REPUBLICAN.

Entire State Ticket Elected by a Safe Majority.

VERY HEAVY VOTE POLLED

Governor McKinley Re-elected In the Buckeye State.

Result of the Balloting Throughout New York State—Full Vote Reported From All Points. Republican Victory, General. lively Times in Brooklyn and Buffalo. Quiet Elections in the Keystone state. No Work in New Jersey and Race-track Adherents Defeated—O'Farrell Elected Governor of Virginia—Greenhalge Wins in Massachusetts. Jackson Conceded the Victor to Iowa by a Large Majority—Peace Reigned—supreme In Most Places—Camden, N. J., the Scene of Strife—Returns From Various Cities and Counties Throughout the Empire State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The battle of ballots is ended and from all parts of the state come the reports of victory for Republicans. The first news of the defeat of Democracy was the scattering reports that Maynard was being badly cut and in nearly all sections was running behind the ticket.

No definite news was at this time available and the Tammany leaders still expressed confidence in the eventual result while throughout the city the general opinion was given that the Democratic state ticket would be elected entire. Later, however, when dispatches commenced to pour in, telling in brief but unmistakable sentences the story of defeat for the Democrats and victory for Republicans, there was an air of gloom settled down upon Democratic headquarters and a corresponding wave of enthusiasm rolled over the camp of the Republican leaders.

The first evidence of the tide of battle was observable in the city, returns and those of Brooklyn, when it was found that Maynard had fallen behind in many parts of the city, far in excess of the calculations of the Democratic leaders. This in itself was serious news, as it was generally understood that the chances of victory or defeat for the candidate for the court of appeals hinged largely on the vote cast in the Metropolis.

When, however, the news of a landslide in Brooklyn reached this city and was noised abroad, those who had up to this time expressed unabated faith in the outcome, shook their heads and prepared for the worst. The worst came speedily in news from the surrounding towns and counties and finally from all parts of the state, and all told the same story—Maynard was surely defeated and the whole state ticket in danger.

This occurs at the headquarters of the two big parties here at this time an exciting one. Crowds of men, women and children were gathered about the building, eagerly scanning the bulletins which were posted at intervals telling of the last phase of the struggle.

At every place in the city where bulletins were posted immense crowds were collected and the interest was intense.

When it became known that the Republican ticket was elected, Republican headquarters was the scene of the greatest enthusiasm and the wildest demonstrations. Hats were thrown in the air, the crowds cheered themselves hoarse and a general jubilation followed.

Although the returns are not yet complete as to senatorial and assembly elections, the indications point to a Republican legislature with a reasonable degree of certainty.

Isaac H. Maynard, the candidate on the Democratic ticket for judge of the court of appeals, against whom the independent Democrats have waged most bitter and unremitting war, has been surprisingly and overwhelmingly defeated. In New York city he ran 35,000 behind his ticket, in Brooklyn over 18,000, and in Erie county several thousands.

In Brooklyn the local campaign was fought most bitterly.

Major Boddy, who was renominated by the Democrats, was opposed by the Young Men's Independent Democratic club of Brooklyn most fiercely and the Republican candidate, Charles A. Schieren, was endorsed with the result that the Demo-returns from Franklin County show

Republican gain of 300; Northumberland county a gain of 400 and Armstrong county a gain of 6,000, as compared with 1891.

Ohio.
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Before 9 o'clock the overflow from Republican headquarters rushed into the State house and took Governor McKinley by storm. He was surrounded by Congressmen, Bouteille, Hoar and other speakers in the canvass, state officers and leading Republicans, who had come in expectation of the memorable occasion. Mr. McKinley would not talk on the results and said it would not determine the extent of the result till after the rural precincts could be paraded with those of the towns and cities.

1.—TEB—Republicans carry Ohio for McKinley by 60,000 to 75,000 plurality and both branches of the legislature by more than two-thirds majority.
