A CRITIC CRITICISED: Bishop Coxe has surpassed himself, and that is saying what we never expected to be able to say.

For wealth of cool and unabashed effrontery commend us once for all to him who dubs himself Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Buffalo, the Right Reverend Arthur Cleveland Coxe.

THE FORT BISHOP OF BUFFALO: Catholic Review.

For wealth of cool and unabashed effrontery commend us once for all to him who dubs himself Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Buffalo, the Right Reverend Arthur Cleveland Coxe.

BISHOP COXE'S IMPRESSIONS: Catholic News.

Episcopal Bishop A. Cleveland Coxe, of Buffalo, is known to possess in an eminent degree the faculty commonly described as putting his foot in it.

Bishop Coxe says he is going to write another letter in a few weeks.

His first effort, we presume, was so trying that he badly needs a rest.

A CANTANKEROUS FOOL: Church Progress.

It is an old saying that there is no fool like an old fool. We amend it: There is no fool like the no-Popery fool.

MR. COXE IS LOOSE AGAIN

The New World. Mr. A. Cleveland Coxe, of Buffalo, has had another epasm. The Apostolic Delegate was in Buffalo last week, and Mr. Coxe thinks that he should not have come there without his (Mr. Coxe's) permission.

To all these sentiments Dr. A. Cleveland Coxe, Bishop of western New York, strenuously objects; and he makes his objection take the form of an assault upon Jesuits.

Nobody takes Dr. Coxe very seriously; else it might be worth while to say that intelligent foreigners are often a reproach to Americans by their superior knowledge of the American constitution.

Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Western New York, than whom no more rabid anti-Catholic divine exists, takes exception to some of the remarks made by Papal Delegate Satolli.

We have a two-fold object in quoting the above comments on the action of the Bishop of Buffalo. One is to show the unanimity with which the Catholic press resents Bishop Coxe's meddling interference in Catholic affairs, and his uncalled-for insult to a representative of our Holy Father.

A CHRISTIAN'S DIGNITY

There is no man more worthy of honor and respect than the priest, and as an exchange truly says, no vocation is so high, so holy, so awful as his.

It is true that the position of the priest is one of sublime dignity and awful responsibility, but does not every Catholic occupy a position of terrible responsibility?

Once the waters of Baptism have touched our head, we become brothers of Jesus Christ—the Lord God of all—and heirs to the kingdom of Heaven. How careful then should each member of God's Church be in his every action! What a dignity belongs to him! Our lives should be a constant effort at improvement.

AN ANECDOTE

Le Caron, in his reminiscences, of Clan-na-Gaelism, says that the form of initiation used by the Clan-na-Gael was identically the same as that used by the Free Masons.

Speaking of the Clan-na-Gael, reminds us that the JOANAN, once published a severe anti-Clan-na-Gael editorial. A few days afterwards a letter which read somewhat as follows reached this office:

Dear Sir—Your article on Clan-na-Gael was immense. I admire you pluck; but confound your judgment. Do not send your paper to me again.

It might be said in this connection that the striking employees of the Lehigh Valley display admirable pluck in quitting their positions at this season of the year, but very poor judgment.

JUDGMENT AND PRINCIPLE

The Citizen with the innocence of a dove and the wisdom of a serpent did not participate in the personalities and partisanship of this interesting controversy; although of course it published the news.

Tim Doolan and his wife, was night, Were drinkin' by the crayture, When something started up a fight, And they went at it right an' tight.

O'Grady and meffil stood near, Expecting bloody murder, Says he to me: "Let's interfere," But I, pretending not to hear,

"Lave off, ye brute," says he to Tim, "No man wud strike a lady," But both the Doolans turned on him, And in a whisk the two av thim

Information has been received from the anti-Parnellite members of the House of Commons that the government has decided to yield to the claims of the Christian Brothers.

The above is the substance of a dispatch sent from Ireland last week. If Catholics in this country would unite in working for it, they would some day obtain concessions of a similar nature from the state here.

The announcement—made in our parish news column this week—of the formation of a central Caepelian organization is pleasing evidence of the progress being made in the study of proper church music in this city.

Success to the proposed organization! May it do much to create and foster a love of the glorious musical art among our people.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

Official Organ of the B. A. M. S. All communications to this department should be addressed to Bro. T. H. Donovan.

The resignation of Bro. John F. Kinney as president of the New York Grand Council, which was announced last week, will be learned with genuine regret by the members in this State, and all will give him the kindest wishes.

Edward Ryan, the new president of the association, is a Syracusean, and is engaged in the clothing business in that city. He holds a membership in Branch 49, of Syracuse, and has passed through the president's and chancellor's chair.

Bro. John A. Mattle died at his home, No. 494 Hudson avenue, on Friday last week, aged 86 years. The deceased was one of our best-known undertakers, and because of his genial, pleasant nature, was well liked and popular wherever he was known.

Bro. Mattle was a member of Branch 81 for a number of years, and held office in that Branch at different times.

The funeral was held from Holy Redeemer church Tuesday morning, Rev. Father Staub officiating. Members of Branch 81, and of the Rochester Brotherhood acted as pall bearers. Many beautiful floral pieces were sent.

Bro. J. P. Schonkol died at his home, 18 Mt. Vernon avenue, this week, aged 81 years. He had been married but a short time. He was a member of Branch 80 since 1886, also a member of the St. Boniface Uniformed Union, which attended the funeral in a body.

James L. Whalen has been elected vice-president of the Flour City Democracy.

Oath Taken By A. P. Aists

I do most solemnly promise and swear that I will use my influence to promote the interests of Protestants, everywhere in the world; that I will not employ a Roman Catholic in any capacity if I can procure the services of a Protestant; that I will not aid in building, or in maintaining, by any resources, any Roman Catholic church or institution of their sect or creed whatsoever, but will do all in my power to retard and break down the power of the Pope; that I will not enter into any controversy with a Roman Catholic upon the subject of this order, nor will I enter into agreement with a Roman Catholic to strike or create a disturbance, whereby the Roman Catholic employees may undermine and substitute the Protestants; and that in all grievances I will seek only Protestants and counsel with them, to the exclusion of Roman Catholics, and will not make known to them anything of any nature mentioned at such conferences, that I will not countenance the nomination in any caucus or convention of a Roman Catholic, for any office in the gift of the American people, and that I will not vote for, nor counsel others to vote for, any Roman Catholic; that I will endeavor at all times to place the political positions of this government in the hands of Protestants. (Repeat.) To all of which I do most solemnly promise and swear, so help me God. Amen.

THE KIND THAT CURES

Dyspepsia for 20 Years! TRIED EVERYTHING, Yet 2 bottles wrought A CURE. NO FICTION, BUT TRUTH.

DANA'S SARSAPARILLA. I have been a sufferer for 20 years with DYSPEPSIA. Have tried everything I could hear of. Have tried Diet, Purgatives, but could obtain only temporary relief. I have been T. N. B. L. TO SLEEP WELL for years owing to the diseased condition of my digestive organs.

DANA'S SARSAPARILLA. I bought a bottle of DANAS SARSAPARILLA. It helped me so much that I bought the second. Before that was taken, my DYSPEPSIA WAS CURED. I COULD SLEEP WELL ALL NIGHT. I FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN. JOHN KIRREY, M.D. Massena, N.Y.
