

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

A GLIMPSE OF THE GREAT WHITE CITY.

Many New Buildings and Exhibits Opened to Public View - Interesting Notes on Things and Persons Connected With the World's Columbian Exposition From Day to Day.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 15.—A tremendous crowd is present today—German day—and the subjects of Emperor William at the German building are claiming that the attendance today will eclipse that of last Thursday, Princess day, when the paid admissions were about 125,000.

The attendance yesterday was very large. There was nothing out of the routine of sightseeing, yet the fine weather brought an army of these, and all enjoyed themselves looking at the exhibits and the buildings and listening to the music.

The train which met with disaster was made of three sleds coupled together. As it was rounding a curve at a terrific speed the pin connecting the first and second sleds broke.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 16.—"German day" at the exposition needed but the august presence of His Majesty Emperor William to make the success of the Teutonic season of festivity complete in every detail.

From noon until late into the evening German bands and drum corps at the head of bands of shouting Teutons marched through all parts of the park and the colors of the United States, intermingled with the tricolor and eagle of Germany, floated from every building.

In addition to Germany's jollifications, Arkansas and Indiana entered the Columbian Union of Commonwealths by dedicating their state buildings, and these events drew out crowds to the different parts of the grounds.

All the balconies and promenades on top of the buildings held crowds constantly during the day and evening, and when the crowds went home at night after witnessing the fireworks the gates closed on the largest crowd that has yet visited the fair in one day.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 17.—Two more magnificent buildings have been added to the many attractions open to the public at the exposition.

The California and Massachusetts state buildings were today dedicated with appropriate ceremonies and formally opened to the public, which immediately showed its appreciation by filling both of these immense buildings to overflowing and speaking their praise in no measured terms.

A reception was given by the Ohio World's fair commissioners to ex-President Harrison in the Ohio state building yesterday. It was an informal reception, but it was largely attended, especially by visitors of the fair from the Buckeye state.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 19.—With the mercury near the 90 mark in the shade it was hardly reasonable to expect a great crowd of people at the exposition. Excepting on the wooded island the White City was hot and in some of the glass-roofed buildings, especially Machinery Hall, the heat was felt more than in the open air.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 20.—California's state building, which is no doubt the most artistically instructive of any in the World's fair state group, was more beautiful than ever yesterday afternoon in honor of "California day" addresses within its imposing walls.

The general congress of commerce and finance began with a session in Columbus hall last evening.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 21.—Exhibitors in the gallery of Manufacturers' building declare that they have been shamefully treated by Chief Peabody of that department in the matter of ignoring their petitions and protests and requests relative to the ventilation of the building.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 21.—Eight firemen were burned, five of them seriously, by a scorching explosion during a fire in the cellar of F. D. Dolner's dyeing establishment.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 21.—The army court of inquiry to determine the responsibility for the Ford's theater disaster will convene this week, probably on Thursday.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 21.—The total number of fourth class postmasters appointed yesterday was 137.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, June 21.—The Peoples' bank of this city has suspended payment.

BEHRING SEA ARGUMENT.

Sir Richard Webster Meets With a Sharp Reproof. PARIS, June 21.—Upon the resumption of the sitting of the Behring Sea tribunal of arbitration Sir Richard Webster of counsel for Great Britain continued his argument in support of the British case.

In conclusion Sir Richard said it must be left to each party to the arbitration to take measures to enforce the regulations enacted by the tribunal.

Hon. C. H. Tupper, Canadian minister of marine and British agent, followed Sir Richard Webster. He read a statement of the facts regarding the seizure by the United States of sealing vessels on which Great Britain and the United States agreed it was needless for the arbitrators to render any decision.

SMUGGLING LIQUOR.

Police Capture the Booty But the Smugglers Escape. GLOUCESTER, Mass., June 21.—A police officer discovered three men landing goods from four boats at Andrews' sparyard. He halted the boats and the men started on the run, paying no heed to a shot from the officer's revolver.

The officers then boarded the boats, which were found to be loaded with champagne and other wines and assorted liquors worth about $1,500 which it was the evident intention of the men to smuggle ashore.

CANNING IN FRANCE.

Lead Poisoning Said to Be an Impossibility. "You should have a law in America the same as we have in France," said T. B. Kirkland of Bordeaux, France.

"In canning fruits and vegetables in this country you pursue a very different plan from the French. Our cans have but one piece of soldering. That is on the outside and down the front, where the can is joined.

The can is filled a light elastic band is placed inside. Then the top is milled to the can by machinery. It is then placed in the steam bath and allowed to cook for twenty minutes or half an hour, and sometimes as much as forty minutes, according to the goods.

SKY-ROCKET PICTURES. Novel Method of Photographing an Enemy's Camp.

An exceedingly interesting English invention consists of a camera combined with a parachute, especially designed for obtaining photographs of fortifications and of the camps of the enemy, although pictures may also be made for general surveying purposes.

From the parachute a camera is suspended, and a string held by the operator is attached by a universal joint to the bottom of the device, for the purpose of pulling the parachute back.
