

OUR CITY PARISHES.

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

CATHEDRAL.

Miss Katherine B. Purcell, daughter of William Purcell, editor of the Union and Advertiser, was married Monday to Joseph McLean, jr., of West Troy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Keenan, rector of the Cathedral.

The wedding took place at the Cathedral and that edifice was thronged with friends and acquaintances of the bride. At 11 o'clock Miss Purcell entered the church on the arm of her father. Miss Stella Purcell, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. At the altar the bride was met by the groom and his best man, M. F. Sherry of Troy. Rev. J. P. Keenan addressed a few words of congratulation to the happy couple.

The bride wore a gown of white dutch-satin with a long train and full berth of chiffon. She also wore a long tulle veil with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

At the wedding breakfast which was served at the residence of the bride's parents on Lake avenue there were present besides the bridal party and immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties, Bishop McQuaid, Rev. J. P. Keenan, Edward Murphy, jr., of Troy, and Chas. Fleming of Troy. The groom is a young lawyer of Troy, in which city the young couple will reside.

ST. FRANCIS' LUTHER'S.

The Forty Hours devotion at St. Francis' church this past week has been well attended, and the tasteful altar decorations were very creditable to the good sisters in charge.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

Shortly after January 1st of this year the congregation of St. Michael's church on North Clinton street purchased two stained glass windows, made by a firm in Innsbruck, Tyrol, noted for its fine work in this line. This firm wished to exhibit a specimen of its art at the World's Fair and asked to be allowed to send one of the St. Michael's windows as a sample of its finest products. Permission was granted and the window was sent away on May 1st. The pastor and several members of St. Michael's saw the window on exhibition in the Austrian department at the fair, and remarked regretfully that it was placed in a very poor position, so that its beauty could not be seen to good advantage. Fears were expressed that for this reason the judges would take little or no notice of this work of art.

Nevertheless, news has now been received that the window has been awarded a first prize by the judges on ecclesiastical art, the firm having received a gold medal and diploma for this exhibit.

The window which has been honored in this manner represents "Daniel in the Lion's Den," as related in Daniel, xiv, 30-39. The prophet is represented kneeling in prayer, with the lions lying about him and an angel and the Prophet Habakuk standing in their midst. It is a picture which strikes the observer most forcibly. The coloring is rich and harmonious and the effects of light and shade are beautiful. The heads of the lions are most lifelike and are a study in themselves. An art critic of high standing declared that the designer of this picture could not be easily excelled in portraying animal life.

It is expected that the window will be returned toward the end of this week and replaced in the church. It may then be seen on the south side of the nave. A visit to this church will repay a lover of ecclesiastical art, as there are other fine windows besides that mentioned.

The young ladies of the congregation will give a dramatic and musical entertainment in Germania Hall on Nov. 22d and 23d for the benefit of the church.

George Mesmer, the registrar of vital statistics, who has been organizer for this congregation for over eighteen years resigned last week. The Rector publicly thanked Mr. Mesmer for his faithful services rendered during his long term of office. No new organizer has yet been appointed to fill the vacancy thus created.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

Miss Mamie Dean and friend, Miss Ella Devereaux, are at the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. James Riley and Miss Nellie Riley, of 61 Hand street, have returned from a western trip, which included St. Paul, Minn., and Chicago.

The following members of this church have recently returned from the White City: Dr. James Buckley and sister, Miss Julia Buckley; Mrs. William F. Rampe, Mr. John Watson and sister, Miss Rebecca Watson.

A delightful Elocution Recital was given at the residence of Miss K. J. Burns, 11 Hand street, on Monday evening. A most enjoyable time was had by all present.

Next Sunday evening a new musical vesper will be sung at St. Bridget's church. There will be a lecture, but the name of the lecturer is not yet announced.

FRENCH CHURCH.

The Forty Hours Devotion will commence at this church to-morrow at the 10:30 Mass.

Everything seems to be going along nicely in regard to the Fair to be given by the congregation the last week in this month. No doubt a handsome sum will be realized.

ALL SOULS DAY.

All Souls Day was appropriately observed in the city. At the Cathedral solemn mass for the dead was celebrated at nine o'clock by the rector, Rev. J. P. Keenan, assisted by Rev. William Harrington and Rev. Coleman O'Loughlin. The Seminary chanted the Gregorian requiem. Professor Eugene Bonn presiding at the organ. At the close of the mass the ceremony of blessing the catafalque took place. A large congregation was present, filling the church.

ELOQUENT SERMON.

Rev. Doctor Hanna preached to a very large congregation in St. Mary's church last Wednesday evening. As was natural to expect the master mind of a theologian was displayed in the dogmatic part of this beautiful sermon in a manner which would carry conviction to the most prejudiced unbeliever. His appeal for prayers for our dear dead ones brought tears to many eyes unused to weeps. Convincing arguments and pathos were the leading features of the Doctor's efforts.

FUNERAL OF JOHANNA SULLIVAN.

On Thursday at 9 a. m. a solemn High Mass of Requiem was offered in the Chapel of St. Mary's Hospital for Johanna Sullivan, who died there on Tuesday. Rev. J. P. Stewart was celebrant, Rev. F. O'Hanlon deacon and Rev. F. Schmalz sub-deacon. Rev. F. Rosalter was master of ceremonies. The remains of the deceased were taken to Fayetteville, near Syracuse, for interment. She was a twin sister of Mrs. James Beahan of Manlius. Father Stewart, a particular friend of the family, officiated in the place of the regular chaplain of the hospital, Rev. T. Rosalter, whose attention and spiritual ministrations to Miss Sullivan will always be remembered gratefully by her surviving relatives. The hospital chapel was draped in mourning especially for the occasion.

CATHOLIC READING CIRCLE.

Tuesday evening the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle held a Halloween frolic at Cathedral Hall. J. O. O'Brien read a humorous paper on Halloween and there was an excellent musical entertainment.

It was an old-time celebration. Abundance of good things, "Jack" lanterns and trees loaded with fruit were everywhere affording appropriate decorations.

Professor Bonn's instrumental selections and the recitations of Miss Leary and Miss Burns were all received with great favor. At the close of the literary programme there were old-fashioned games.

Played Progressive Euchre.

Monday evening last a progressive euchre party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bierry, 37 Harrison street. The game was a spirited one and was enjoyed by all present. Joseph Savard, Mrs. Chas. Hodon, E. J. Ryan and Miss St. Clair were the four winners. After the game a lunch was served.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Police Justice Ernst has returned from his trip to Chicago.

Francis O'Donnor is the nominee of the democracy for State Senator.

Mrs. J. Brennan of 133 Michigan street gave birth to a son Tuesday.

Catherine, infant daughter of Louis and Catherine Kiefer, died Tuesday afternoon at 14 Webster avenue, aged two months. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock from St. Joseph's Church.

The following members of the Y. M. C. C. took part in the three mile run at the Driving Park for the Club badge: M. Foster, George Barker, Joseph Barker, F. Merlinger and John Dietrich. It was won by Joseph Barker, making three miles in 17 minutes and 54 seconds. Instructor McQueen and Secretary Reid acted as timekeeper and judges.

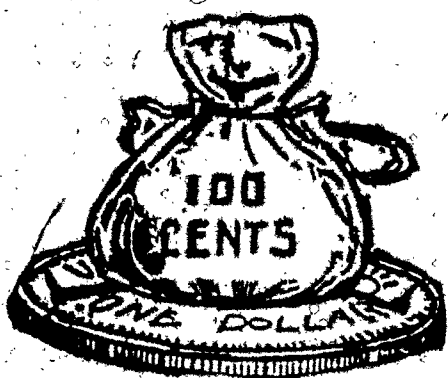

The Catholic "Literary" at its meeting last Monday evening listened to papers by Dr. L. J. Somers and Thomas A. Smyth, a recitation by Emily McCarthy, a piano solo by Miss Taylor and a song by Miss Grogrove.

Thomas H. and J. W. Maguire, coal dealers, doing business at 187 East Main street, under the firm name of Maguire Brothers, confessed judgments Saturday aggregating $10,353.61 to Margaret Maguire, wife of James W. Maguire. The judgments are upon promissory notes, inability to collect outstanding accounts in given as the cause of the failure.

Miss Nellie Sheshan, of 452 North street, and Mr. Albert S. Wilcox, of Buffalo, were united in marriage by Rev. Father Sullivan, of Buffalo. They have returned from the World's Fair and will make their home in Buffalo. It is expected that Mr. Sathell will be in Buffalo on the 8th instant, when the Bishop of that See will celebrate his silver jubilee. It would not be surprising if the delegate visited Rochester. Four of the professors in St. Bernard's are his former pupils.

MRS. MILLY FERGUSON, Troy, N. Y.

The following tribute to DANA'S power over OLD CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, was sent us by Wm. Groom of the well-known "GROOM'S PLEASURACY," 229 Congress St., Troy, N. Y.:

GENTLEMEN—I have been troubled with LIVER TROUBLE, CONSTIPATION and DYSPEPSIA for a long time. I employed the best doctors in the city; they told me

Old Chronic Complaints were hard to cure. Their medicine did me no good. I stopped taking it and bought a bottle of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA. Before I had taken half of it I felt better. I have taken three bottles of and am better than for years. IT HAS DONE WONDER FOR ME. I can eat anything I want and it does not change me in the least.

Yours truly, MRS. MILLY FERGUSON, DANA SARSAPARILLA CO., BELFAST, ME.

SIBLEY, LINDSAY & CURR.

Let there be no misunderstanding. All—every yard of our FRENCH NOVELTY DRESS GOODS is being sold at half-price. What cost one dollar two days ago, sells for 50c today.

Away with all former offers; they are not worthy to be classed with this. These are the finest fabrics in the stock but they are placed within the reach of all.

Cloakings.

For a number of days cloakings have been demanding recognition. Without the aid of printer's ink, they've made their presence pretty well known.

Here is the finest assortment of plain goods—and those are what fashion approves—for ladies' cloakings, which we have ever shown. They include Kerseys, Beavers, Vicuna cloth, Cheviots, Camel-hair, Chinchillas, Diagonals and other weaves in black, blue, brown and green.

A large variety of fancy weaves for children's and misses' cloaks.

Men's Furnishing Goods. Men's solid color, seamless socks, 8 pairs for $1.00.

Men's seamless, natural wool socks, easily worth 25c, for 15c a pair.

Men's black silk plaited half hose for 25c—regular 50c sock.

"The Advance" collars and cuffs are one of the best brands of goods on the market. The "Advance" is a standing collar with rolled points, and, as with the cuffs, both sides are lined and the button holes hand made. Two collars for 25c; cuffs 25c a pair.

Millinery.

We have opened a lot of 15 inch crowns and plateaux—single crown and two-toned, prices 25c and 35c. Such figures as these need not make one shudder at the expense of a new hat, even in hard times.

Many new things in the millinery rooms to see every day; new shapes, new trimmings, and best of all the place where you can get new ideas.

Lots of pretty ribbons for trimming, in stripes and fancy plaids.

Books.

These are the latest receipts from publishers:

"My Dark Companions and their Strange Stories," by Henry M. Stanley. This work consists of nineteen stories, new and striking in motive and quaint in language, relating to Stanley during 17 years of African Exploration.

"Tom Sylvester," by T. R. Sullivan.

"Explorers and Travelers" by Gen. A. W. Greeley.

"To Gipsy Land," by Elizabeth Robbins Pennell.

"The Public School System of the United States," by Dr. J. M. Rice.

"Marion Darche," Crawford's latest novel.

Walter Camp's book of college sports; a full treatise of track athletics, rowing, foot ball and base ball.

Gloves.

A new number added to the ever increasing list of "our own imported gloves." The small of sea salt and the marks of the custom house are still fresh on the cases.

The glove is a novelty in a ladies' two-button pique, just the hand covering for street wear; comes in brown, tan and red—price $1.50.

Among the street gloves to which you need no introduction, is our 4-button pique glove in black, brown, tan, red and navy, which comes at $1.50 and our four-button pique, in black, brown, tan, red, navy and myrtle, at $1.75.

In Dent's gloves for ladies is the four-button pique at $1.75 and the four-button cravan and Havana tans at $1.95.
