

OUR CITY PARISHES.

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.

On Monday, January 16th, our Rt. Rev. Bishop celebrated the 45th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

On Sunday last the Rev. John McMahon, of Homer, N. Y., lately ordained for the diocese of Rochester, said his first High Mass at the Cathedral.

Rev. J. P. Kiernan announced at all the churches last Sunday that there would be a renewal of the Mission some time during Lent; that the exact date would be made known later on.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Miss Sarah Egan went to Genesee on Wednesday to attend the C. M. B. A. ball.

Mr. Holloran, of Atkinson street, is recovering from her recent illness. The Columbian Literary Circle met on Monday evening and held a very interesting meeting. The following programme was given:

Piano Solo—Master Willie Sutherland.

Paper—Katherine E. Conway, Miss T. McMahon.

Reading—Miss A. McDonald.

Vocal Solo—Mrs. T. McGreevy.

Paper—Miss J. O'Kane.

Recitation—Mr. Stanton.

Indian Club Singing—Mr. P. Golding.

Reading—K. J. Dowling.

Current Events—Miss O. Rose.

Vocal Solo—Miss Edith Barber.

Male Quartette.

The next meeting will be held January 30th.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

At the first Mass at St. Michael's church last Sunday, the rector, Father Pascoal, announced that it was urgently necessary a new residence for the Sisters who are engaged as teachers of the parochial school, should be erected. The pastor stated as yet he was undecided as to how the necessary funds for this purpose should be raised, if by subscription, a fair, or both. At High Mass, Father Pascoal announced that since he had spoken of the matter, less than two hours ago, he had received subscriptions amounting to $1,175, of which $1,000 had been subscribed by a single individual. The pastor further stated that a meeting of the members of the congregation would be called shortly to decide when the building should be begun, and in what manner the necessary funds should be raised.

The receipts of the treasurer of St. Michael's congregation for the past year amounted to $13,543, of which $4,300 was applied to paying off the debt resting on the new church. The debt now amounts to $54,600, having been $58,800 last year. After paying the above sum, nearly $3,000 remains in the hands of the treasurer. This is truly a good financial showing for St. Michael's.

FRENCH CHURCH.

A musical and dramatical soiree will be given in the French Hall on the evening of Feb. 1st, for the benefit of the Church of Our Lady of Victory. Philip Fried and Mrs. W. F. Rampe will sing and tableaux illustrative of events in sacred and profane history will be given. The affair will be under the directorship of Prof. Fabst.

Wednesday afternoon Miss Ida Eudora Savard and Edward A. Leimgruber were united in marriage by Rev. A. A. Notebaert. They were attended by the ushers E. Doucette and F. Leimgruber. Edith Savard and Art. Doucette headed the couple up the aisle strewn with flowers.

A reception followed at the residence of the bride 54 Hudson avenue. The young couple are very popular among their friends, as was attested by the numerous presents they received. Mr. and Mrs. Leimgruber will spend a week in New York.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

The funeral of Agnes Lavin, daughter of John B. and Catherine Lavin, of 16 Parcells avenue, was held last Sunday. Her age was one year and eight months. The parents mourn the loss of their child, and have the sympathy of their many friends.

HOLY ROSARY.

On Sunday, Rev. J. E. Hartley submitted his financial statement for the year. The net receipts were $2,147. Holy Rosary's contribution to the orphan's fair fund was $545, nearly $400 more than its assessment.

HOLY ANGELES.

The annual financial statement and subscription list will be distributed by Father Murphy to-morrow.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

On Sunday evening Feb. 12, Rev. Father Burke, of Washington, will lecture at St. Bridget's church.

GROTON.

Miss Mary Lynch died at her home here on January 14th after a long illness. The funeral took place at St. Anthony's church Monday morning and was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Harrington have been married at Groton.

A SUCCESSFUL LECTURE.

A Large Audience Greeted Miss Conway Thursday Evening.

Cathedral Hall was well filled last Thursday evening by those who wished to hear Katherine E. Conway's lecture on "The Christian Gentlewoman, or the Social Apostolate." The distinguished lady was introduced by Rev. T. A. Hendrick, who referred to the happy combination which had existed on the Boston Pilot until the death of Boyle O'Reilly—Archbishop Williams, the ideal Christian churchman; John Boyle O'Reilly, the ideal layman, and Katherine E. Conway.

Miss Conway prefaced her lecture by stating that she came to Rochester not to discharge an obligation of gratitude—she could never do that—but to acknowledge it. She alluded feelingly to what she owed our Rt. Rev. Bishop, "whose words of praise, though he never knew I heard them, determined my choice of a vocation." The lecture was a plea for the old-time "gentlewoman." She believes that women should not leave home unless adapted for other kinds of work. When girls leave college they should not forget home and its duties. Their standard should be the perfection of womanhood, which is better than to be greatest in music, literature or art.

At the reception after the lecture, hundreds paid their respects to Miss Conway, and many old friends greeted her.

LOCAL.

Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid will preach in St. Agnes' church, New York, to-morrow.

Walter Bradley and Miss Minnie Schirk were married Tuesday afternoon at the church of the Immaculate Conception by Rev. Dr. J. F. O'Hare.

Master Vincent Ritz, of 265 Meigs street, won the clock recently raffled by the St. Boniface Organ Fund Society.

Miss Gilbert, of Buffalo, is a guest of Mrs. C. A. Leimgruber, of No. 48 William street.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mayer, at their residence 48 Hollenbeck street, were the recipients of a grand surprise Wednesday evening. The party was highly entertained, and all enjoyed themselves to a late hour in the morning.

D. B. Murphy, of Burke, Fitzsimons Hone & Co., and Rev. Felix O'Hanlon of St. Mary's Catholic church left Thursday evening for a trip to Washington, Fort Monroe, and Old Point Comfort. They will be absent about ten days.

Peter Short died at his home, 23 Manhattan street, this week aged about 45 years. The deceased was for many years in the employ of A. S. Mann & Co. He was highly respected and many friends mourn his loss. The funeral was held Wednesday from St. Mary's church.

$3,000 A YEAR.

It is reported that at a meeting of the officers of the New York Grand Council of the C. M. B. A. held here Wednesday, Chancellor John J. Hyman was appointed paid organizer at a salary of $3,000 a year. We will refer to the matter at greater length in a future issue.

Officers of Branch 117 were installed Wednesday evening of last week.

Bro. John Tormey, of Branch 87, has been re-elected president of Organ-makers' International Union No. 5, over five opponents. Of course, John's popular.

BRANCH 135, PENN YAN.

The following are the officers elected by our Penn Yan Brothers for 1893: Spiritual adviser, Rev. E. Pagni; chancellor, John F. Meehan; president, Frank McNiff; 1st vice-pres., J. C. Caviton; 2nd vice-pres., P. J. Barry, rec. sec'y, W. Costello; asst. rec. sec'y, M. J. McAdams; fin. sec'y, Francis Reilly; treas., Peter Curran; marshal, James White; guard, Michael Orange; trustees, J. F. Meehan and M. J. Craugh.

BRANCH 93.

The installation of officers for this Branch, which was postponed because the last meeting night fell on a legal holiday, took place Monday night. District Deputy Chas. H. Crowley officiated, assisted by Chancellor E. M. Dissett.

BRANCH 96, BROCKPORT.

Chancellor James W. Larkin installed the new officers for Branch 96, at a regular meeting held Friday, Jan. 13. Spiritual adviser, Rev. E. J. Story; President, Julius Lester; 1st vice-pres., Henry Cargoe; 2nd vice-pres., Wm. Ryan; treas., James Collins; rec. sec., Pat'k McCarthy; asst. rec. sec., J. W. Cunningham; fin. sec., John J. Shea; marshal, Levi Hoyt; guard, Joseph Waller; trustees, T. J. O'Brien, Walter Merry, Richard Shea.

YOUNG MEN'S CATHOLIC CLUB.

At the athletic exhibition of SS. Peter and Paul's Y.M.C., given in the parish hall on Litchfield street Monday evening, these young men took part: Albert Dengler, Charles Waddell, John Kimmel, Joseph Barker, Edward Morand, Chas. Hetzler, and the instructor of the club, Bernard McSteen. Prof. Stork gave a legedomain exhibition. Dancing was afterwards indulged in, and a pleasant evening spent by all.

The Catholic Literary.

At the regular meeting of this organization Monday evening a piano duet was rendered by the Misses Dempsey; Miss McGahan sang a solo; Miss Nellie Lucas read a paper on "What We Owe to Our Literature;" Miss Keenan played a banjo solo; J. F. Hunt read a paper on "A Boy's Hardships." President Somers announced the executive and entertainment committees for the year. Chris Kerrigan is chairman of the executive committee, and Dr. J. H. Finnessy of the entertainment.

An Attorney Wedded.

Edward Keenan, of this city, and Miss Margaret Murphy, of Lima, were married in St. Rose's church at the latter place Monday, Rev. S. Fitzsimons officiating. The bride is the accomplished daughter of one of Lima's prominent business men. Mr. Keenan was admitted to the bar a few months ago and is a member of the firm of Murphy & Keenan. He is one of the first subscribers of this paper, and the JOURNAL wishes him and his young bride the happiest of futures. Mr. and Mrs. Keenan will reside on Caledonia avenue.

Mount Morris.

Misses Nellie Casey and Eva Sattel, who have been visiting friends in Rochester, returned Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burge are visiting Mrs. Burge's parents at Addison.

A very pretty event took place at St. Patrick's church Tuesday morning when Miss Celia Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Long, and John J. Collins, both of this village, were united in marriage. Promptly at ten o'clock the organist struck up the wedding march, and the bride party entered the church, preceded by the ushers, John Bauer and Dennis O'Leary, who led the way to the altar. Miss Louisa Tager acted as bridesmaid, and P. Miles, of Rochester, as best man.

After the marriage ceremony High Mass was celebrated; after which Father Flaherty made some beautiful remarks appropriate to the occasion. After Mass the bride party and near friends returned to the residence of the bride's parents, where a bountiful wedding breakfast was served.

The happy couple left at 2 p. m. for the N. Y. and P. amid a shower of rice and old shoes for their future home in Rochester, followed by the best wishes of their numerous friends.

Auburn.

On Friday night of last week officer Geo. B. Lightfoot was dismissed from the Auburn police force after a service of nearly twelve years. Lightfoot was the only colored man on the force, and his head has been sought after for years. Every opportunity was taken by which charges could be brought up against him as eagerly snatching, and on three occasions previous to the last one he was brought to trial, but each time the charges were dropped. The last charge was remaining in Ross house and leaving his beat unprotected for one hour and fifty minutes on the morning of Wednesday, January 13. Captain Birdall stood outside the house in the bitter cold during that time, and as Lightfoot was, without a doubt guilty, the opportunity was eagerly snatched up, and the officer dismissed.

The increase in Auburn's taxes this year is $24,000 over that of last year.

Little James, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn, of Seymour street, died last Saturday, after an illness of but a few days. The case is particularly sad, as the bereaved parents suffered the loss of another son, a young man of nineteen, but a short time ago.

The young ladies of St. Mary's church have set about to perform a very good and charitable work, and one that will receive the hearty support and approval of the members of the parish, and the citizens of Auburn in general as well. Last Monday evening a few of the young ladies met in the Children of Mary's Chapel and organized what is known as "The Young Ladies' Aid Society of St. Mary's Church." Officers were elected and plans were discussed to perfect the organization, and make it a permanent one. There are a number of needy poor in St. Mary's parish, and an organization of this character is the right thing in the right place. The officers elected at the first meeting are: President, Miss Katherine Sullivan; treasurer, Miss Mary Kirwin, and Secretary, Miss Helen Sullivan.

James Burns, of Rochester, who was in 1888 sentenced by Judge Smith at Herkimer to thirteen years in Auburn prison for stealing, was pardoned by Governor Flower last week.

John Moore, whose parents reside at 18 Baker avenue, died in Chicago, on January 9th, from injuries received by being run over by a freight train. His remains were brought to this city last Thursday, and the funeral took place from St. Mary's church at 9:30 Saturday morning.

A brother, Michael Moore, is lying in a critical condition from being crushed between two cars at Sayre, Pa., a few days before the above accident.

Amusements.

COOK'S OPERA HOUSE.

Frank W. Sanger and Gus Bethner, the promoters of the new and successful musical comedy "The Voodoo, or a Lucky Charm," with the celebrated Irish comedian Thomas E. Murray, of the late Murray and Murphy "Our Irish Visitors" fame, an instantaneous hit everywhere have hit on a novel idea for scattering knowledge of the company broadcast. This novelty is a little card bearing a red seal in the centre, which holds down seven strands representing the seven hairs which constitute the Voodoo or Lucky Charm fac simile of the Voodoo symbol in the musical comedy.

Thomas E. Murray, who is considered one of the best Irish comedians the stage has known in recent years, has made the hit of his theatrical career in the part of Michael McMahon, an easy-going hail-fellow-well-met Irishman. The supporting company also includes well-known people. Manager Jacobs has arranged with managers Ranger and Bothner of "The Voodoo" to appear at Cook Opera House Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evening and Saturday matinee of next week.

MUSEE THEATRE.

An attraction of novelty and merit which is without a precedent in the history of the house. Col. E. Daniel Boone and Mme. Carlotta, the famous lion tamers and trainers will exhibit their troupe of monster trained lions in a cage thirty feet square and will demonstrate to the audience the extent to which the lions can be subjugated and made to obey the will of the master. Allmair's performing monkeys will also appear in the lecture hall. The animals appear in a boxing contest.

In the theatre John H. Shapley, artistic musical exponent, will be followed by Ida Howells, the talented vocalist, and Manning and Gregory in their comedy sketch entitled "Another Failure." Dryden and Mitchell the popular sketch team, will appear in their original conception "Perfection." The Hub Quartette are to be at this house all the week. This should be the banner week at the Musee for every one wants to see the lions.

Given Up to Die By Physicians and Friends. Restored to Health by Dr. Freeman.

WHAT $5 per Month WILL DO FOR YOU Hundreds of people in Rochester have told of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Freeman at his institute, 105 Franklin street, but none have been more interesting and gratifying alike to patient, friends or the doctor than the case of Mrs. Herman Bliss, of No. 41 Bernard street, this city. Early last fall she was taken ill. One doctor said it was ovarian neuralgia; another congestion of the liver, stomach and several other things she did not have. For two months she could retain nothing on her stomach, and vomited constantly a filthy, bitter phlegm. The pain in stomach and back were terrible; the headaches nearly drove her wild; she had chills and fever alternating; she was dizzy and thirsty all the time; there was a painful swelling on the right side, extending across the abdomen; she could not sleep and she became emaciated and weak her friends thought she could not live; the doctor gave her up. A well-known Rochester policeman advised her husband to call on Dr. Freeman; he did. In two weeks he had her sitting up and now she is in perfect health. In conversation with Mr. Bliss a few days ago, he said: "She got rapidly worse until I put her under Dr. Freeman's care. An immediate change was noticed and I know and feel that Dr. Freeman saved her life; my neighbors think the same." This statement can be easily verified by calling at his residence, 47 Bernard street.

Dr. Freeman cures Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Blood and Skin Diseases, Nervous Debility, derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, and all other ailments of Women.

Office hours at the Institute from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., and from 6 to 8 p. m. daily except Thursdays.
