

OUR CITY PARISHES.

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

SS. PETER AND PAUL.

The fourth annual reception of the Young Men's Catholic Club will be held Monday, Feb. 18th, at the parish hall. The entire club room will be thrown open for the enjoyment of the guests. Each member will be limited to three invitations, and only those holding them will be admitted. The newly organized choir is doing remarkably good work under the direction of Frank Pohl. The offertory last Sunday was especially well rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Hartz have returned from a visit with friends at Waterloo, and on Thursday evening entertained the Sunflower Euchre Club at their residence on Bronson avenue.

The funeral of Matthew Reisinger, the fireman who was killed in the recent collision at Wallace, on the Erie road, took place Monday morning. The deceased was 40 years of age.

Mr. William Touhey and Miss Henrietta Appel were married Monday afternoon by Dr. Sinclair. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Matthew Kondolf. They will make Detroit, Michigan, their future home.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.
Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Barnes are in New York.

Mrs. T. Costello, of Genesee, visited her mother, Mrs. Stapleton, on Tuesday.

Mr. Tully, who has been ill, is convalescent.

The following programme was given at a meeting of the Columbia Reading Circle: Piano solo, Miss Lillian Barnes; Paper, Miss Alice Connor; Recitation, Miss A. Donnelly; Male Quartette from Polyhymnians Singing Society; Paper, Miss Garvey; Recitation, Mr. Corbett; Vocal Solo, Miss Helen Cook; Sketch of Life of Conde Pallin, Miss C. Rose. Piano Solo, Miss Thompson.

Francis McKenna died Monday at his home, 135 Bartlett street, aged 49 years. Mr. McKenna had been for many years in employ of the city in one or more of its departments up to the time of his death. The funeral took place Wednesday from the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

HOLY REDEEMER.
The coming two Sundays are days of great joy for the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer. Sunday the 5th inst., Mr. Boppel will be ordained in the church of the Most Holy Redeemer by the Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid. This is a great honor to the congregation, as the Bishop granted the petition to ordain Mr. Boppel in their own church. The Sunday following the newly ordained priest will celebrate his first solemn High Mass in the same church.

Mr. John Boppel was born in Rochester, Dec. 10th, 1869, and baptized by Rev. F. Oberholzer rector of the church of the Holy Redeemer, and went to the parish school there. His father died when he was but a child of a little over two years, leaving the mother a poor widow. After his first communion it was his only desire to become a priest. According to his wish he was admitted to St. Andrew's Seminary. Leaving this institution the Bishop sent him to the Priests' Seminary at Troy for two years, and from there to Innsbruck, Tyrol, where he remained in the College of the Jesuit Fathers for a little over two years and a half. He was raised to the dignity of a deacon in Europe, and awaits, as stated, the ordination as a priest.

It is certainly a great joy for the mother heart to see her son on the altar of God as a priest. It fills his heart with the joy of the first of the five of the congregation who was baptized by himself. There are some more young men of the congregation who studied for the priesthood, who show the flourishing condition in which the schools of the congregation stand.

Father Boppel will be the assistant at SS. Peter and Paul's church.

CATHEDRAL.

A collection for the benefit of the society of St. Vincent de Paul was taken at the morning services at St. Patrick's Cathedral Sunday.

At the Cathedral Sunday morning Rev. J. P. Kiernan, the rector, presented some facts about the improvements in the parochial school connected with the church. He said the success of the parochial schools has been brought about by the zeal of the bishop, the support of the Catholic people and the work of the devoted body of teachers. Now for the first time there is a teacher for every grade. The course of religious training by the study of the catechism and a text book on the New Testament was explained, this being pursued with the same grade work as in the public schools.

Peter Miller, aged 62 years, died Monday. The funeral took place from St. Joseph's Church.

The funeral services were held at the Immaculate Conception Church at 9 o'clock Monday morning. The bearers were Geo. Hennege, Michael Murphy, James Feebery, John Conney, Edward Madden, and Felix O'Hara.

ST. AGNES EVE.

Celebration at Nazareth Academy.
This item was received last week too late for publication. The Eve of St. Agnes, so famous in classic lore, was duly celebrated at Nazareth this year. The following excellent literary entertainment, in honor of the Mother Superior, was rendered by the pupils of the Academy:

PROGRAMME.
Chorus, "Greeting to Rev. Mother," Young Ladies; Recitation, "St. Agnes' Picture," Miss Katherine O'Neill; Instrumental Trio, 1st Violin, Miss Mary C. Byrnes; 2nd, Miss Katherine O'Neill; 3d, Miss Bessie Fee; Piano, Miss Celia Scanlon; Recitation, "Before the Crown," (Katherine Conway); Miss Rose Cournein; Chorus, "Hide behind the door when Papa Comes," Little Girls; German Recitation, "Num Namens-tag," Miss Celia Klem; Drama, "The Battle of the Books," scene 1; Piano Solo, "Remembrance," (Appalone), Miss Mary C. Preston; Drama, "The Battle of the Books," Scene 2; Piano Duet, "Sherry Brilliant," (Sophmolz); Misses Gertrude Long and M. C. Byrnes; French Recitation, (Le Pienre); French Class: Presentation Poem, Miss Katherine O'Connor; Delsart Pantomime, Young Ladies; Address to Reverend Mother, Miss Julia Shaughnessy.
Salve Regina, by Pupils.
The instrumental selections showed careful training and skill. "The Battle of the Books," a drama, was a contest between the sciences as to which should take the precedence, each one claiming that her particular province was the most important. The prize was at length awarded to "Christian Doctrine," the foremost of all the Sciences. The characters were well brought out and not a little talent shown.
The Presentation Poem, accompanying the gift of a Sanctuary Lamp, from present and former pupils for the new Chapel, was composed and read by Miss Katherine O'Connor and proved a pleasant surprise to all.
"The Delsart Pantomime" formed a beautiful feature of the entertainment. The grace and expression the young ladies presented were especially marked.
A play written and acted by Miss Julia Shaughnessy expressed the esteem in which the pupils hold her, who so worthily bears the title of Rev. Mother.
The "Salve Regina," in three parts, closed the programme.
The boys of Nazareth Hall also entertained Rev. Mother on this red letter day. They too performed their parts admirably and with a grace truly surprising.
The programme was interrupted by a visit from Bishop McQuaid, accompanied by Miss Katherine Conway, of Boston, and a delegation from the Cardinal Newman Reading Circle.

PROGRAMME.
The Sleigh Ride, Chorus; Recitation, "The Two Ideals," J. Feely; 1st. Nites, Violin Duet, T. Groves and J. Cunningham; Recitation, "My first Piece," W. Kinney; Vocal Solo, "God Bless Dear Mother," W. Campbell; Recitation, "I dess 'Twas Papa," C. Clark; Violin Solo, "C. Carre's Concert Recitation," J. Messmer; Banjo Duet, A. Hone and H. Cox; The Brakesman's Last Trip, W. Marshall; Violin Solo, J. Duffy; Address, Leo Fee; Our Happy School, Chorus.

Owing to the crowded condition of the asylum, it has become necessary for the convenience, comfort and health of the Sisters and orphans to enlarge the buildings. At present there are 126 orphans at the asylum besides the Sisters of St. Joseph, who number in all. Too much cannot be said of these good Sisters who, night and day, are continually watching over and caring for the 126 souls in their charge. Sister M. De Chantal the mother of the asylum, is untiring in her labors in behalf of the little ones, and deserves great credit for the manner in which she manages the affairs of the institution.

AMUSEMENTS.
COOK'S OPERA HOUSE.
The Chicago Evening Journal says: "For Revue Only, a new political and satirical comedy by Milton Nobles, was first produced at Havlin's pretty theater last evening in the presence of a large audience. That it achieved a great popular success is undeniable, and will probably cost many dollars for its versatile author. What the play would be if deprived of Mr. Noble's unique talents and strong personality in the leading character, it is not necessary to consider. Dollie Nobles played the leading female character with much grace and vivacity, and introduced a Venetian love song with fine feeling and tenderness. Mary Davenport, Lorenza Atwood, Frank Drummer, L. J. Loring, E. F. Howard, H. S. Foringer and E. H. Sullivan, were all good in their respective roles."

"For Revue Only" will be given at this house Feb. 6th, 7th, and 8th.
Many people suppose that Robert Gaylor's peculiarities of speech are affected by him, but it is not so. His strong intonation of speech and peculiar Irish accent are perfectly natural with him, and were the cause of deriding negro minstrelsy for Irish comedy. He will be seen at Cook Opera House next Thursday evening as Sport McCallister.

MUSEE THEATRE.
Next week Downie & Gallagher's Acme Minstrels, will occupy the theatre at the Musee. Among the features most prominent in the Acme's is a very fine first part—eight men, etc. They portray "Colored Aristocracy," "The Darkeys' Charity Ball," "Mile Tina's expiatory expiations," "Modern Gladiators," and the "Darktown Gymnasium, statues and clogs."

In the Lecture Hall, Flossie LaBlanche, the female Hercules, and the Ali Brothers, acrobats, will appear.

Next week Manager Robinson will inaugurate a special attraction in the shape of a gift to one of the patrons of the house each week, of a railroad ticket to the World's Fair (first-class) including hotel and other accommodations for one week, or a round trip ticket and $25 in cash. This idea starts Monday.

ACADEMY.
Wherever the English language is spoken "Bartley Campbell's" plays are known and properly appreciated by theatre-goers, and some of them have been translated and are now spoken by foreign tongues. One of the most beautiful and romantic plays ever written by this gifted author is "A Heroine in Rags." A free drama, will be seen at the Academy all of next week.

Many of our good people whose pity is only for those who are ill, will tell you "To touch, handle not, taste not," and others equally as divine, will tell you that kind heaven administers to patient, frier or the doctor than the case of Mrs. Herman Bliss, of No. 41 Bernard street, this city. Early last fall she was taken ill. One doctor said it was ovarian neuritis; another, congestion of the liver, stomach and several other things she did not have. For two months she could not eat or sleep. Her stomach and bowels constantly a frothy, bitter phlegm. The pains in stomach and back were terrible; the headaches nearly drove her wild; she had chills and fever alternating; she was dizzy and thirty all the time; there was a painful swelling on the right side, extending across the abdomen; she could not sleep and she became so emaciated and weak her friends thought she could not live; the doctor gave her up. A well-known Rochester policeman advised her husband to call on Dr. Freeman; he did in two weeks he had her sitting up and now she is in perfect health. In conversation with Mr. Bliss a few days ago, he said: "She got rapidly worse until I put her under Dr. Freeman's care. An immediate change was noticed and I know and feel that Dr. Freeman saved her life; my neighbors think the same." This statement can be easily verified by calling at his residence, 41 Bernard street.

Dr. Freeman cures Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Blood and Skin Diseases, Nervous Debility, derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, and Diseases of Women.

WHAT $5 per Month WILL DO FOR YOU
Hundreds of people in Rochester have told of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Freeman, at his institute, 105 Franklin street, but none have been more interesting and gratifying alike to patient, frier or the doctor than the case of Mrs. Herman Bliss, of No. 41 Bernard street, this city.
