rev. John Quinn, of Auburn, was celebrant.

The church was crowded to the doors, both morning and evening, not only by members of the congregation, but by Protestants of every denomination, and many were unable to gain admittance. The Bishop delivered a masterly discourse on the nature and effects of the Sacrament he was about to confer.

In the evening at half-past seven another immense audience assembled in the edifice. The occasion was the blessing by the Bishop of the new altars of the cross, recently imported from Munich. The Bishop preached another eloquent sermon in explanation of the ceremonies, which was listened to with marked attention throughout. Among the clergy men present were Rev. Fathers O'Laughlin, Kiernan and Hopkins, of Rochester; Quinn, of Auburn; O'Neill, of Phelps; M. Donald of Geneva; and St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Father Hick. The bishop and visiting priests expressed great delight in the artistic decoration so recently completed in the church and eulogized both pastor and people for the zeal manifested by them in the erection of so beautiful an edifice.

ACADEMY.

Gus Hill's World of Novelties, which will appear at the Academy next week, commencing Dec. 13, is one of the finest, most perfect and desirous combinations now out. This fact is certified to by the high encomium of all who have had the pleasure of witnessing their performance.

MUSE THEATRE.

The Black Minstrels, Venetia and Adams in sketches and impersonations. The little comic singer, Miss Marie Temple, will appear in all her latest New York successes. The miniature of the sculptor art, Smith Bros., will pose in imitation of G. Scott Roman statures, giving famous historical groups and Biblical pictures. Will F. Denny, whose descriptive comic songs so pleased audiences in the early part of the season, will be at the Museum again next week. Gregory and Fitts will appear in their wonderful performance on the horizontal bar, and a number of other celebrities and stars have been engaged to entertain the public at the Museum next week.

In the Lecture Hall, Sam and Sadie Stires, the famous sailor whistlers, who will give souvenirs to the lady patrons of the theatre, made by their own hands. G. Haasen, the mystifying magician and apostle of the Black Art, will produce some wonderful tricks and slight-of-hand performances during the week. The whole program from top to bottom is rendered by first-class artists, and a great entertainment will be found at the Museum during the next few days. Friday afternoon, December 16, a special performance will be given for the benefit of Mrs. Frank Edwards, who has been long and favorably known to Rochester theatre goers.

The Kenyon Hat and Fur Co.

Announces a grand clearing sale of medium and low-priced cloth jackets of this season's make and styles. Jackets that were $7.50 are now $5.00; jackets that were $10.00 are now $7.50; jackets that were $12.00 are now $9.50; jackets that were $14.00 are now $10.00. In no other store or department can such values be had at the above prices. Come early. This sale can last but a few days.

THE KENYON HAT AND FUR CO.

140 East Main St.

A Good Reputation.

Has been won by the Outlets Bakeries by selling pure Baker's goods. When you need anything in that line go to 30 or 499 State St.

MOVING. Furniture Moved, Stored and Packed by Sam Gentry & Co., Furniture Movers. Orders left at Erie Ticket office 12 Exchange street or at home, 8 Thompson street. Telephone 643 or 367.

A Nice Christmas Present.

or your friends would undoubtedly be a fine picture of yourself. Just now you can get the finest Ariato finish photograph at a very low price for this month only, at J. E. Mock's Photo Studio, 40 State street.

Gossamer.

Miss Nellie Britton and Mr. McQuay were married in St. Mary's church at this place on Tuesday last. The bride is one of Geneva's fairest and most accomplished daughters.

Two New Contracts.

Dr. Koper, Prince Bishop of Breslau and Dr. Kermeyer, Archbishop of Cologne, have been named as the candidates.

Sibley, Lindsay & Curr.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Bishop McQuaid at Waterloo.

Bishop McQuaid administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of eighty candidates in St. Mary's church of Waterloo, Sunday, after solemn high mass of which Rev. John Quinn, of Auburn, was celebrant.

The church was crowded to the doors, both morning and evening, not only by members of the congregation, but by Protestants of every denomination, and many were unable to gain admittance. The Bishop delivered a masterly discourse on the nature and effects of the Sacrament he was about to confer.

In the evening at half-past seven another immense audience assembled in the edifice. The occasion was the blessing by the Bishop of the new altars of the cross, recently imported from Munich. The Bishop preached another eloquent sermon in explanation of the ceremonies, which was listened to with marked attention throughout. Among the clergy men present were Rev. Fathers O'Laughlin, Kiernan and Hopkins, of Rochester; Quinn, of Auburn; O'Neill, of Phelps; M. Donald of Geneva; and St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Father Hick. The bishop and visiting priests expressed great delight in the artistic decoration so recently completed in the church and eulogized both pastor and people for the zeal manifested by them in the erection of so beautiful an edifice.

Never before have Holiday Departments been so filled with the choicest wares in their line. Our modern holiday stocks are hags of extraordinary beauty and remarkable diversity. The improvement in the matter of variety is not more noticeable than the improvement in the matter of cheapness. A man of moderate means can supply himself with holiday gifts at an outlay that would have been inadequate twenty years ago.

There is no good reason why any holiday shopper, no matter how abundant his means or extravagant his tastes, should go outside of Rochester to make his purchases. He can be suited here.

BOOKS

Standard sets in fine bindings, including complete works of such American writers as Longfellow, Lowell, Holmes, Hawthorne, Emerson, etc., and of Dickens, Scott and other English authors.

DOLLS

From far away Germany, from hardly less distant France, and from our own country the collection has been made. It was the eye of an artist which made the selections. Nothing has been overlooked, except the very dolls; they are wanting. Of course the parent must know of what they are made, the kinds. But don't tell the little ones that they are anything less than flesh and blood; allow innocence to go untroubled. To know how costly you must compare material and price. There are 50 dolls and dolls for $28.50. The list includes china, washable, unbreakable, kid, jointed, dressed, undressed, yarn, rubber and felt dolls.

At the Doll Department there is also all the doll personal property: Clothes, shoes, stockings, hats, swings, chairs, cradles, carriages, etc.

TOYS

The Toy Department is a miniature world; there is the household furnishings, chairs, rockers, stoves, dishes and all the rest.

The instructive toys include printing presses, magic lanterns, chests, tools, etc.

Iron toys, which won't break, embrace all sorts of cars and carts and other contrivances.

Steam toys, complete mechanisms, illustrate the principles which once learned, the boy will never forget.

Musical toys, from the drum to the toy piano. A thousand others, which we can't mention but you can almost see at a glance.

Sibley, Lindsay & Curr.

140 East Main St.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

A Few Seal Plush.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Bishop McQuaid at Waterloo.

Bishop McQuaid administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of eighty candidates in St. Mary's church of Waterloo, Sunday, after solemn high mass of which Rev. John Quinn, of Auburn, was celebrant.

The church was crowded to the doors, both morning and evening, not only by members of the congregation, but by Protestants of every denomination, and many were unable to gain admittance. The Bishop delivered a masterly discourse on the nature and effects of the Sacrament he was about to confer.

In the evening at half-past seven another immense audience assembled in the edifice. The occasion was the blessing by the Bishop of the new altars of the cross, recently imported from Munich. The Bishop preached another eloquent sermon in explanation of the ceremonies, which was listened to with marked attention throughout. Among the clergy men present were Rev. Fathers O'Laughlin, Kiernan and Hopkins, of Rochester; Quinn, of Auburn; O'Neill, of Phelps; M. Donald of Geneva; and St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Father Hick. The bishop and visiting priests expressed great delight in the artistic decoration so recently completed in the church and eulogized both pastor and people for the zeal manifested by them in the erection of so beautiful an edifice.

Never before have Holiday Departments been so filled with the choicest wares in their line. Our modern holiday stocks are hags of extraordinary beauty and remarkable diversity. The improvement in the matter of variety is not more noticeable than the improvement in the matter of cheapness. A man of moderate means can supply himself with holiday gifts at an outlay that would have been inadequate twenty years ago.

There is no good reason why any holiday shopper, no matter how abundant his means or extravagant his tastes, should go outside of Rochester to make his purchases. He can be suited here.

BOOKS

Standard sets in fine bindings, including complete works of such American writers as Longfellow, Lowell, Holmes, Hawthorne, Emerson, etc., and of Dickens, Scott and other English authors.

DOLLS

From far away Germany, from hardly less distant France, and from our own country the collection has been made. It was the eye of an artist which made the selections. Nothing has been overlooked, except the very dolls; they are wanting. Of course the parent must know of what they are made, the kinds. But don't tell the little ones that they are anything less than flesh and blood; allow innocence to go untroubled. To know how costly you must compare material and price. There are 50 dolls and dolls for $28.50. The list includes china, washable, unbreakable, kid, jointed, dressed, undressed, yarn, rubber and felt dolls.

At the Doll Department there is also all the doll personal property: Clothes, shoes, stockings, hats, swings, chairs, cradles, carriages, etc.

TOYS

The Toy Department is a miniature world; there is the household furnishings, chairs, rockers, stoves, dishes and all the rest.

The instructive toys include printing presses, magic lanterns, chests, tools, etc.

Iron toys, which won't break, embrace all sorts of cars and carts and other contrivances.

Steam toys, complete mechanisms, illustrate the principles which once learned, the boy will never forget.

Musical toys, from the drum to the toy piano. A thousand others, which we can't mention but you can almost see at a glance.

Sibley, Lindsay & Curr.

140 East Main St.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Manufacturers of Fine Furs.

Children's Fur.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Bishop McQuaid at Waterloo.

Bishop McQuaid administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of eighty candidates in St. Mary's church of Waterloo, Sunday, after solemn high mass of which Rev. John Quinn, of Auburn, was celebrant.

The church was crowded to the doors, both morning and evening, not only by members of the congregation, but by Protestants of every denomination, and many were unable to gain admittance. The Bishop delivered a masterly discourse on the nature and effects of the Sacrament he was about to confer.

In the evening at half-past seven another immense audience assembled in the edifice. The occasion was the blessing by the Bishop of the new altars of the cross, recently imported from Munich. The Bishop preached another eloquent sermon in explanation of the ceremonies, which was listened to with marked attention throughout. Among the clergy men present were Rev. Fathers O'Laughlin, Kiernan and Hopkins, of Rochester; Quinn, of Auburn; O'Neill, of Phelps; M. Donald of Geneva; and St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Father Hick. The bishop and visiting priests expressed great delight in the artistic decoration so recently completed in the church and eulogized both pastor and people for the zeal manifested by them in the erection of so beautiful an edifice.

Never before have Holiday Departments been so filled with the choicest wares in their line. Our modern holiday stocks are hags of extraordinary beauty and remarkable diversity. The improvement in the matter of variety is not more noticeable than the improvement in the matter of cheapness. A man of moderate means can supply himself with holiday gifts at an outlay that would have been inadequate twenty years ago.

There is no good reason why any holiday shopper, no matter how abundant his means or extravagant his tastes, should go outside of Rochester to make his purchases. He can be suited here.

BOOKS

Standard sets in fine bindings, including complete works of such American writers as Longfellow, Lowell, Holmes, Hawthorne, Emerson, etc., and of Dickens, Scott and other English authors.

DOLLS

From far away Germany, from hardly less distant France, and from our own country the collection has been made. It was the eye of an artist which made the selections. Nothing has been overlooked, except the very dolls; they are wanting. Of course the parent must know of what they are made, the kinds. But don't tell the little ones that they are anything less than flesh and blood; allow innocence to go untroubled. To know how costly you must compare material and price. There are 50 dolls and dolls for $28.50. The list includes china, washable, unbreakable, kid, jointed, dressed, undressed, yarn, rubber and felt dolls.

At the Doll Department there is also all the doll personal property: Clothes, shoes, stockings, hats, swings, chairs, cradles, carriages, etc.

TOYS

The Toy Department is a miniature world; there is the household furnishings, chairs, rockers, stoves, dishes and all the rest.

The instructive toys include printing presses, magic lanterns, chests, tools, etc.

Iron toys, which won't break, embrace all sorts of cars and carts and other contrivances.

Steam toys, complete mechanisms, illustrate the principles which once learned, the boy will never forget.

Musical toys, from the drum to the toy piano. A thousand others, which we can't mention but you can almost see at a glance.