COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Several colossal specimens of obe sity, citizens of this city, have been sion. instituting inquiries as to the location of the "Fat Men's Club" which is so freely advertised at present. We find it very hard to convince some of these victims to overplus of flesh that the said advertisements are merely bills of the celebrated play of that title which is to appear at the Cook's Opera House all of next week. It is a source of disappointment to these bulky individuals as a club composed exclusively of weight would fill a long felt want and would certainly become very ACADEMY. Next week "Just Landed," a funny musical farce, will be given at this popular playhouse. It is a satire on emigration and is replete with new songs and dances. Among the people in the cast are Perkins Fisher, a comedian who is always acceptable, Richard Morosco, in German dialect work. Gus Mortimer, in his Irish part and John C. Leach, as an Italian, does excellent work. Of the ladies in the cast only good words can be spoken. Miss Willard as Lena, is cute and piquant to a great degree, while Miss Delmar as Manola, an Italian girl, is finished in every movement; she possesses clear, sweet voice of much culture, which is used to great advantage throughout the play and is quite an attractive feature.

At the Old Grounds. The Western New York Agricultural Society will go back to its old grounds this year to hold its fair and it is preparing to make the event the most successful of its history. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the last week of September have been designated as the days in which the fair will be in progless, and the programme that has been laid out shows many special attractions for each of these days.

ANIMALS AND SNAKES.

Russia possesses at least one luxury in a breed of dogs which are said to be naturally quite unable to bark. In Northern New York, a man sat during a thunder-shower in a chain swing in a barn. Lightning ran down the chain and ripped the man's boots off without injuring him. A Lodi. N. J. farmer, who had his horse stolen from him last month, recovered the animal by recognizing its neigh. When the farmer ap-

Some consider dyspensia purely an American complaint. It is a fact nevertheless that a majority of Americans do suffer from some for of dyspepsie. Miss Peters was no exception, she did. Her case was, indeed, a very severe one. Consequently she is correspondingly grate ful to Dr. Freeman for curing her so quickly.

Before taking treatment she could keep no food on the stomach—vomited after each meal. Belching of gas, bloating and pain were sometimes unbearable. She had no desire to eat, and soon became much emaciated and weak. She could scarcely drag herself around. She suffered also from headache, dizziness, chills and fever. What she vomited up was very sour almost like vine-gar. Upon the advice of her sister and others, whose testimonials were seen in the daily papers, she consulted Dr. Freeman, of 105 Franklin street, Rochester, N. Y. In a few short weeks she became entirely well and desires to express her gratitude to Dr. Freeman in this public way, that other sufferers may know where to get relief. Miss Peters will be pleased to talk with anyone who may call on her.
