

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

A GLIMPSE OF THE GREAT WHITE CITY.

Many New Buildings and Exhibits Opened to Public View—Interesting Notes on Things and Persons Connected With the World's Columbian Exposition From Day to Day.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 27.—Commercial travelers' day at the fair was well observed. The American Exhibitors' association made special arrangements for the entertainment of the traveling men, and received the visitors at the headquarters of the association at the Terminal Station building.

Four special trains were required to convey the Turners who arrived in the city after their annual tournament at Milwaukee. Thousands of German-American citizens of Chicago and vicinity participated in the program of the day.

CHICAGO, July 28.—It will require four days to decide all the athletic events arranged by the Scotchmen for next week. Two days will be taken up by the professionals, including highland dancing and bagpipe playing, and one day will be devoted to purely amateur games.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 29.—British day at the fair, Aug. 9, is to be the occasion of a great street demonstration down town in the afternoon.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 31.—The exposition was open yesterday under the order of the court, but the attendance was extremely light. The grounds were almost deserted and the visitors in the buildings might easily have been counted.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The opening of the World's fair Scottish assembly was inaugurated by a great parade of all the societies in the city, local and visiting.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—In connection with the grand jury investigation into the cold storage warehouse holocaust a local paper prints a sensational story to the effect that the fire was of incendiary origin.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Collector of Customs and Appraiser of Merchandise For New York.—Washington, July 29.—Private Secretary Thurber has announced the following appointments as made by the president: James T. Kilbreath of New York, collector of customs for the district of New York, vice Hendricks, resigned.

Mrs. Debus Goes Insane.—New York, Aug. 2.—Young Mrs. Agnes Debus of 170 Avenue C, who was rescued from the East river together with her 2-month-old baby Edward on Friday last, has become violently insane.

A Revolting Tragedy.—Pittsburg, July 27.—George Smaus, a laborer, aged 35, murdered his wife and his daughters, Mary and Madge, aged 4 and 2 years respectively, and then set the house on fire.

Employees Seem Satisfied.—Easton, Pa., July 31.—At the meeting of the allied organizations of the Lehigh Valley division of the Reading road, reports were received from the grievance committee, which has been in Philadelphia during the past week.

Deadly Boiler Explosion.—Columbus, O., Aug. 2.—At Utica, Licking county, John Kettle, two men named Bell, a Mr. Bowers and a Mr. Skillen were killed and Joseph Shipp was fatally injured by the explosion of the boiler of a threshing machine engine.

Appointed by Governor Flower.—Albany, July 27.—Governor Flower has appointed Charles D. Robinson and Edward Rutherford of Newburg trustees of Washington's headquarters in the places of A. Smith King and Major Edward C. Boynton, deceased.

Private Bank Closes.—Hornellsville, N. Y., Aug. 1.—The private banking house of N. M. Crane & Co., has closed its doors.

CHICAGO'S PORK PANIC.

Millionsaire Cudahy and Other Big Packing Firms Embarrassed.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The sensational collapse in wheat prices of late was eclipsed on the board yesterday by a bigger tumble in provision values caused by the failure of men who have been manipulating the market for some months past.

When trading commenced, the state of uncertainty was such that an offer to buy 250 barrels of September pork at $19 per barrel met with no response from sellers. The bid was immediately withdrawn and the first transaction was in 350 barrels at $18.75.

From this figure it had recovered slightly when at 12:30 the trade was suddenly paralyzed by the announcement that all trades with John Cudahy were ordered closed out.

Prices stiffened a little at the close. September pork left off at $12; September lard at $6.60 and September ribs at $6.22 1/2.

Wheat closed 1/2 cent lower than Monday; corn and oats were steady.

Freights were slow and easy at 1 1/2 cent for wheat and 1 cent for corn to Buffalo.

Serious Reports From Argentina.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—A dispatch from Buenos Ayres states that the revolution in the provinces of Buenos Ayres, San Luis and Santa Fe continues. Contrary to expectations the insurgents have taken most of the towns in the provinces named with little bloodshed.

Thomas Shannon, who lived a hermit life near North Industry, Pa., was found lately in the bottom of a creek under a railroad bridge, through which he had fallen.

Perhaps the smallest independent legislative body in the world is the single House of Montenegro, composed of eight members—four appointed and four elected.

A peasant plowing near the village of Forcuna in Spain two weeks ago turned up an amphora filled with gold and silver coins.

Joseph Schiesser of Oakland, Cal., thinks he has solved the problem of Arctic travel by means of a device which puts a petroleum engine on a sled and makes the engine drive a series of spurs which take hold of the ice and force the sled forward.

In Pennsylvania a man has been fined $1,500 for calling another a "Molly Maguire."

John M. Webster of Tennessee, has brought suit against his wife for damages, because she would not allow him to sell his farm ferry for a steamboat.

The members of the police force of Augusta, Ga., subscribed $5 each to be offered as a reward for the capture of the murderer of one of their companions.

A silver spoon, which was lost by Horace Woodward of Dayville, Conn., who is now 80 years of age, when he was 6 years old, has been restored to him, he claims.

D. Christie Murray, the British novelist, turned on his critics in a brief note to a London paper to demonstrate that truth is stranger than fiction.

Chief Justice Fuller, having gone to his doctor's house in preference to sending for the physician, found that gentleman absent and was invited into the library to await his return.

One day recently the young son of a Mr. Davis of Boslyn, Va., is reported to have found in a rat's nest a valuable watch. It is of solid silver, it is claimed, with eighteen jewels, a compass and several other features that are not found in the ordinary modern watch.

It is the custom in the tenement quarters of New York, when a death has occurred, to notify the neighbors by a mourning badge on the door.

A physician found one of his patients sitting in the bath and swallowing a dose of medicine.

It is claimed that monkeys can talk, but whether this is true or not it is certain that they can a tail unfold.

Mrs. Bleeker-Bridget, have you turned the gas on in the parlor, as I told you? The New Domestic Jewel—Vis, mum; can't yez smell it?

"I have in my mind a good subject for a poem," said the young man. "And so have I," replied the rude editor as he glared at the poet, "for an obituary poem."

Mamma—How did my little pet get to sleep last night without mamma? Little Pet—Papa tried to sing to me like you do, and I hurried up and went to sleep so's not to hear it.

"Did you write James Skidmore's name on this note?" asked the judge of the prisoner accused of forgery. "I'd like to know, judge," replied the culprit. "If Jim Skidmore has a copy-right on the letters that happens to form his name."

"You have a pretty good beat now," said the man who was waiting for a street car. "Oh, Oi don't know," replied the policeman, as he looked affectionately at his club. "Me muscles all right, but me tender heart sort av holds me back."

Mr. Dasch—And pow you have your divorce and are free. But I hope you will not hesitate to call on me for a favor. Mrs. Dasch—There is one thing I wish you would do for me. Mr. Dasch—Name it. Mrs. Dasch—Please be best man at my wedding to Archie. He wants you to.

John Henry had a visitor at dinner the other day and during a pause in the conversation the infant terrible spoke up: "I wish I was you." "Do you, my little boy?" And why do you wish you were me?" "Cos' you don't get your ear pinched when you eat vittles with your knife."

THE BRITISH ISLES comprise no fewer than 1,000 separate islands and islets. More than one-third of Great Britain is owned by members of the house of lords.

Counterfeit dimes are reported numerous. They are made chiefly of anti-monium and tin.

Tuberculosis has appeared among cattle in Toronto, Can., causing the death of several cows.

According to a late census bulletin in York, Pa., is the leading town in the manufacture of rag carpet.

A census of the Hungarian gypsies taken on the last day of January, 1893 shows the total number of that curious people in Hungary to be 185,000.

MERRY MITES.

It is claimed that monkeys can talk, but whether this is true or not it is certain that they can a tail unfold.

Mrs. Bleeker-Bridget, have you turned the gas on in the parlor, as I told you? The New Domestic Jewel—Vis, mum; can't yez smell it?

"I have in my mind a good subject for a poem," said the young man. "And so have I," replied the rude editor as he glared at the poet, "for an obituary poem."

Mamma—How did my little pet get to sleep last night without mamma? Little Pet—Papa tried to sing to me like you do, and I hurried up and went to sleep so's not to hear it.

"Did you write James Skidmore's name on this note?" asked the judge of the prisoner accused of forgery. "I'd like to know, judge," replied the culprit. "If Jim Skidmore has a copy-right on the letters that happens to form his name."

"You have a pretty good beat now," said the man who was waiting for a street car. "Oh, Oi don't know," replied the policeman, as he looked affectionately at his club. "Me muscles all right, but me tender heart sort av holds me back."

Mr. Dasch—And pow you have your divorce and are free. But I hope you will not hesitate to call on me for a favor. Mrs. Dasch—There is one thing I wish you would do for me. Mr. Dasch—Name it. Mrs. Dasch—Please be best man at my wedding to Archie. He wants you to.

John Henry had a visitor at dinner the other day and during a pause in the conversation the infant terrible spoke up: "I wish I was you." "Do you, my little boy?" And why do you wish you were me?" "Cos' you don't get your ear pinched when you eat vittles with your knife."

THE BRITISH ISLES comprise no fewer than 1,000 separate islands and islets. More than one-third of Great Britain is owned by members of the house of lords.

Counterfeit dimes are reported numerous. They are made chiefly of anti-monium and tin.

Tuberculosis has appeared among cattle in Toronto, Can., causing the death of several cows.

According to a late census bulletin in York, Pa., is the leading town in the manufacture of rag carpet.

A census of the Hungarian gypsies taken on the last day of January, 1893 shows the total number of that curious people in Hungary to be 185,000.

Thomas Shannon, who lived a hermit life near North Industry, Pa., was found lately in the bottom of a creek under a railroad bridge, through which he had fallen.

Perhaps the smallest independent legislative body in the world is the single House of Montenegro, composed of eight members—four appointed and four elected.

A peasant plowing near the village of Forcuna in Spain two weeks ago turned up an amphora filled with gold and silver coins.

Joseph Schiesser of Oakland, Cal., thinks he has solved the problem of Arctic travel by means of a device which puts a petroleum engine on a sled and makes the engine drive a series of spurs which take hold of the ice and force the sled forward.

In Pennsylvania a man has been fined $1,500 for calling another a "Molly Maguire."

John M. Webster of Tennessee, has brought suit against his wife for damages, because she would not allow him to sell his farm ferry for a steamboat.

The members of the police force of Augusta, Ga., subscribed $5 each to be offered as a reward for the capture of the murderer of one of their companions.

A silver spoon, which was lost by Horace Woodward of Dayville, Conn., who is now 80 years of age, when he was 6 years old, has been restored to him, he claims.

D. Christie Murray, the British novelist, turned on his critics in a brief note to a London paper to demonstrate that truth is stranger than fiction.

Chief Justice Fuller, having gone to his doctor's house in preference to sending for the physician, found that gentleman absent and was invited into the library to await his return.

One day recently the young son of a Mr. Davis of Boslyn, Va., is reported to have found in a rat's nest a valuable watch. It is of solid silver, it is claimed, with eighteen jewels, a compass and several other features that are not found in the ordinary modern watch.

It is the custom in the tenement quarters of New York, when a death has occurred, to notify the neighbors by a mourning badge on the door.

A physician found one of his patients sitting in the bath and swallowing a dose of medicine.

It is claimed that monkeys can talk, but whether this is true or not it is certain that they can a tail unfold.

Mrs. Bleeker-Bridget, have you turned the gas on in the parlor, as I told you? The New Domestic Jewel—Vis, mum; can't yez smell it?

"I have in my mind a good subject for a poem," said the young man. "And so have I," replied the rude editor as he glared at the poet, "for an obituary poem."

Mamma—How did my little pet get to sleep last night without mamma? Little Pet—Papa tried to sing to me like you do, and I hurried up and went to sleep so's not to hear it.

"Did you write James Skidmore's name on this note?" asked the judge of the prisoner accused of forgery. "I'd like to know, judge," replied the culprit. "If Jim Skidmore has a copy-right on the letters that happens to form his name."

"You have a pretty good beat now," said the man who was waiting for a street car. "Oh, Oi don't know," replied the policeman, as he looked affectionately at his club. "Me muscles all right, but me tender heart sort av holds me back."

Mr. Dasch—And pow you have your divorce and are free. But I hope you will not hesitate to call on me for a favor. Mrs. Dasch—There is one thing I wish you would do for me. Mr. Dasch—Name it. Mrs. Dasch—Please be best man at my wedding to Archie. He wants you to.

John Henry had a visitor at dinner the other day and during a pause in the conversation the infant terrible spoke up: "I wish I was you." "Do you, my little boy?" And why do you wish you were me?" "Cos' you don't get your ear pinched when you eat vittles with your knife."

THE BRITISH ISLES comprise no fewer than 1,000 separate islands and islets. More than one-third of Great Britain is owned by members of the house of lords.

Counterfeit dimes are reported numerous. They are made chiefly of anti-monium and tin.

Tuberculosis has appeared among cattle in Toronto, Can., causing the death of several cows.

According to a late census bulletin in York, Pa., is the leading town in the manufacture of rag carpet.

A census of the Hungarian gypsies taken on the last day of January, 1893 shows the total number of that curious people in Hungary to be 185,000.

Thomas Shannon, who lived a hermit life near North Industry, Pa., was found lately in the bottom of a creek under a railroad bridge, through which he had fallen.

Perhaps the smallest independent legislative body in the world is the single House of Montenegro, composed of eight members—four appointed and four elected.

A peasant plowing near the village of Forcuna in Spain two weeks ago turned up an amphora filled with gold and silver coins.

Joseph Schiesser of Oakland, Cal., thinks he has solved the problem of Arctic travel by means of a device which puts a petroleum engine on a sled and makes the engine drive a series of spurs which take hold of the ice and force the sled forward.

In Pennsylvania a man has been fined $1,500 for calling another a "Molly Maguire."

John M. Webster of Tennessee, has brought suit against his wife for damages, because she would not allow him to sell his farm ferry for a steamboat.

The members of the police force of Augusta, Ga., subscribed $5 each to be offered as a reward for the capture of the murderer of one of their companions.

A silver spoon, which was lost by Horace Woodward of Dayville, Conn., who is now 80 years of age, when he was 6 years old, has been restored to him, he claims.

D. Christie Murray, the British novelist, turned on his critics in a brief note to a London paper to demonstrate that truth is stranger than fiction.

HILL'S Double Chloride of Gold Tablets. REMEMBER WE GUARANTEE A CURE. A FEW Testimonials from persons who have been cured by the use of Hill's Tablets. THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO., 51, 53 and 55 Opera Block, LIMA, OHIO.

SCRAPPY INFORMATION.

The Paris sewers are the largest and most complete of any city.

Some of the cranes now used in artillery works will raise 150 tons.

To purify the air of a newly painted room, put several tubs of water in it, and it will absorb much of the odor.

The annual statement of the bureau of education shows that of 363,000 teachers in this country over 240,000 are women.

Sweet oil will clean bronze; it must be well rubbed with a brush into all the crevices, then rubbed off thoroughly with a brush.

A Philadelphia girl who gives daily little 5 o'clock tea parties has the sugar plums specially tinted to exactly match her soft, silken tea gowns.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Western Union Telegraph company has over 739,000 miles of wire and nearly 21,000 offices, it opens an average of 600 new offices annually.

All over the South, not only among the negroes, but in the best society of whites, the phrase "I guess" is the supremest test of Yankeeism.

The Southern equivalent is "I reckon."

Happy the young woman nowadays who has a middle name with a sonorous sound. Susan C. Nipper looks commonplace enough, but Susan Cholmondeley Nipper is too fine for anything.

The New York Sun reports that old Diogenes lately returned to the earth with a lantern to repeat the looking-for-an-honest-man act, but was seen two hours later gunning for the scoundrel who "stole my lantern."

Joseph Schiesser of Oakland, Cal., thinks he has solved the problem of Arctic travel by means of a device which puts a petroleum engine on a sled and makes the engine drive a series of spurs which take hold of the ice and force the sled forward.

In Pennsylvania a man has been fined $1,500 for calling another a "Molly Maguire."

John M. Webster of Tennessee, has brought suit against his wife for damages, because she would not allow him to sell his farm ferry for a steamboat.

The members of the police force of Augusta, Ga., subscribed $5 each to be offered as a reward for the capture of the murderer of one of their companions.

A silver spoon, which was lost by Horace Woodward of Dayville, Conn., who is now 80 years of age, when he was 6 years old, has been restored to him, he claims.

D. Christie Murray, the British novelist, turned on his critics in a brief note to a London paper to demonstrate that truth is stranger than fiction.

Chief Justice Fuller, having gone to his doctor's house in preference to sending for the physician, found that gentleman absent and was invited into the library to await his return.

One day recently the young son of a Mr. Davis of Boslyn, Va., is reported to have found in a rat's nest a valuable watch. It is of solid silver, it is claimed, with eighteen jewels, a compass and several other features that are not found in the ordinary modern watch.

It is the custom in the tenement quarters of New York, when a death has occurred, to notify the neighbors by a mourning badge on the door.

A physician found one of his patients sitting in the bath and swallowing a dose of medicine.

It is claimed that monkeys can talk, but whether this is true or not it is certain that they can a tail unfold.

Mrs. Bleeker-Bridget, have you turned the gas on in the parlor, as I told you? The New Domestic Jewel—Vis, mum; can't yez smell it?

"I have in my mind a good subject for a poem," said the young man. "And so have I," replied the rude editor as he glared at the poet, "for an obituary poem."

Mamma—How did my little pet get to sleep last night without mamma? Little Pet—Papa tried to sing to me like you do, and I hurried up and went to sleep so's not to hear it.

"Did you write James Skidmore's name on this note?" asked the judge of the prisoner accused of forgery. "I'd like to know, judge," replied the culprit. "If Jim Skidmore has a copy-right on the letters that happens to form his name."

"You have a pretty good beat now," said the man who was waiting for a street car. "Oh, Oi don't know," replied the policeman, as he looked affectionately at his club. "Me muscles all right, but me tender heart sort av holds me back."

Mr. Dasch—And pow you have your divorce and are free. But I hope you will not hesitate to call on me for a favor. Mrs. Dasch—There is one thing I wish you would do for me. Mr. Dasch—Name it. Mrs. Dasch—Please be best man at my wedding to Archie. He wants you to.

John Henry had a visitor at dinner the other day and during a pause in the conversation the infant terrible spoke up: "I wish I was you." "Do you, my little boy?" And why do you wish you were me?" "Cos' you don't get your ear pinched when you eat vittles with your knife."

THE BRITISH ISLES comprise no fewer than 1,000 separate islands and islets. More than one-third of Great Britain is owned by members of the house of lords.

Counterfeit dimes are reported numerous. They are made chiefly of anti-monium and tin.

Tuberculosis has appeared among cattle in Toronto, Can., causing the death of several cows.

According to a late census bulletin in York, Pa., is the leading town in the manufacture of rag carpet.

A census of the Hungarian gypsies taken on the last day of January, 1893 shows the total number of that curious people in Hungary to be 185,000.

YOU WANT A BICYCLE? well then, go and see MAXSON, 24 Exchange St. We put Pneumatic Tires on your old Wheel CASH OR TIME.

$8.00 for A Handsome Oak Couch! PILLOW HEAD! SILK BAND! At Henry Schantz's Stores, 157 State & 15 Front St. GEORGE WEITZEL, DEALER IN BOOTS, SHOES and RUBBERS 331 North St.

JOHN H. FOLEY, Dealer in LUMBER AND COAL, Lumber Office, 515 Exchange Street, Telephone 236 A. Coal Office, 366 Plymouth Ave. Telephone, 236 D. Planing and Sawing Done to Order.

For First Communicants! A large and handsome assortment of Prayer Books, in all the latest bindings, Cloth, Leather, Velvet, White Celluloid, Pearl, etc., at the bookstore of L. MERK, 234 East Main Street, near North Clinton. Rochester, N. Y.

The Jewel Cabinet. The Jewel Gasoline Stove. Makes Summer Cooking Rare Delight. No need of working in an overheated kitchen. By using the Jewel Gasoline Stove it made be made as pleasant a room as any in the house. The Jewel is absolutely safe. Compare it with other vapor stoves and decide which is the best. The Jewel Gasoline Stove can be seen and Fully Examined at the Store of LEVI HEY & CO., 311-313 State St.

William C. Walker, ARCHITECT. Architect for new "Riverside" buildings. Rooms 700, 701, 702, Ellwanger & Barry, Building.

Charles S. Ellis, ARCHITECT, 40 Elwood Building, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Try PEA COAL. J.A. Van Ingen, 91 & 93 Smith St. It costs less money and will do the same work. Telephone, 245 D. G. H. STALKER, MANUFACTURER OF Sash, Doors and Blinds, Job Scroll Sawing and Turning, 180 Platt St., near Allen. Telephone 921.