ST. BONIFACE.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

At a meeting of St. Michael's branch, 104 of the E. C. B. A., delegate Frances Sander and alternate Louise B. Kiefer read long and comprehensive reports of the proceedings of the convention in Binghamton. Five days were spent in amending the constitution and electing officers. Extensive and material changes were the result of their deliberations. The corps of supreme officers was but slightly changed. The representatives from Rochester were Supreme Deputy, K. J. Dowling, of 27; Louise Mayers, of 62; Mrs. Logan, of 124; Frances Sander, of 104; Mrs. C. V. Lee, of 27; and Louise B. Kiefer, of 104.

To little Joseph and Thomas McMullen, drowned in the Genesee River June 27. The river glideth peacefully, Upon its greenwood way; And on its banks we listen still, To children at their play. In many a shaded flowery place, Our tired feet may go; But ne'er again two little ones, Shall watch its waters flow. They fell asleep beneath its wave, One peaceful June day past; And on the stream with sorrow now, Our weeping gaze is cast; But far above the stream we see, In hope, life's happy morn, When we shall greet our little ones With joy forever born.

NELLIE McKENNA.

Mullen-McGarry.

In St. Mary's in this city, Tuesday August 1st, at 7 a. m., Mr. Robert Mullen, of Tonawanda, was married by Father Stewart to Miss Agatha McGarry. Before mass the solemn marriage ceremony was performed in a very impressive manner. The young people knelt on piers in the sanctuary. We could not catch all that the pastor said to them. His reference to their early training in Glenary, Ireland, under the loving care of Father O'Pye and Father Conway, their former and present parish priest in County Antrim, seemed to spring from some old cherished memories, which evidently rendered them supremely happy, as it recalled loved ones at home and scenes of early life where they laid the foundations of that affection which now makes them one. This is the proper way for young people to get married—with the Holy Mass and our Lord to bless them—as at Cana and Galilee. Miss McGarry (now Mrs. Mullen) is a fine looking girl, and if Glenary has any more like her, let them come to Rochester at once, we want such people here. * * *

Auburn.

Henry Dunnigan aged 23 years, died at the family residence, 55 Hamilton avenue, on July 27th after a long illness which was patiently borne. The deceased was born in Seneca Falls, but had lived in Auburn 17 years. He received his First Communion and was confirmed in St. Mary's Church. He possessed many estimable qualities and was liked by all who knew him. He was a member of the Iron Moulders' Union and a brother of Mrs. Adolph Legler of Rochester. He leaves an invalid mother, who desires to thank the friends who sent handsome flowers and were kind in many ways.

REMARKABLE SUCCESS.

Not a Single Failure Recorded Against Scugog.

It is worth noting that Scugog is the only specific for consumption now before the public that has performed actual cures. Of the score of men and women who have been led to try it—some of whom had been told by their physicians that nothing could be done for them—there is not one who has not either fully recovered or been placed on the road to restoration of health. The company of Rochesterians who are backing the claims of Scugog invite all who are in any degree interested to call at the office, No. 607 Ellwanger & Barry building, where they will be put in possession of startling facts concerning the wonders wrought through the agency of this great remedy—facts that admit of no contradiction and that cannot be disproved. While other remedies may benefit, Scugog cures.

THE KIND THAT CURES

MRS. REV. A. J. DAY,

SCROFULOUS ECZEMA FOR 20 YEARS!

DANA SARSAPARILLA Co., Rochester, N. Y. My wife was born of parents predisposed to CONSUMPTION. Six or seven months after birth she died of LUNG. DISEASE. My wife's health was unusually good until she was about 20 years of age, at that time SCROFULOUS ECZEMA manifested itself in the form of a large ulcer on the right side of her face, which she was unable to keep clean. It was attended with constant irritation and itching. Since using

DANA'S SARSAPARILLA

WEIN on her head has broken and discharged until almost entirely gone. Habitual Constiveness has been relieved. We have heretofore used a variety of remedies with but little result, but DANA'S SARSAPARILLA has proved so successful in relieving my wife of ECZEMA and SCROFULA in the blood that I must say it is a great relief. I am now able to do my work and my wife is enjoying the best of health. I am a great believer in the power and the blessing of a kind Providence upon us. I have taken one bottle myself and find it a splendid Alternative. REV. A. J. DAY, Pastor M. E. Church, No. Easton, N. Y.
