

OUR CITY PARISHES.

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Myles Sullivan, wife of P. J. Sullivan, took place Monday morning from this church.

Miss Alicia Burns, formerly of this parish, died in Elmira at the residence of her sister Mrs. C. W. Skinner on Monday last. The deceased leaves many relatives in this city among whom are Mrs. Jas. Love, Mrs. J. Powell, Mrs. J. Teall and one brother Martin, of Honeoye Falls.

The Cardinal Newman Reading Circle held their annual election of officers at their meeting on Monday evening last. The ladies who filled offices last year were all re-elected.

Sunday evening last at Solemn Vespers given in this church, Rev. Father Burke delivered an eloquent address on "Ireland". The church was filled to overflowing, many being not able to gain admittance. Of the singing it is needless to write, it was of the usual high order of merit. At the collection quite a sum was realized, which will be given to the Ladies' Aid Society.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S.

Four bowling clubs will be organized at the Y. M. C. C. and Tuesday evening the following were elected to act as captains: Edward Schlegel, Joseph Kausch, Henry Brayer, Wm. Faust. A league will be formed and a series of games arranged to be played after Easter. The names of the clubs have not yet been decided upon.

John Flans having tendered his resignation as captain of the Knights of St. Peter and Paul, Jos. P. Freund was elected to fill the vacancy. It was only after considerable persuasion by the members that the ex-captain consented to again assume command.

The company is to be congratulated upon its choice.

Valentine Bindvael was elected fin. sec'y, in place of Herman D. Springer, resigned. The next parade will be Sunday at High Mass.

The funeral of John B. Weiss, took place Monday morning from St. Peter and Paul's Church. His wife Margaret and two daughters Mrs. Frank N. Brayer and Mrs. George Fleckenstein survive him. Deceased was 78 years of age and a member of St. Paul's Society.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

On Thursday of last week, March 16th, Rev. Father H. Regenbogen, assistant at St. Michael's, celebrated the feast of his patron saint, St. Heribert. The pupils of the parochial school united in congratulating Father Regenbogen and wishing him many happy returns of this feast. As a token of their love and devotion the children presented him a basket of flowers. Father Regenbogen thanked them all for their kindness in remembering him on this occasion and presented each one with a beautiful souvenir.

Last Wednesday evening Father Pascual preached the sixth sermon of his Lenten series on "Matrimony," for married people only. The church was well filled and those present listened with great attention to truths of which the priesthood of the Catholic church alone dares speak.

ST. MARY'S.

The charming operetta, "The Twin Sisters," will be given at St. Mary's Hall, South street, every evening during Easter week by the children of St. Mary's parochial school. Those who have attended former entertainments at St. Mary's know what a rich treat is in store. Father Stewart's entertainments are always successful.

The many friends of Rev. Felix O'Hanlon, assistant pastor of St. Mary's sympathize with him sincerely in the loss of his aged mother.

Rev. Father Rossiter celebrated the High Mass at St. Mary's Church last Sunday. Father Rossiter was formerly assistant pastor of St. Mary's and was afterwards stationed at Scottsville. His many friends were pleased to see him.

CATHEDRAL.

Order of exercises for Holy Week in the Cathedral of Rochester will be as follows:

Palm Sunday—Masses at 6:30, 8:30 and 10:30 a. m. Blessing and distribution of Palm at last Mass. Singing of the Passion according to St. Matthew. The evening service will consist in the recitation of the Rosary, Vespers, etc.

Office of Tenebrae on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 4 p. m.

Holy Thursday services at 10 a. m. Good Friday—Services at 9 a. m. Holy Saturday—Services at 9 a. m.

Easter Sunday—Masses at the usual hours for Sunday. Pontifical High Mass at 10:30 a. m. at the close of which Papal Benediction will be given. The morning service will close with the singing of the Te Deum.

Confessions will be heard on Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock, and on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. except during the time of Columbian Literary Circle.

The following programme was presented at the last meeting of the Columbian Literary Circle: Piano solo, Storm, John Doran; recitation, Friar Phillips, Miss Mouihan; paper, R. Malcolm Johnston, Miss J. O'Kane; vocal solo, "Dear Heart," Miss McCarthy; reading, Chats with Good Listeners, Miss O'Brien; piano solo, Mr. E. Donnelly; baritone solo, The Bugler, T. E. Connelly; essay, Miss M. J. Reddington; vocal solo, Answer, Miss McCabe; vocal solo, Miss Maloney; piano duet, Misses Corcoran and Comerford.

Local.

Work on St. Bernard's Seminary is progressing in an encouraging manner. When the silver jubilee of Our Rt. Rev. Bishop comes next July the buildings will be entirely completed and furnished.

Rev. Wm. Harrington's sermon on St. Patrick's Day, delivered at the Cathedral on Friday of last week, was an able effort and was listened to by a congregation that filled the church to the doors. Bishop McQuaid pontificated at the mass.

William B. McAviney died Sunday morning at his home, 14 Lind street, aged 29 years. He leaves, beside his mother, two brothers and one sister.

The funeral of John Donaghue, who was killed by an electric car on State street, Thursday of last week took place Monday morning from the Cathedral.

Very Rev. Mgr. H. DeRegge celebrated solemn requiem mass with the assistance of Rev. William Harrington, deacon, and Coleman O'Loughlin, sub-deacon. The music was by the Cathedral Chorus Choir, of which a daughter of deceased is a member. Oswald Loos' requiem mass was sung. During the services "There's a Land Mine Eyes Hath Seen" was sung by Mrs. Katie O. Mahon.

The funeral of John E. Watters took place Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the house, 439 State St., and from the Cathedral later. Mr. Watters had been a trustee of the church for a number of years, and the services were attended by the congregation, as well as by the leading citizens outside of the parish, all testifying to the general esteem in which he was held in the community.

Solemn requiem Mass was celebrated by the rector, Rev. James P. Kiernan, assisted by Rev. Dr. Edward J. Hanna, deacon; Rev. Coleman O'Loughlin, deacon; Rev. John G. Van Ness, sub-deacon. Bishop McQuaid occupied the episcopal throne with the deacons of honor on either side, Rev. J. F. O'Hare and Rev. T. A. Hendrick.

Nazareth.

The annual retreat for the pupils of Nazareth Academy, opened on Tuesday, 21st instant, at 5 p. m., and closed on the morning of March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation. Former pupils of the academy attended the exercises, which were under the direction of a Jesuit father.

The sisters of St. Joseph celebrated the feast of their patronal saint, St. Joseph, by special services at Nazareth academy, Monday morning. Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Bernard J. McQuaid.

A reception took place at the convent Saturday. Bishop McQuaid celebrated mass and received the postulants, who came into the chapel dressed in white and wearing bridal veils. After the reception the bishop addressed them. Their names are: Miss Florence Benzeng, of Oswego, in religion Sister Mary Albina; Miss Anna Murray, of Pittsford, in religion, Sister Mary Emiliana; Miss Alice Holleran, of Rochester, in religion Sister Mary Constanza. The postulants were attended by Misses Lillian Moran, and Helen Mulcahy, as habit bearers. The cross-bearer was Miss Teresa Fitzgerald, of the class of '91, Nazareth academy.

Rev. J. P. Kiernan acted as master of ceremonies during the reception and the following priests were present in the sanctuary: Very Rev. J. F. O'Hare, D. D., V. G.; Rev. Thomas A. Hendrick and Revs. John G. Van Ness and J. E. Hartley.

Danaville.

Alfred E. Bradley, of St. Andrew's, Rochester, spent Sunday with his brother James.

Miss Maggie Goodwin is clerking in the dry goods store of G. G. Fowler & Co.

St. Patrick's Day was quietly observed in Danaville. Rev. Father Day celebrated mass at 9 o'clock, and announced that Rev. A. M. O'Neill of Phelps, would deliver the address in the evening—having heard Father O'Neill on a previous occasion, his coming was hailed with pleasure by all. At 7:30 the church was filled, and the Rev. Father began the subject that stirred the heart of every true Irishman present. It was an eloquent and able address, and delivered in Father O'Neill's own style. Messrs. Daniel Driscoll, D. Foley and J. W. Connor acted as ushers for the occasion.

The ladies of the L. O. B. A. will serve supper in the fire-building, for the Jackson House dance on Easter evening.

Amusements.

ACADEMY.

Mar. 27, 28 and 29, will appear the "Two Old Cronies."

"Two Old Cronies," proved a drawing card at H. R. Jacob's theatre last night, and of the numerous audience that thronged the house it is safe to say that there was not one who was not amply satisfied with the result of his investment. The piece is an admirable combination of refined humor and high-class music. The cast was an exceptionally strong one, each member making an excellent showing. The pieces de resistance were Harry Emerson as "Jacob Blotzmeier," a professor of calisthenics in a female college, and Edward O'Connor as "O'Donovan Duff," waiting for the clouds to roll by." In both cases the impersonation was the realization of a fine standard of artistic skill, the audience being kept in roars of laughter all the time. Frederick Carberry made a typical "Modern Adonis" in the roll of "Gussie Monotone," and Hattie Meyer was irresistible as "Viola, a summer girl," and as "Little Puck." Of course Jessie Villars was in a measure the life of the piece in her roles as "Polly Prestle" and "Maggie Fairchild"—Newark, N. Y., News.

MUSEE THEATRE.

For the coming week a special programme will be rendered at the Musee by selected specialty artists. Bowers and Hazelton lead in their original act "Rudolph and Rickie's Troubles," introducing songs, dances, and witty sayings, and concluding with a burlesque drill. Essie Graham, the wonderful little soubrette, the pocket edition of Maggie Cline will appear in the famous songs of her namesake, "Throw Him Down McOlusky," "Patsy Brannigan," etc. Jerome the "Human Frog," the greatest contortionist in the world, will surprise and startle many, and Fitzgerald and Lewis will appear in their lightning change act. The Helstroms in their funny specialty, and Jennie Meade the pleasing and vivacious song and dance expert, form a very good bill for the theatre. In the Lecture Hall Madame Garetta's trained birds will be a feature, and La Tosha the snake charmer, will excite the admiration of many. Another attraction will be announced later. Large audiences were the rule last week and with the above list of attractions still larger crowds may be expected.

IN YOUR OWN CITY.

Another Remarkable Cure by Dr. Freeman—That of Master George Viergiver of Conkey Avenue.

Scrofulous Catarrh is one of the most dangerous forms from which anyone may suffer. It affects and changes the functions of every organ of the body in quick succession. Mr. and Mrs. Viergiver, of 135 Conkey Avenue, feel that they have good reason to be thankful to Dr. Freeman for curing their bright little son, George, of this dreaded disease. Nearly three years ago he began to feel languid and tired, and preferred to remain in the house rather than romp and play as other children did. He lost all appetite and was rapidly failing. The glands of the throat began to swell until he could scarcely swallow. The usual discharge was so offensive it was very unpleasant to be anywhere near him. His throat was constantly sore from this poisonous secretion. The inflammation extended until the lungs and bronchial tubes became affected, and then followed a severe cough, as a natural consequence. Pains in the chest now made it extremely difficult to breathe. The father and mother had been told by some old fogey that catarrh could not be cured, but they were anxious to save the boy's life and so placed him under Dr. Freeman's care, knowing that he had cured scores of similar cases, some of whom being their own neighbors. The result was that now their loved one is perfectly well and not a trace of his former trouble remains. This is only one among hundreds of remarkable cures performed by Dr. Freeman of 105 Franklin street, where others have failed, and is a still further proof that he has discovered the only true cure for catarrh and its complications. The above statement can be easily verified by calling at 135 Conkey avenue.

Dr. Freeman cures Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Blood and Skin Diseases, Nervous Debility, derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, and Diseases of Women.
