

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A little son of Robert Lennon broke his arm while playing near the river bank recently.

Mrs. Honora Cowey, wife of James Cowey, died Thursday evening at the family residence, 512 South Clinton street, aged 70 years.

On the 23d inst. the pupils of the Academy of the Sacred Heart will give a "Fete de fleurs," the proceeds of which will be devoted to the relief of the deserving poor who have asked for charity at the convent door.

Father Doyle, the Paulist, will lecture on the evening of Jan. 7th in St. Bridget's Church before the Total Abstinence Society. The subject of Father Doyle's lecture will be, "The Danger of the Second Century of Our Republic."

Mr. Edward Finn of Marshall St. left last week for De Land, Florida where he intends to spend the winter. His many friends here unite in the wish that he may soon return with health fully recovered.

A new organ will be built for the Church of St. Bonifacio by A. P. Felgenmaker of Erie, Pa.

A grand musicale will be given under the auspices of the Catholic Reading Circle, of the city at Cathedral hall on Monday evening.

Do not fail to visit the "French Midway Plaisance," or in other words the French fair, which begins at the French hall, on Pleasant street, Nov. 27th, and continues one week.

ORDINATION. Rev. Michael G. Garvey was ordained a priest at St. Bernard's Seminary Sunday morning by Bishop McQuaid, assisted by Rev. J. J. Hartley, proctor of the seminary. Rev. M. A. Arthur Hughes master of ceremonies, and Revs. Dr. A. E. Brown, Owen McGuire and P. P. Libert, also of the seminary. Rev. Father Garvey has been first prefect of the seminary since its opening, and he will remain in that capacity for the immediate future. He was born in Ireland and came to this country with his parents several years ago.

There were about 150 persons present at Sunday's ordination. The services were of the most impressive character, this being the first ordination in the new seminary. Sunday morning Father Garvey celebrated his first Mass at Nazareth convent. At the mass Sunday morning Father Garvey was assisted by Rev. Coleman O'Loughlin. Hymns were sung by the convent choir. Flowers and plants decorated the altar in a beautiful manner. Many relatives and friends of the newly ordained priest were present.

READING CIRCLES.

The central board of Catholic reading circles at its meeting Sunday decided to give another course of lectures and entertainments this winter. The first number of the course will be a musical entertainment on Dec. 4th. The other numbers of the course will be given on January 2d, 1894, and on the first Monday evenings in February, March and April. Among the lecturers will probably be Assemblyman O'Srady, Editor John B. How, of the Herald, and Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, of Moravia. The proceeds will go toward a fund for the establishment of a Catholic library.

Mary Rowena Cotter of Brookport while visiting friends in this city, spent a most enjoyable evening at the Catholic Literary Monday of this week. She speaks in high praise of the Society, both from a literary and social standpoint. Miss Cotter is a young lady of marked literary genius, and is well known to many readers of the Journal. We would be pleased to have her visit us more frequently.

Little Four Attentive. If you will take the trouble to look into the window of Pitt & Esser's store, 24 State street, you will see some shoeboxes that will astonish you, no matter how sharp or prudent a buyer you may be. Elegant dress shoes, worth $5 are marked at $3. First-class walking shoes worth $4, are $2.50. And a thousand women are wearing Pitt & Esser's famous $1.50 shoe, which was reduced from $3.50, and is as good a shoe as the latter figure will buy anywhere else in Rochester. Pitt & Esser have no competition worthy of the name.

Read What J. W. Maser Says About Shoes.

Because I sell shoes cheaper than any other store in Rochester, do not imagine that our shoes are devoid of style. Look at the array of high grade, fashionable shoes, displayed in our window, and then ask yourself why you will pay 25 per cent. more elsewhere when you can save that much by buying of us.

J. W. Maser, 196 East Main street. The One-Price Book Store.

Change on The Nickel Plate.

After November 4th train No. 1 on the Nickel Plate, leaving Buffalo 12:25 a. m., will be discontinued. Other west-bound trains will remain on the present schedule, running daily, composed of the finest day coaches, palace sleeping cars, and dining cars. Fast-day train No. 5 will leave Buffalo at 6:00 a. m., arriving in Chicago at 9:50 p. m. the same evening, and No. 1 will still depart at 1:05 p. m., reaching Chicago at 8:10 a. m.

THE OLD ORPHAN ASYLUM

Partly Torn Down—To Make Room for an Addition to the Cathedral.

The east wing of the old building corner of Frank and Vogt streets formerly occupied by St. Patrick's Girls' Orphan asylum was torn down last week. The building was a plain brick structure and has been one of the landmarks of Frankfort. It became necessary to tear down the east wing at once, as it was becoming unsafe. The west wing, fronting on Frank street, is not occupied but may be allowed to stand for three or four years more.

When the entire building comes down there will be a plot of ground 66 feet front on Frank street and 190 on Vogt street. This land is directly in the rear of the Cathedral, corner of Platt and Frank streets.

The land will be utilized for an addition to the present Cathedral. This will practically make a new edifice. It has long been recognized that the building as it stands is not all that is required in size and dignity for a cathedral church. "It is now only a parish church," said the bishop, "but after we build it will be a cathedral worthy of the name."

The present building, although not equal in size to the demands made upon it, is still constructed in the most substantial and handsome manner, and is a magnificent edifice. It will, of course, be utilized in rebuilding. It will be three or four years before the work will be commenced.

Some improvements are being made now at the new buildings on Clifton street to which St. Patrick's Girls' Orphan asylum was removed several weeks ago. Brick stables are being erected, 28 by 70 feet, where cows and horses will be kept. The cows will furnish milk for the inmates. The institution buys much of its own supplies, especially produce, from farmers in neighboring towns, and so the horses are a necessity, a considerable saving being effected in the expense of the institution in this way. The old frame stables on Vogt street will be torn down when the brick building is finished.

An extensive addition is now being built to St. Mary's Boys' Orphan asylum on West avenue. The addition will be 84 by 90 feet with a basement, two full stories and a mansard roof—the architectural being in harmony with the main building. In the addition will be a pretty chapel, the chapel in the main building being too small. There will also be a infirmary and quarantine rooms, provided with all modern conveniences for the care of the sick. There are now 140 orphan boys in the institution. The increasing number of inmates made additional room necessary.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

There was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The convenience of mankind in the factory and workshop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the apparatus and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially in the advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who entrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F. street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its persons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications, generally, including mechanical inventions, designs, patent, trademarks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents. Write for instructions and advice. JOHN WEDDERBURN, 618 F. Street, Washington, D. C.

Amusements

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

A fair treat is in sight for one who enjoys a light opera. At the Cook Opera House next week the Kimball Opera Comique Company will present the new operatic burlesque "Hendrick Hudson, or the Discovery of Columbia," with the peerless Corinne as a star. Mrs. Jennie Kimball, who is the manager of this company, is one of the most successful managers on the road, and thoroughly merits her success, for she has spared neither labor nor expense to present to the public an attraction well worthy of patronage. With a star like Mrs. Corinne, who is herself well able to secure a hearty reception, and to entertain an audience. Mrs. Kimball has shown her shrewdness by being not content to place her in ordinary surroundings, but has expended over $40,000 in staging the play in the most gorgeous manner.

Academy

Mr. W. H. Powers' Ivy Leaf is by all odds the cleanest and most characteristic Irish play that has been placed upon the boards in this country. It is a noted and laudable departure from the caricatures that are usually presented as Irish to American audiences, and which are a reproach to and a calumny on the Irish name and people. "The Ivy Leaf" is a drama of more than ordinary artistic excellence; whether we look at it from a literary or a dramatic standpoint. The scenic and mechanical effects are truly beautiful, together with having the additional merit of originality.—Indianapolis Record.

Robinson's Musee Theatre

Another programme of novelties has been arranged for the coming week at the Musee Theatre and the star will be Dorothy Morton, who so delighted Rochester audiences at the Lyceum in the roles of comic opera not long ago. Mrs. Morton's voice is superb, her acting faultless and her support will be incomparable during the week. The great celestine appears in an entirely new wire act. Bonnie Lottie, the favorite artist, to her entertaining specialties; Lois Easton, the artistic dancer; Ford and Francis, incomparable novelty sketch artists and operatic singers, follow in quick succession. This will be the last week of the appearance of the Hawaiian Volcano Singers from the Midway Plaisance in their exquisite national melodies. Gusie Hart, in eccentric blackface specialties, and the Stanleys, in their musical farce comedy, "The Widows Troubles, round out a splendid programme for the theatre. In the Musee Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Addy will produce a marvel of the prestidigitators art entitled, "Undine." This novelty is executed without glasses, traps or curtains and is a wonderful piece of ingenuity. Other features are Texas Ben and Annie in portrayals of wild western life, and the Magnolia Male Quartette of colored jubilee singers.

DOMESTIC READING.

It is easy to preach virtue, but far more difficult to teach it by precept and example. Plato often says that men live only in a dream. The philosopher alone strives to awake himself. Contrition is our hope for the past, our watchword for the present, our safeguard for the untitled future. Fidelity, filial piety, chastity and uprightiness diffuse fragrance through a hundred generations.—Confucius. Impiety is like a hideous mask covering the face of the soul, and bidding from it the holy and beautiful things of God.

Another Cured of Catarrh

Further Demonstrating the Certainty of Dr. Freeman's Method. Like hundreds of others in this city William Borchard, of 75 Avenue A, suffered severely from catarrhal pharyngitis. This form of catarrh is exceedingly annoying. The acrid secretions dropping from the head into the throat so irritate the mucous membrane as to cause constant tickling which no amount of hawking or coughing will relieve. The effort seems to only increase the trouble. Mr. Borchard had also frequent spells of nose bleeding, headache and dizziness. He took cold easily and his head and nostrils were constantly filled up. He felt more tired mornings than when he retired and had pains in the chest and cough. Mr. Borchard knew of several cures performed by Dr. Freeman, of 108 Franklin street, Rochester, N. Y., and resolved to try his treatment for catarrh, with the result that he is now fully restored to health. He has no more nose bleed, sore throat, headache or dizziness, and he cheerfully recommends Dr. Freeman to all sufferers.

Dr. Freeman cures Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Ulcers, Asthma, Seminal Weakness, and diseases of the Bladder, Skin, Lungs, Kidneys and Womb. The cost is only $5 per month for all diseases, medicines included. Office hours: 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., and from 6 to 9 p. m., daily except Thursdays, holidays from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.
