

OUR CITY PARISHES.

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

SS. PETER AND PAULS.
The many friends of Mr. Joseph Schmucker will be pleased to learn that he has been appointed a member of our police force.

The recital given by Miss Emma Hoecker, to her friends at Mrs. Tabor's studio last week was a charming affair.

The programme consisted of nine numbers, and was enthusiastically received. Miss Hoecker was assisted by Miss Tabor, Mr. Herman Pohl, Mr. Richard Heuber, and Mrs. Tabor. Seven baby boys were baptized upon a recent Sunday by Dr. Sinclair. This is an unusual, nevertheless a pleasant report.

Mrs. Joseph Weber entertained a few of her lady friends at a dainty luncheon Thursday afternoon.

Thomas Gugel aged 26 years, died Monday evening, at his home 177 Cady street. The funeral took place Thursday, at 8:30 o'clock. His mother and one brother survive him.

HOLY REDEEMER.
By special request of the Rector of Most Holy Redeemer Church, Rev. John Boppel was ordained by Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid at the above church.

Bishop McQuaid was assisted in the ordination ceremony by Monsignor De Regge as arch-priest; Very Rev. Jas. F. O'Hare, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception as assistant priest; Rev. James P. Kiernan, rector of the Cathedral, and Rev. Father Pingli, of St. Joseph's church, as deacons of honor; Rev. Mathias J. Hargather, of St. Francis Xavier, as deacon, and Rev. Felix O'Hanlon, of St. Mary's, as sub-deacon. Within the sanctuary were Rev. E. J. Hanna, D. V., Rev. J. E. Hartley, Revs. John Van Ness, Theodore Scandzinski, Rev. Father Rosenboger and Rev. Fidelis Oberholzer, pastor of the Church of the Holy Redeemer. Besides the students from St. Andrews seminary in this city, and from the Seminary at Troy, seventy-five little girls dressed in white and wearing wreaths were grouped at the altar rail during the service.

The church was beautifully decorated, and the singing of the choir was excellently rendered. After the solemn and impressive ceremonies were over the Bishop delivered a short but very feeling address to the congregation.

After vespers Rev. Oberholzer was visited by the Revs. Lugero, Murphy, Leary, and Miller. There was also the newly ordained priest Rev. J. Boppel, present. The Rev. gentleman will celebrate his first Solemn High Mass. As every arrangement is perfectly made, the celebration will be a grand one.

ST. MICHAEL'S.
After due consideration it has been decided that it will not be advisable to hold a fair to raise the necessary funds for the residence of the Sisters in charge of the parochial school of St. Michael's parish, as both pastor and members of the congregation are disinclined to go into the work and worry that necessarily attends a fair. The funds, therefore, will be raised by subscription, and there is no doubt whatever but that this will be done in a short time.

On Wednesday morning at nine o'clock a wedding took place in St. Michael's church, which was of more than ordinary interest. Mr. Adam Knapp, Jr., was married to Miss Mary Schuetzler, during the celebration of a Solemn High Mass, at which Rev. F. Pascalar, rector of the congregation was celebrant, Rev. John Boppel, the newly ordained priest, was deacon, and Rev. Herbert Regenbogen, assistant at St. Michaels, was sub-deacon. The church was well filled with friends and relatives of the bridal couple. The bride wore a cream white empire robe of pure white, and was adorned with yellow tea roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Anna Knapp, sister of the groom, and Mr. John Schuetzler, brother of the bride, was best man. After the ceremonies at the church a reception was held at the home of the parents of the groom, 85 Joiner street. The groom is a son of Mr. Adam Knapp, a prominent member of St. Joseph's congregation, and for many years a respected citizen of Rochester. The young couple will reside at 85 Joiner street.

Branch 104 L. C. B. A. of St. Michael's parish is making most noteworthy progress. At every meeting of the branch a number of new members are proposed and initiated, and from a very small beginning, a membership has been enrolled that gives proof of the good work the officers have done.

ST. BRIDGET'S.
Sunday evening a lecture and solemn vespers and benediction will be given at St. Bridget's church. Rev. Richard Burke, of Buffalo, formerly of Washington, will deliver the lecture. The musical part of the programme will be rendered by St. Bridget's choir, assisted by Miss Lillian Cronyn, of Buffalo, assisted by the Polyhymnists.

MR. PALLAN'S LECTURE

On The Young Man in Catholic Life—An Able Effort.

Conde B. Pallan's lecture on "The Young Man in Catholic Life," delivered in Cathedral hall Thursday evening under the auspices of the "Catholic Literary," was remarkable for its thoughtful character and good suggestions for Catholic young men. Mr. Pallan was introduced by Dr. L. J. Somers, president of the "Literary." The lecture began with this beautiful language:

When youth is the burden of the poet's song, or the subject of the philosopher's discourse, there are two characteristic key-notes upon which the varying theme is ever pitched—its pleasures and follies, and youth are all told, is the period of enjoyment—when the blood runs hot through the veins, and life fairly boils within the blood; it is the Spring time, the season of the green leaf, whose song "rings Eden through the budding quicks," the prime time, when the new life of the earth swells from underground, and bursts into bud and blossom; when a new sun pours its lusty life down upon a quivering soil, and gladness shimmers in every note dancing in its leaves. It is the only period when human life seems immortal; its joys eternal and happiness is its atmosphere; love and joy its handmaidens. Steeped in the delight of its gladness, the soul feeds upon the exuberance of its own being.

If youth be limited by its shortcomings, it is compensated by many advantages. It is vigorous; it is hopeful; it is filled with the spirit of the time; it has energy; it possesses the courage to do what age timidly shrinks from; it acts on the instant, and carries enterprise on its lusty shoulders headlong to success. It makes mistakes, no doubt; but better the mistake that blunders to success than the timorous prudence which halts on the threshold of action to lose all. What would the world do without young men? Without Spring, could we garner the glory of the autumn sheaf?

But though the period of youth be lacking in the maturer virtues of age, there is a way of harnessing its green vigor to the chariot of utility. So much energy must not be permitted to go to waste: The untamed colt is broken to the harness.

We are here especially concerned about the young man in Catholic life, which impose the fulfillment of religious duties upon the Catholics; this is neither the occasion nor the place for that consideration; but rather we are concerned about the practical Catholic young man, as he represents his faith before the community in which he lives, and those public obligations and duties which necessarily follow from an honest Catholic profession of his faith.

At the reception after the lecture many congratulated the pleasant and able gentleman.

SOCIETIES MEET NEXT WEEK.

MONDAY—Br. 93, 121, 81, 58.

TUESDAY—82.

WEDNESDAY—88.

FRIDAY—87.

Below will be found an official notice from the Grand Secy. As the appointment of a paid organizer has been much commented on, we invite all members of the C. M. B. A. to express their opinions through these columns. Brothers, give your opinion OFFICIAL.

At a regular meeting of the board of trustees of New York Grand Council held at the office of Grand President Hon. John F. Kinney, Rochester, Jan. 18, 1893, Grand Chancellor John J. Hynes was appointed for this jurisdiction to the position described in the late amendments to our laws as "Special Deputy or Agent." His duties as described in the law, Section 108 will be "to examine and investigate the official acts of any officer or agent of any branch, or investigate any infraction of the laws of the association that has come to the knowledge of the Grand President or Grand Trustees in any way, or investigate or enquire into the manner and way such branches enforce the laws, rules, and regulations of the association," also to organize new branches.

The salary was fixed at $1,500 per annum.

Chancellor Hynes has accepted the position and will soon enter upon the duties thereof.

At a meeting of the Central Council Thursday evening of last week, these officers were elected:

President—Ohas P. Mead.

First vice-president—Charles A. Parr.

Second vice-president—Charles H. Crowley.

Treasurer—Lawrence McGeal.

Secretary—T. H. Donovan.

Marshal—Richard Noonan.

Guard—Conrad Gaenzler.

Organization Committee—B. Ritzenthaler, Martin Tobin, E. J. Ernst.

Finance Committee—L. Oberlies, William Brueckel, Jos. J. Schueler.

Brother Malley, of 121, Brueckel, of 82, and Heindl, of 34, expressed their disapproval of the appointment of a paid organizer at a large salary.

OUR LOSSES.
The C. M. B. A. Journal of Montreal, Canada, thus summarizes the injurious results of the beneficiary movement in Canada. The whole blame lies with those who originated the ill-advised controversy:

Now that the crisis is passed, we are in a position to look over the field of battle, and to examine the losses of the campaign.

We find that we have lost prestige through division in our ranks, in the estimation of the Revd Clergy and of the public.

We find that the Grand Council of Canada has lost a certain membership, which has taken years of hard work and earnest effort to enroll.

We find that many sincere and active workers have parted from our branches and Council, to enlist under another banner, that of the Grand Council of Quebec, yet giving supremacy to the fountain head of both Councils; the Supreme Council. We have lost also for the present one branch charter, that of 84, which we may be unable to fill for some time owing to the small English population in this parish, whilst we have lost a certain number in 4 branches, we are able to retain 3 with a good working membership, which will gradually increase to its former number.

Branch 26 numbered 180 members, we have retained 80 and every day adds to this number.

Branches 50, 74, 87, 140, 142 stand solidly by Canada, 143 losing 5 out of 29 members. In Branch 150 Farmham, 95 Lachine, in 129 Granby, 97 and 109 Quebec we lose a membership of about 300 members, allowing that every member remain with Quebec Council. We are confident however that we shall retain sufficient in all of these branches to hold our charter, and therefore have no fear as to the future of our C. M. B. A. in the Province of Quebec.

Mount Morris.
Miss Lizzie McCarthy and Minnie Sheehan are visiting relatives in Elmira.

Miss Agnes Callahan is visiting friends in Orono.

Miss M. Dwyer, of Genesee, visited friends in town last week.

Mrs. Anderson, of Rochester, has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. M. McNamara.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and children, of Canada, were guests of Misses Minnie and Anna Steele last week.

Mrs. M. Burke spent a few days with her daughter in Portage, last week.

Macdon.
On Wednesday afternoon, January 30th, at St. Patrick's rectory in this village, Albert A. Mitchell, of Palmyra, and Miss Clara Agnes Reynolds were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Holmes. Miss Hanna M. Early acted as bridesmaid and William H. Reynolds as groomsmen.

READING CIRCLES.

The Rochester Catholic Reading Circle held an interesting meeting in Cathedral hall Friday of last week. At Tuesday evening's meeting of the Columbian Reading Circle E. J. Sullivan delivered a eulogy on James G. Blaine, and a paper was read by John D. Coffey. Miss Margaret White gave a recitation, Miss Minnie Gragan spoke on "Current Events," Miss Leahy read an essay on "William Cullen Bryant," Misses Mamie Comerford and May Hayden rendered piano solos, and Miss Corbett and T. Kearney sang.

Amusements.

COOK'S OPERA HOUSE.
George Washington Monroe in "Aunt Bridget's Baby" will be the attraction at H. R. Jacob's popular Cook Opera House three nights and Wednesday matinee, Feb. 13th, 14th and 15th. It is one of the most entertaining comedies on the road, and its many excellent features are fittingly acknowledged. Mr. George W. Monroe as Aunt Bridget is among the most successful fun-makers on the stage, and while he is in view of an audience smiles and laughter are unceasing. The character of Aunt Bridget is original, and Mr. Monroe is qualified to present it in all its grotesqueness.

All the specialties are good. They include Nellie Rosebud in her latest success, "When the Days Grow Longer." Thomas J. Ryan as McFee from Kan-ka-ke and his dancing specialty, Harry Deits in his Cuckoo song. The scenery and costumes are very appropriate and exceedingly pretty.

ACADEMY.

There will be a welcome change of attraction at the Academy week end, Feb. 13, when C. N. Bertram's successful drama of city life "The Pulse of New York," will be produced with all its startling scenic effects, and a strictly first class company, headed by Mattie Vickers and Walter Jones. Among the many scenic surprises may be mentioned in particular, the monstrous pile-driver, operated by steam, truly a wondrous effect. Also the New York elevated railroad, showing two immense trains crossing in opposite directions at a lightning speed, and the hairbreadth escape of the two leading characters. Several high class specialties will be incidentally produced.

THEATRE, MUSEE

Attractions at the Musee next week are: Desperate Dive from the Dome of the theatre by Miss Bicketts, the most expert and sensational trapeze artist in the business. Double somersault in mid air, and other so called impossible feats. The Nawns in Wrinklets. The Eclipse Comedy Quartette. Tom E. Sweeney, character Vocalist. Nettie Bond, serio-comic singer and lively sobriette. Campbell & Beard, in their original musical extravaganza. Godfrey, the Mystery, the man who laughs at locksmiths. To the World's Fair Free by way of the Musee Theatre.
