USEFUL LIFE ENDED

ELIOT F. SHEPARD EXPIRES AT NEW YORK.

He Was Proprietor of the New York Mail and Express—About to Undergo an Operation When Death Intervened—The End Came Peacefully—Sketch of the Dead Man's Career.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Colonel Eliot Fitch Shepard, editor of The Mail and Express, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home, 2 West Fifty-second street. His death followed the administration of ether by Dr. Charles McBurney and the family physician Dr. J. W. McLane who were about to make an operation to ascertain whether the colonel's suspicion that he suffered from stone in the bladder was correct. He had inhaled the drug but two or three times when the physicians detected dangerous symptoms and stopped the inhalation. Colonel Shepard sank rapidly, and for a time it was feared that he could not be rallied. Powerful restoratives were administered. At the end of an hour's work with oxygen he was restored to partial consciousness, and he continued apparently to rally until about 4 o'clock. Then without warning and for no apparent reason he began rapidly to sink.

His death was peaceful. The oxygen treatment was resumed but it was of no avail and at 4:30 o'clock he died. He was unconscious and his death given by the physicians was oleum of the lungs. Immediately before Colonel Shepard's death messages were sent to Mrs. Shepard announcing that he was very low and that he might not live. She reached the house about 1 o'clock.

Immediate friends of the family began arriving at about 6:30 o'clock. Cornelius Vanderbilt was one of the first. Dr. John Hall came soon afterward. Colonel Shepard was a member of Dr. Hall's church and was an officer there. Chauncey M. Depew was the next visitor.

A string of carriages was continually at the fifth avenue side of the house all evening. At a late hour no arrangements had been made for the funeral.

Eliot Fitch Shepard was born in Jamestown, Chautauqua county, N. Y., July 25, 1833. He was educated at the university of the city of New York, admitted to the bar in 1858, and for many years practiced in New York city. In 1861 and 1862 he was aide-de-camp on the staff of Governor Edwin D. Morgan, was in command of the depot of volunteers at Elmira, N. Y., and aided in the organizing, equipping and sending forward to the field nearly 50,000 troops. He was instrumental in raising the Fifty-first New York regiment, which was named for him; the Shepard rifles. He was the founder of the New York State Bar association in 1876, which has formed the model for other states. In March, 1883, he purchased the New York Mail and Express.

AHLWARDT'S CHARGES.
The Reichstag Committee Find Them to be Groundless.

BERLIN, March 23.—Rector Ahlwardt, the Jew-baiter libeller and bankrupt, recently brought from prison to take his place in the reichstag. In the course of a rapidly anti-Semitic speech declared that he had had 11 documents which showed conclusively that while Prince Bismarck was chancellor fraudulent contracts had been made repeatedly with Jewish financiers. Vast amounts had been transferred from the coffers of the state to the pockets of Jewish speculators.

Count Von Ballestrem was appointed chairman of the committee to examine the documents submitted by Ahlwardt. Upon the reassembling of the house he stated that the committee had carefully examined the documents submitted to them, but had found nothing to prove the assertion of Herr Ahlwardt.

A statement was made as to the result of the examination of the Ahlwardt document. They were simply receipts given to the Diskontogessellschaft, of which Dr. Miquel was a director, by the Roumanian Railway company. The Diskontogessellschaft is a private concern, and in its dealings with the railway was trying to save it from financial ruin.

The reichstag has adjourned until April 13.

Paraguay Demands an Explanation.
VALPARAISO, March 27.—Paraguay has now broken off her diplomatic relations with Brazil. The pretext for this action, according to a dispatch just received from a correspondent in Asuncion, was the insolent conduct of a colonel in the Brazilian army, who has been making violent statements against the Paraguay government. So grave is the offense considered by the government of Paraguay that the minister of that republic in Montevideo has been directed to hasten to Rio Janeiro and demand an explanation from the Brazilian government.

IT FAILED TO PASS.

MR. BALFOUR'S VOTE OF CENSURE FALLS THROUGH.

His Heated Attack on the Government—Mr. Morley's Remarks in Answer to the Attack Bring Forth Loud Applause—Mr. Gladstone Reproaches the Opposition.

LONDON, March 28.—In the house of commons yesterday Mr. Balfour, leader of the Unionists, spoke at length on his motion of which he gave notice last Thursday that the Irish executive be censured for condoning serious offenses and thus bringing the law into general contempt. He made his attack on the government with exceptional vigor and evoked repeatedly loud cheers from the opposition benches.

The present deplorable state of affairs in Ireland Mr. Balfour said was largely the consequence of a compact between the government and the forces of disorder.

The ministry had made with the Irish party an agreement by which the administration of the law was being defeated. According to the terms of this unwritten concord at the government had coquetted with amnesty and had encouraged dishonest tenants through the evicted tenants' commission to disown their obligations and to treat the landlords as a law abiding people, would treat malefactors. The government had fomented outrages by suspending the crimes act and had instigated crimes by the release of the dynamites. The government had not hesitated to take steps which were in direct antagonism to the decisions of the courts.

The division on Mr. Balfour's motion followed Lord Randolph's speech. It resulted in a majority of 47 for the government; the vote standing 319 to 272.

SARGENT DISCHARGED.
Under the Interstate Commerce Law the Court Had No Jurisdiction.

TOLDO, March 28.—Yesterday afternoon in the United States circuit court of the injunction case in which Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Grand Master Sargent of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen were sued for $300,000 damages for conspiring against the Ann Arbor railroad, came up for hearing.

T. W. Harper FRANK P. SARGENT, of Terre Haute, counsel for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, moved to dismiss the case as to Grand Master Sargent on the grounds that the court had no jurisdiction over him, he being a resident of Indiana, and the interstate commerce law providing that a person shall not be sued unless he is a resident of the district where the suit is brought.

The court thereupon discharged Mr. Sargent and the case of Chief Arthur proceeded.

LATIMER'S ESCAPE.
Has Secured Arms and Will Make a Desperate Resistance.

JACKSON, Mich., March 28.—R. Irving Latimer, the matricide, has escaped from the state prison. Latimer took the keys and walked out of the front door of the prison. The keys are missing. It is supposed Latimer got possession of some powerful drug and administered it to the guards and night turnkey. Guard Haight was found dying about 1 o'clock in the morning, Latimer having gone an hour before that time. Haight died at 3 a. m.

Latimer brutally murdered his own mother at Jackson on the night of Jan. 24, 1889. His trial lasted 20 days and was sensational. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Latimer's father died under suspicious circumstances a year previous to the murder. He was heavily insured in favor of his wife and son, and it is believed the son poisoned him.

Captain Gill, night keeper, is under arrest, charged with being Latimer's accomplice. Latimer tried to release the prisoners near his own cell, but failing, made his own escape by way of the front gates.

Latimer secured a rifle and a quantity of ammunition before going and will surely make a desperate resistance. Hundreds of men are searching the city and surrounding country.

Latimer Captured.
JACKSON, Mich., March 29.—A dispatch has been received here which says Latimer has been captured at Jerome, Hillsdale county, and is now being driven here 18 miles.

Indorsed Judge Lochran.
ST. PAUL, March 29.—In the house yesterday strong resolutions were unanimously adopted indorsing Judge Lochran of Minneapolis for commissioner of pensions, all parties uniting in complimentary speeches in favor of his selection for that position. Judge Lochran is a veteran but has not applied for the position. President Cleveland having considered his name with much favor without there being any formal application before him.
