He Refuses to Discuss the Conference With Representative Bankers.

New York, April 25.—The conference of bank presidents and financiers with Assistant Treasurer Jordan relative to the financial situation has adjourned. The conferees uniformly decline in a most emphatic manner to anticipate any statement that Mr. Jordan might wish to make. Mr. Jordan received the representatives of the press, but declared he had absolutely no information to give or report to make as to the result of the discussions between himself and the representative bankers.

Mr. Jordan said: "I can only say we have had discussion and we have had all manner of propositions considered calculated to relieve the situation, both in regard to the government and the banks. I can not report anything more definite than that other similar conferences may be held. No date for such further meeting has been fixed. ## SOME UGLY STORIES.

ALLEGED ILL TREATMENT OF FEEBLE MINDED WOMEN.

New York State Custodial Asylum the scene of a scandalous story originated with former employees—instances of shocking cruelty—superintendent Matron and one Assistant Matron Resigned.

ROCHESTER, April 25.—A reporter was sent to Newark, N. Y., to investigate rumors of alleged cruelty to the inmates of the New York State Custodial Asylum for Feeble Minded Women. For more than two years the residents of Newark have been aware that inhuman practices were prevailing at the institution. The stories originate in former attendants at the asylum who would not or could not do the things required of them by their superiors. The disclosures about the asylum is the talk about the streets of Newark and the people are much excited. Some of the stories given full credence by the residents are almost beyond belief in their pictures of fiendishness.

No charges are made that criminal outrages have been made or attempted. The charges all have reference to punishments inflicted. The stories are many. On one occasion the matron is said to have locked two girls in a room, stripped their clothing off their bodies and played a stream of cold water upon them.

Falls, Littleton, living 13th year, the daughter of a perfumer, who has place of business in New York city, is one of the victims.

When she entered the asylum a year and a half ago she had a beautiful head of long curly hair. For some infirmity of the rules her hair was cropped off close to the head. On another occasion the young girl was punished for some offense by the matron standing upon her prostrate body, with one foot upon her throat and the other upon her stomach.

JUMPED FROM THE SECOND STORY.

At midnight Friday, the 14th instant, being unable to stand the treatment longer, she jumped from the second story window, falling upon the pavement, receiving severe bruises and disfiguring her face. Before she was recaptured she found opportunity to write to her parents, setting forth what she had been through. Her mother is now in Newark and will take the girl home with her.

The asylum authorities refused to give any information regarding the testimony of witnesses taken before the members of state board of charities, who have had several sittings in pursuing an investigation. They tried in every way to beat around the bush and avoid giving direct and unequivocal answers to the reporter's questions. This action on their part indicates that something is being covered up.

A Newark man said that the charges against Mr. and Mrs. Willett, the superintendent and matron, are being pursued by the local board because they realize that they are in a mess and will take off the heads of others rather than lose their own.

The president of the board announced that superintendent, matron and one of the assistant matrons had tendered their resignations, to take effect at the pleasure of the board, but he said he wanted it distinctly understood that this action on their part was not caused by their having heard any statements derogatory to their administration.

The citizens of Newark say that as soon as a change is made in the management of the institution 12 attendants, who fear to do so now in a public way, will be glad to testify to facts that will startle the community because of their heinousness.

AN APPALLING ACCIDENT.

Family of Five Ground Up by an Express Train.

WARSAW, Ind., April 24.—An appalling accident occurred in Jackson township, nine miles south of this city. Winslow, vice president, states that Dr. Neville of the Egypt Exploration fund has just discovered the funerary chamber of the great Thothmas I of the 18th dynasty at Thebes, with a colossal altar before its entrance that at first sight appears to have been placed there by Queen Patausi, his daughter.

LATEST HAWAIIAN SENSATION.

Wholesale Poisoning of Soldiers at the Honolulu Barracks.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The barken-bark "Imperial" arrived from Honolulu, bringing advices up to April 12. The leading event since the last letter to the press was the supposed wholesale attempt to poison the soldiers and members of their national guard. On the night of April 11 30 soldiers at the barracks were taken with violent vomiting spells. Surgeon Rodgers was hastily summoned, and found that the men showed symptoms of irritant poisoning.

The men were so distressed as to be obliged to take to their cots. In the meantime a report came from the government building, where Company A of the National Guards is stationed, to the effect that a number of the men there were suffering with severe fits of vomiting. Dr. Day was summoned and relieved the men as speedily and effectively as possible. Upon investigation it was thought the men had been poisoned by eating canned peas.

In all about 60 men—30 at the barracks and 30 in Company A of the National Guards—were rendered unfit for duty, but most of them soon recovered and none are likely to suffer permanently.

Much mystery surrounds the affair and it has caused a great sensation. The Royalists are very indignant and deny the existence of a plot to destroy the government forces in this murderous manner, and there is so far no general desire or intention to hold them accountable.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

Recorder Smyth Charges the Jury in the Buchanan Trial.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The point made by the prosecution in the Buchanan trial in summing up was that the defendant married a woman of bad character for money and that the acquittal of the result of 30 years prostitution was the motive of the defendant in getting rid of the woman.

Mr. Nicolli frequently called Dr. Buchanan a "liar" taking as ground the fact that Buchanan had told one story on the witness stand and another before his arrest.

At 4:30 o'clock Mr. Nicolli finished the summing up for the people and at 4:40 o'clock Recorder Smyth began his charge to the jury.

Honors for Consul General New.

LONDON, April 25.—Hon. John C. New, the retiring American consul general in London, will sail for the United States on June 3. The United States consuls in Great Britain will present to Mr. New an album containing portraits and an illuminated address and the association of foreign consuls will give Mr. New a banquet. Hon. Patrick Collins, the newly appointed consul general, will assume the duties of that office on Saturday next.

Comstock May Settle It.

NEW YORK, April 26.—There is likely to be a struggle between Anthony Comstock and the patrons of art when an attempt is made to place on exhibition a famous canvas now on the French line steamship Bretagne, due here next Sunday. It is Rochegrosse's painting "The Fall of Babylon." Many experts look on it as one of the greatest works of art of the century. Leaving that the painting was on its way here the managers of the Press club fair got permission from its owner to exhibit it while the fair is in progress. They, as well as Mr. Carner, were vastly interested when informed that Mr. Comstock said he would seize the canvas if it were placed on exhibition here.

Loss Placed at $215,000.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The First regiment armory, at Sixteenth street and Michigan avenue, was destroyed by fire. The loss to property is placed at about $215,000, which is inadequately covered by insurance. This includes the loss of $100,000 on the building, the scenery of the Trocadero Concert troupe, arms and accoutrements, the dress and service uniforms and the handsome furnishings of the various First regiment militia companies. The fire started in the kitchen of the armory. The bodies of the two colored janitors were found close to the huge door and were removed to the morgue.

Will Not Accept Their Resignation.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The president has decided not to accept the resignation of the delegates to the international monetary conference. The commission will therefore remain unchanged unless some of the members decline to serve. The conference will meet on May 30 and the question of a further postponement will rest entirely with its members.
