A MEMORABLE YEAR.

THE ANNALS OF 1892 GIVEN IN A NUTSHELL.

The Year Has Been Marked by Peaceable Political Revolutions Remarkable La-Disturbances, Unusual Disasters and Notable Anniversary Celebrations.

The year 1892 will pass into history as and of the most remarkable in the anrais of the world. There have been wars and rumors of wars, famines, cholers, yellow fever and labor disturbances. election contests of a remarkable character in England and the United States. each resulting in the downfall of the hitherto dominant party: a comet has azed across the heavens, there have been star showers, the president's wife has died, and to the president elect has come the celebration of his daughter's one year birthday.

A man who might have become king of England and emperor of the Indies died and left a fiancee, who was promptly betrothed to his brother and successor in the royal line. Three great American millionaires lave gone to the grave, and the world has sorrowed at the deaths of Whittier. Whitman and Tennyson, the notable poets of our day.

But turn the shield: shut out the record of death, disaster and calamity and view the brighter side. There you may see the bright promise of prosperity incident to good crops and fair prices; the splendid possibilities of the World's fair at Chicago; the growing power and vancement in science, invention and the arts, both liberal and industrial; the augmentation of knowledge; the increase of morality and prosperity, and m we consider the various phases of the Year's record we cannot but admit that despite all drawbacks 1892 was a twelvemonth in which it was well to live, to cheerve, to learn, to suffer and to enjoy.

Put on thy mask, that none may know

Could part with sighing.

Come, join in merry song and dance.

- Thy heart is breaking: Put on a smile and hide from view Its heavy aching. The world would only scorn thy pain Twould turn away in cold disdsin Banish the traces from thine eyes Of bitter crying.
  For none must know that those sweet lips
- Nor sorrow tell by sigh or glance. God knows 'tis hard to smile when one Is sad and weary; To dance as though thy heart were light . When all is dreary. There's many curious lips to ask Thy cause for pain. Put on thy mank.
- No. no. 'twill never do-that smile. Tis not beguiling: Far better see the tear drops there.
  Than such sad smiling. For one could read the story there Of broken hearted, sad despair. Here is a mask; 'twill hide thy grieff Come, wear it lightly.
