The death of Michael Burns occurred Friday evening at his late home 89 Lansing street, after a long illness. Nicholas Fitzpatrick, of Middle st., section boss for a number of years of the Fall Brook Company, was killed Friday afternoon at Marsh Creek, where, with his "crew," he was building another tractor switch.

The men were shoveling ashes from a flat car and did not see the accident. It seems, however, that Fitzpatrick was prying the flat car along with a "pinch bar," and that a co-boss and several freight cars were backed down on his track and ran over him, cutting his body in two at the hips, killing him almost instantly.

He was a large man weighing two hundred pounds. In running over him and the "pinch bar," the co-boss and two cars were thrown from the track and badly wrecked.

No jury was impanelled, as an inquest was deemed unnecessary. He was a citizen much respected in the community, and his death is a sad blow to his family. He was aged about 45 years. He leaves a wife and two sons and a daughter.

The nine large ice houses south of this place, and owned by the Cayuga Lake Ice Line Company, together with about 10,000 tons of ice, were destroyed by fire Monday night.

The fire broke out about 10 o'clock, and as Cayuga has no fire apparatus with which to extinguish fires, the buildings were quickly consumed.

The offices of the Ice Company are in Rochester. The ice was well insured. By immediate action a great portion of the ice now uncovered, will be saved.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It is thought that the company will rebuild as soon as possible.

Cured of Dyspepsia Miss Augusta

Wife of 53 Olean Street is This Time the Grateful Person.

Some consider dyspepsia purely an American complaint. It is a fact nevertheless that a majority of Americans do suffer from some form of dyspepsia. Miss Peters was no exception. In her earlier years, however, to one ever suffered as she did. Her case was, indeed, a very severe one. Consequently she is correspondingly grateful to Dr. Freeman for curing her so quickly. Before taking treatment she could keep no food on the stomach - vomited after each meal. Belching of gas, bloating and pain were sometimes unbearable. She had no desire to eat, and soon became much emaciated and weak. She could scarcely drag herself around. She suffered also from headache, dizziness, chills and fever. What she wanted was very soon almost like the vicar. Upon the advice of her sister and others, whose testimonials were seen in the daily papers, she consulted Dr. Freeman, of the Franklin street, Rochester, N. Y. In a few short weeks she became entirely well and desires to express her gratitude to Dr. Freeman in this public way, that other sufferers may know where to get relief. Miss Peters will be pleased to talk with anyone who may call on her. The cost is only $5 per month for all diseases, medicine included. Office hours 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., and from 6 to 9 p. m., daily except Thursdays. Sunday hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.
