WORLD'S FAIR ENDED.

The Big Show Goes Out in a Shadow of Gloom.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, Oct. 30.—Today, the final day of the fair, brought out immense crowds of sightseers. As if anxious to take advantage of the few remaining hours to view the great collection of wonders or perhaps to retrieve some neglected opportunity for sightseeing, the crowds began at an early hour this morning to pour into the gates.

The untimely and violent death of Mayor Carter Harrison, which convulsed the city with excitement and indignation Saturday evening and yesterday, was the only cloud to mar the brilliancy of the occasion.

The circumstance was universally deplored in this city and was commented on in the various addresses of the day in terms of the deepest regret. The original program as arranged by the committee on coroners was not carried out.

The ceremony this forenoon consisted principally of closing exercises conducted in the various state and other buildings, addresses of farewell by the heads of the departments, etc.

The presentation of awards to American exhibitors, so far as they have been approved by the committee, formed an important feature in the program.

MISS GARLAND'S SUICIDE.

Sold to Have Her Burial From Mental Aberration.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Miss Daisy Garland, 34 years of age, daughter of ex-Attorney General Garland, committed suicide at her home, 115 Rhode Island avenue, by shooting herself through the heart with her father's revolver.

There was nothing in the young lady's previous condition to indicate any mental disturbance. She conversed pleasantly with the family in regard to a theater party which she was to give. Afterwards she went to her room and at luncheon time her brother went to call her. The young lady was found lying on the floor dead.

The body was still warm, indicating that the shot had been fired only a short time previously, though no one in the house heard the report.

Miss Garland recently left home mystically and was found in Baltimore three days afterward.

Her friends say that she has been suffering from mental aberration and lately has been suffering with religious melancholy.

The attorney general had left the house for his office and it was an hour or more before his daughter's awful death was known to him. He was so completely overcome that he could scarcely stand. The rest of the family were almost prostrated by the shock.

Mr. Harrison has been declared Any Irregularities.

PORTLAND, O., Oct. 30.—Ex-Secretary Charles E. Foster was seen relative to the suit that had been brought against his mother, wife, and others for the recovery of property deeded to them before his assignments. Said he: "There is absolutely no ground whatever for this suit by my wife." He was to have left here on Nov. 5. The ceremony which would have united him to Miss Annie Howard was to have taken place on the 17th inst. at the house of the bride in New Orleans.

The maid called the mayor, who was asleep on a couch in the parlor, and he went into the hall, where he was shot three times by Prendergast.

The details of the tragedy are described in the following report of the coroner's inquest.

THE INQUEST.

Excepting a technical description of the wounds little was added to the information already at the disposal of the officers of the law. The verdict recommended that Prendergast be held for the murderer until discharged by due process of law.
