

OUR CITY PARISHES.

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

Rev. Richard Burke, of Buffalo, lectured Sunday evening on "The Church and the New World." "The Catholic Church," the speaker said, "is the mother of progress of all that is true, of all that is lofty, and of all that is noble." In the course of his concluding remarks Father Burke said: "We are here, also, for the advancement of this great empire of free America. Our doctrine impresses upon the people that they should stand by the country and uphold its laws, to be true and loyal even at the cost of their lives. The Catholic people have come out of their poverty and are now high in social life and high in political importance in this country."

Non-Catholic people often wonder why we attach so much importance to our Catholic schools, and why we do not join in the public school system; but without Catholic education there is no preserving Catholic civilization."

ST. MICHAEL'S.

A meeting was held last Sunday after High Mass by the members of St. Michael's congregation, at which it was decided, by a vote of three-fourths majority, to build a new residence for the pastor, and to enlarge the present pastoral residence in such a manner as to make it suitable for the sisters who are employed as teachers of the parochial school. The new pastoral residence will be erected on North Clinton street, on the north side of the church, on lot belonging to the church property which is now vacant. The new building, when finished, will be a decided improvement to the church property, and that part of North Clinton st., where it is located.

SS. PETER AND PAULS.

Bishop McQuaid has stationed the newly ordained priest, Rev. John Boppell at this parish. He will read Mass at 9 o'clock, and preach at 10 o'clock Mass. It is now six months since Dr. Sinclair has been without an assistant, and his many friends will be pleased to learn that the long anticipated assistant has at last materialized, and that he will be relieved of some of the burden of work.

The Mission collection will be taken up Sunday, Feb. 19th.

The large attendance at the reception held by the Y. M. C. O. at the Parish hall last Monday evening, proves the popularity of the club. The object of holding these receptions is to gain new members, and there should be a handsome increase of membership, after such an enjoyable entertainment.

The bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables were well patronized. Music was furnished by Borters orchestra.

Mr. Martin Froehler and Mr. Joseph Schick were initiated at branch 82 C. M. B. A. meeting last Tuesday evening. Three applications for membership were also presented. A friendly bowling match took place Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. C. rooms between a team from branch 82 C. M. B. A. and the Y. M. C. C. team.

Louis Klem died Sunday at the family residence, 68 West Main st., aged 30 years. The funeral took place from SS. Peter and Paul's church.

HOLY REDEEMER.

Last Sunday Rev. John Boppell, the newly ordained priest, celebrated in the Church of the most Holy Redeemer his first High Mass with Rev. F. Oberholzer, the Rector of the Church as Arch-Priest; Revs. J. Stamb and J. Millerr, as Deacon and Sub-Deacon, and Rev. M. Hargather as Master of Ceremonies. There were also present the following Rev. gentlemen: P. McGrath, of Camden, N. Y.; J. Netzel, of Auburn; Th. Szadinski, H. Regenbogen, Dr. Hanna and Rev. Angelo, of St. Marys, and Rev. Thomas Hendrick, of St. Bridget's.

A beautiful sermon was delivered by Rev. H. Regenbogen, of St. Michaels. The Church was, as on the Sunday before, very handsomely decorated, and the choir, assisted by an orchestra, was exceedingly admirable.

Last Monday Rev. John Boppell took possession of his new position as assistant in the congregation of SS. Peter and Paul.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

The pupils of Corpus Christi school enjoyed a sleigh-ride last Tuesday, given by Rev. Father Leary.

Tuesday evening Feb. 14, Jennie M. Larkin, daughter of John Larkin, of Wolfe Island, Ont., and Geo. F. Hick, of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. J. J. Leary.

Nunda.

Thomas Wallace, Jr., and Miss Jennie Walker of Nunda, were married at the Catholic church Tuesday evening by Rev. Father Fisherly.

Local.

The Perpetual Help Society has elected new officers.

Sunday, Feb. 19, the Redemptorist Fathers open a mission at the Cathedral.

John J. Hahn has removed to Atlanta, Ga. His hosts of friends wish him success in his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Quigley celebrated their wedding Tuesday at the home of their son-in-law, Thos. Norman, 79 Campbell street.

Edward C. Oullinan has resigned his position on the Herald to accept a situation as private secretary of the manager of an Oregon railroad. Our best wishes go with him.

The monthly distribution of honors in the grammar department took place at Nazareth Academy Friday afternoon of last week. A literary and musical programme was presented.

Bernard Hughes and Miss Hattie Ritter, both of this city, were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at St. Boniface's Church, Rev. Herman Renker officiating. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock. Later a reception was held at the house of the bride No. 37 Caroline street.

A very pleasant surprise party was given by the Pink Social club at the home of Miss Celia Callahan, of No. 8 Charlotte St. About sixty couples enjoyed dancing, after which supper was served. The committee in charge consisted of Wm. Callahan, Wm. Brooks, W. Welch, Misses Emily Allen, K. Keeler, Miss A. McCarthy and Miss Emma Christman.

The C. Y. M. A. of St. Joseph's church held its annual banquet at St. Joseph's hall Wednesday evening, February 8th. The following were the toasts and responses: "The Church and the Clergy," by Rev. Father Wirth; "The Catholic Young Man of today," by Rev. Father Pini; "The Married Members of the C. Y. M. A.," by Joseph J. Mandery; "The C. Y. M. A.," by Edward J. Meyer; "The Custom of Toasting," by Frank J. Stupp. Rev. Father Froehlich, ex-rector of St. Joseph's church was also present.

Services in observance of Ash Wednesday were held in all the Catholic churches of the city. At the Cathedral high mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock by the rector, Rev. J. P. Kiernan, assisted by Rev. Dr. Edward Hanna, Rev. Coleman O'Loughlin and other priests. Rev. John G. Van Ness was master of ceremonies. Rt. Rev. B. J. McQuaid blessed the ashes, which were then distributed.

At the last meeting of the Catholic "Literary," Miss McGrath played a piano solo, Edward Finn read a paper on "Venerable Bede," Miss Dorey played a piano solo and Dr. Culkun read a paper on English history from 900 to 1,000 A. D. The next meeting will be February 27th, when the silver question and free coinage will be discussed.

Deaths and Funerals.

John Kraus, aged 37 years, died Monday at the family residence, 15 Wackerman street. The funeral took place from the Holy Family church.

Mrs. Mary Rauber died Monday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Drasch, 105 Clifford street, aged 79 years. The funeral took place from St. Michael's church.

Patrick Costello died Thursday morning at the residence of his sister Mrs. Patrick Logan, 121 Whitney street, aged 60 years. The funeral took place Thursday morning from St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Amusements.

COOK'S OPERA HOUSE

Nearly a thousand people stood last evening during the production of "Arcadia" by Corinne and her company. They stood, not because unwilling to pay for seats, but because all the seats, including those in the boxes, had been taken. "Arcadia," the new opera, is an attractive one, and in it abundant opportunity is afforded the little artists and the leaders of the cast to thoroughly display their talents. The stage effects are fine, the costumes rich and gorgeous, the chorus strong, and, in fact, the company is an excellent one. Corinne as "Tom-Tom" maintains her popularity. She is a neat singer and dancer and is a winning, charming little creature, and has about her a magnetism that thoroughly wins her audience.—Syracuse Standard.

Corinne will appear at the Cook Opera House commencing Monday, February 20th.

MUSEE THEATRE.

The holder of ticket No. 12468 was the lucky one at the Tuesday matinee. For the coming week Riley and Wolfe's Metropolitan Vaudeville will amuse the public. The troupe is composed of the best and brightest singers, musicians, dancers and comedians known to the vaudeville stage and their work has received the highest praise from press and public throughout the country.

Genesee.

Mrs. T. Curran, of Avon, was a guest of her sister, Miss Mary Biggins, last week.

Miss Mary Kelly, of Rochester, is home on a visit.

At a meeting of branch 157, C. M. B. A., held at their rooms on Tuesday evening, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That we, as members of branch 157, C. M. B. A., extend our most heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family of our worthy Chancellor, Timothy Costello, in the sad loss of his dear child, and that the bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the branch.

EDWARD CONRON,
JOHN TOOLE,
JOHN McGRATH, } Com.

On Sunday last, at St. Mary's Church, Father Hickey formed a Lenten Association to suppress intemperance.

Miss Julia Gallagher, of Avon, visited relatives here this week.

There will be services at St. Mary's Church Wednesday and Friday evenings, and a sermon on Sunday evenings during Lent.

Caledonia.

The first annual party of Council No. 14 C. R. B. A. on Friday evening, was a success socially and financially. About eighty-five couples were in attendance from Le Roy, Avon, and Genesee. The ladies of the Branch served an elegant supper in the church basement.

The "Catholic Dramatic Club" have in rehearsal the drama "Handy Andy," which they will render March 17th.

Miss Anna Cain leaves next week for a visit of several weeks with her sister in Cleveland.

Phipps.

Michael Welch, brakeman on the Lehigh Valley, while helping to work the "dumps" on Thursday afternoon, was caught between the cars and "squeezed." When the train passed he walked out, despite the horrible pain he suffered, and insisted on walking home unattended. The injuries were so severe that he lived only till Friday morning. The funeral was held from St. Francis de Sales church on Monday morning, and was largely attended. Many beautiful floral pieces were sent by relatives and friends.

Misses Francis and Pauline Mehan were the guests of their brother William Mehan over Sunday.

Mr. Rogers Hogan and Miss Nora McGuinness were married at St. Francis de Sales church Monday morning at 9 o'clock, and left at 10 o'clock for an extended western trip. On their return they will begin house-keeping over Mr. Hogan's store on Middle street.

Ovid.

Father O'Connell baptized Vaughn Joseph Slaght on Thursday last. This man was never baptized before by any denomination. He is twenty-eight years old. Some time ago our pastor, Father O'Connell, also baptized Mary Ida Youngs, who was 22 years of age, and belonged to the Episcopal church.

Father O'Connell married Michael Ready, of Rochester, (formerly of Lodi,) to Miss Anna J. Duffy, of Willard State Hospital. Mr. Ready is a conductor on the South and Lake Avenue electric car line in Rochester. The many friends of the young couple wish them happiness in their future home in the Flower City. The marriage took place at Holy Cross Church, Ovid, at 8 o'clock Wednesday, February 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. John McEvoy, of Lodi, had a nice, select party at their wedding. The party consisted of forty couples, and all had a very pleasant time. That Mr. and Mrs. McEvoy may live long enough to celebrate their wedding is the wish of all.

Father James McGuire, of St. John the Baptist Church, Syracuse, visited his mother in this village, and also his uncle, Thomas H. Mackin, the popular grocer of Ovid.

The funeral of Christopher Miles took place at Holy Cross church Thursday, at 10 o'clock, Feb. 9th. Mr. Miles lived here for 40 years. A wife and three daughters survive him. Mr. Miles lived a good Catholic, and died receiving the rites of his religion from his neighbor and friend Father O'Hanlon. Then, again, a few days before his death from the pastor, Father O'Connell, the Communion. May his soul rest in peace.

A POPULAR CANDIDATE.

Envious Record of Police Justice Bartholomew Keeler.

The nominations of both parties for the municipal election this Spring are on the whole meritorious. It is safe to say that there is not a more popular candidate on the Republican ticket than Bartholomew Keeler. And in consideration of what the performance of the duties of his position means in the way of causing ill-feeling in the operations of justice, it is saying a good deal. Few if any public men are placed in such a position where the strict administration of the office is almost certain to bring upon his head the dislike of a large portion of the voting population of the city. But Justice Keeler has neither averted to the right nor left, and the record of his long and eminent successful administration is a proud one.

MARTIN BARRON.

An Excellent Nomination for Alderman of the Fourth Ward.

The Democrats of the Fourth Ward have placed in nomination for alderman a man of sterling worth and a man who has always commanded the respect and esteem of the good citizens of that section. Martin Barron has been prominent in Rochester business circles, and during his three years' service in the Common Council made an enviable record for the faithful manner in which his duties were discharged, and for the fidelity with which he guarded the interests of his constituents. For twenty-five years Mr. Barron has been engaged in the coal business, and for sixteen years he carried on a hardware establishment. In all his business transactions he has proven himself an upright, honorable man. He commands great influence among the sensible and solid citizens of our city. Mr. Barron will make an ideal alderman.

AN EXCELLENT CANDIDATE.

A Sketch of the Career of Charles B. Ernst.

Charles B. Ernst, the popular ex-City Attorney, is the son of the late Col. Louis Ernst and was born in Rochester in 1854. He received his primary education at St. Joseph's parochial school. He afterward attended Mount St. Mary's, Emmittsburg, and graduated from that institution. After leaving St. Mary's, Mr. Ernst went to Albany Law School and graduated from there. He then returned to this city and entered the law office of Judge Angle and afterward went into partnership with Frank J. Hone, under the firm-name of Hone & Ernst.

Mr. Ernst was a candidate for city attorney in 1888, and on April 18th, of that year, received the appointment from the Common Council. In April of 1890 he was re-appointed. He was a most capable and efficient officer, and gave general satisfaction. "Charley" is an eloquent and convincing speaker and did good work in this county for the Democratic party in the campaign of 1888. His platform utterances are tinged with dry humor, much appreciated by his audience.

Mr. Ernst is a candidate for Police Justice, and if elected will prove a capable man for the position.

DR. JAMES F. CROWLEY.

For School Commissioner of the Fourth Ward.

Dr. James F. Crowley was born in LeRoy, Nov. 8, 1859. In 1888 he removed to this city from Seneca Falls, where he had enjoyed a large practice. In 1889 he was appointed city physician and served the city faithfully in that capacity. Dr. Crowley is a member of the Monroe County Medical society and a Chancellor and medical examiner of the C. M. B. A. In the latter capacity he has given excellent satisfaction, and has three branches in his charge.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

Buy a Monument in Winter.

It is wisdom to buy a monument in the winter months. Mr. Alden, of the Field and Alden Granite works of Rochester, N. Y., told us why. Said he—"We give our patrons a discount of at least fifteen per cent. for all work ordered in either January or February, for this reason: It is ordinarily a dull season, and even if we make no profit it is to our benefit to keep quarry hands and our shop hands busy throughout the winter. Buyers, naturally, get exceptionally good work, and it is finished in time to set in the cemetery before Decoration Day."

The Field & Alden Granite Works are favorably known throughout Western New York, as producers of splendid work, and the highest order of original designs. It would pay you to write them.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

Demonstrating that Dr. Freeman Can Cure Consumption.

Dr. Freeman does not claim to perform miracles, buty confiding himself to the treatment of a few chronic diseases he is enabled to bring his system up to such a standard of excellence that he cures where scores of other doctors have failed. The following testimonial from Miss Sarah H. Case, Auburn, N. Y., conclusively proves this fact. Her letter: "Four years ago I contracted pneumonia, the result of a severe cold, which left my lungs in an exceedingly weak condition. Two years later I was again prostrated by the grippe. My brother was also stricken with the same disease at the same time. Our cases rapidly progressed to consumption, from which my brother died in a few months. The attending physicians said I also could not live. I had no appetite, and felt sick at stomach, had pains in shoulders, chills and fevers and night sweats, breathed with extreme difficulty, coughed almost constantly, and raised immense quantities of thick, yellowish putrid matter and had frequent hemorrhages upon the slightest exertion. These were my symptoms when I consulted you on November 10th inst. I improved from the very first treatment, and now after having been under your care only Ten Weeks, I feel like a new person. All the above symptoms have entirely disappeared, and in fact I have gained so much in strength and flesh that a friend who had not seen me in four months did not recognize me on the street. In view of all this, I deem it a duty I owe to other sufferers to tell them in this public manner where to get cured. I feel and know that I owe my life to your medicine. My address is 16 Beach avenue, should any one wish to know more of my case."

Dr. Freeman cures Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Blood and Skin Diseases, Nervous Debility, derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, and Diseases of Women.

Office hours at the Institute from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., and from 6 to 8 p. m. daily except Thursdays.
