

OUR CITY PARISHES.

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

St. Leo Society received Holy Communion in a body last Sunday at 8 o'clock. The attendance was large. The Knights of St. George will receive Holy Communion next Sunday at 8 o'clock, also St. Michael's Society. The mission by the Jesuit Fathers Port and Karlstaedter began last Sunday morning. During the whole of the past week three sermons were preached daily: the first at 8, the second at 8 a. m. and the third at 7:30 p. m. The attendance at these sermons was very large, especially those at 8 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The close of the mission will take place to-morrow evening at 7:30.

HOLY REDEEMER.

Rev. Father Oberholzer, Rector of the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, arrived in this city again from his recreation trip to New York in splendid health. He received a very hearty welcome from his numerous friends in New York, amongst whom was Rt. Rev. Bishop Messmer, of Green Bay, Wis., an intimate friend of the Rev. gentleman. The bishop promised to pay him a visit in the early part of summer.

Sunday and Monday evening next, the members of the church choir and the school children, will give a festival entertainment in honor of the name's day of Rev. F. Oberholzer, which falls on Monday, the 24th inst. As the choir as well as the children will make every effort in their power to make the celebration of their dear, beloved pastor a successful one, the audience can safely be promised a very pleasant time.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S.

The league bowling games are attracting considerable attention at the Y. M. C. C. Following is the result of games played this week: Monday—Standards vs. Sterlings, won by the former. The scores were 12—19 and 5—19. Wednesday—Standards vs. Upper Tens, three games were played. The first game was won by the Upper Ten, score 9—17 but by several fine plays the Standards recovered themselves and won the next two games. Scores: 44—5 and 32—14. Joseph Rausch acted as umpire.

Mrs. John Schriener entertained a number of her lady friends last Thursday at an afternoon tea at her residence on Allen street.

Mr. John G. Erhart, of the Hinkamp Bros. Co., of Keokuk, Iowa, and formerly of this city, was in town the past week. John is looking well and is one of Keokuk's most successful business men.

Miss Annie Smith entertained a number of her friends at a progressive square party Thursday evening. A delicious luncheon was served after the game.

Matrimonial business has been good during the past week at St. Peter and Paul's; no less than three couples were married in one day.

Mr. John N. Gutberlet and Miss Mary A. Dierworth were married last Sunday, Mr. Geo. W. Henchen and Miss Maria Steckel early Tuesday morning and Mr. Joseph Schmitt and Miss Ottilia Halge, also John Weiser and Miss Lokovica Roth were married later in the day at Mass by Rev. Dr. Sinclair. Messrs. Schmitt and Weiser are both active members of the Y. M. C. C. and the good wishes of their fellow members are extended to them. Their chosen wives are prominent ladies of the parish and members of the Young Ladies' Sodality.

The funeral of Robert Mattes took place from St. Peter and Paul's at 8:30 a. m. Wednesday. Deceased was 40 years of age and a member of St. Peter's Society. The society attended the funeral in a body.

ST. BRADY'S.

The Forty Hours Devotion which began on Sunday last and closed Wednesday morning was very well attended. The sermon on Sunday night was given by Rev. Father O'Hare, that on Monday evening by Rev. Father Kiernan and on Tuesday evening by Rev. Father Hartley.

Mr. Arthur O'Connor, of Holy Angels' Seminary, Niagara Falls, is spending his vacation at home.

ST. MARY'S.

Forty Hours Devotion commences at St. Mary's Church Sunday April 30.

Rev. Father Smeltz has been appointed temporary assistant at St. Mary's.

Four couples called at this church last Sunday.

Rev. J. P. Stewart read the result of the operetta at High Mass last Sunday. $841.65 was the amount realized.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at St. Mary's Church, Rev. Father O'Hanlon officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Adelaide E. Van Houten, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Van Houten, and Joseph A. Harrington, of Albany.

The maid of honor was Miss Susan Hayward, of Geneva, and Jacob A. Engel, of Syracuse, acted as best man. The ushers were A. G. Burdick and H. M. Shearer, of this city. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrington, of Geneva; Mrs. Dr. R. R. Reynolds, of New York; Thomas Manion, of Buffalo, and Frederick Taylor of Geneva.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 20 Howell Street, after the ceremony. The bridal party left on the Southwestern Limited for an extended trip through the West. On their return they will make their home at Albany, where the groom has a position in the Wagner Palace Car Company's office.

Happily Situated.

From a letter written to a priest of this diocese the JOURNAL has learned that Rev. Constantine Ulrich, formerly pastor of the parishes at Webster and Ontario, has been placed in charge of the Immaculate Conception parish at Luxemburg, Kawaunee county, Wis., diocese of Green Bay, by Bishop Messmer. This parish has a fine church, large and commodious school buildings, and an appropriate pastoral residence, entirely free from debt. The congregation consists of upwards of 150 German families. Father Ulrich may well be congratulated at having secured so acceptable a charge.

Local.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the observance of the golden jubilee of SS. Peter and Paul's church which takes place next June.

The parochial school children of the city will hold exercises in honor of our Rt. Rev. Bishop's jubilee, at Cathedral Hall before the closing of the school year.

Mrs. P. H. Bushnell, who has been very ill for several weeks died Monday morning, April 17th, and was buried Wednesday morning from St. Ann's Church, Father Van Ness of Rochester officiating. The funeral was very largely attended. The deceased leaves a husband and four little children to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Miss Mary Sullivan, of Rochester, has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Ennis and Mrs. Pinckney.

Churchville.

On Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Miss Ellen Keenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keenan, died at the house of her parents in this village, aged 17 years. Her funeral was held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Rev. D. J. Curran officiating. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the young girl, thus silently giving testimony by their presence to the esteem in which she was held by young and old. The beautiful white casket was covered with choice flowers. The choir under the direction of Mr. P. J. McArdle of Rochester, rendered the requiem mass in a most solemn manner. Miss B. A. Dorey, also of Rochester, presided at the organ, also rendering a vocal selection as the funeral procession moved out of the church. Besides her parents Miss Keenan leaves three brothers and three sisters to mourn her loss. May her soul rest in peace.

Clyde.

The death of Mrs. Mary Costello, wife of Michael Costello, occurred at the family residence on Meadow St. Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.
