Then upon one occasion to have all the choirs together render the same Mass.

ST. MICHAEL'S

A pleasing dramatic entertainment was given before a large audience by the young ladies of St. Michael's congregation at Germania hall Wednesday evening. "Dory's Diplomacy," a comic sketch, opened the performance and was liberally applauded. "The Gipsy Girls," a ballet of twenty-four gaudily attired young misses, made an excellent appearance. The various characters of "Ida Von Loggenburg," a drama presented in German, were taken by Misses Frances Heindl, Catherine Bail, Margaret Sabel, Bertha Stephany, Catherine Englert, Marie Lill, Frances Weining, Amelia Muller, Margaret Bertram, Caroline Hoff, Caroline Heberger, Marie Wolf and Edward Wegman. Its five acts were most entertaining. The performance closed with a "Mother's Prayer," by Miss Mary Whitman with Miss C. Vail, accompanist.

During the evening several musical selections were well executed by the young ladies. The performance was repeated Thursday night and at its conclusion a ball was given.

ST. BONIFACE.

The condition of Father Renker still seems critical, and at times not the least encouraging. Reports of great weakness are heard daily. He will rally again and strengthen the hopes of congregation who are eager to hear of any favorable report as to his recovery.

On Thursday the funeral services of J. Keidel, jr., aged 39 years, were held at St. Boiface church, at 8 o'clock. Burial at Holy Sepulchre.

The Foire Francaise.

The French church, on Pleasant street, will hold a fair every evening of the coming week, with matinees on Thursday and Saturday. The committees are earnestly engaged in making extensive preparations, and everything points to decided success. The Society Parlors will be turned into refreshment rooms. The Midway Plaisance will have its various attractions on the ground floor. Paradise Inn; Belgian and Holland villages; The Streets of Cairo, etc., and eight gorgeous booths will adorn the beautiful hall. Suffice it to say that the celebrated scenic artist, Leon H. Lempert, has generously offered to prepare a gem of rare beauty for the twelve imps who sent last week such warm and rather commanding invitations to their friends. It's to be a regular treat, so we understand. The Polyhymnians will open the Fair Monday evening with several selections. During the week the choirs of the different churches will lend their assistance.

At French Hall on Pleasant street a delightful musical entertainment and dancing patry was held Thursday evening for the benefit of Corpus Christi Church Society. Musical numbers were rendered by Miss Amelia Vogt, Miss Julia Toole, Eugene Vogt, John Klubertanz and the Polyhymnian Singing Society.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE

Of Florence Heart Who Died Oct. 30, 1895.

Darling Florence, you have left me;
Nevermore we see your face,
But we pray that you have found, dear,
An eternal resting place.

Where there is no pain or sorrow
From whence earthly cares have fled
And we hope to meet you darling
When we're resting with the dead.

For you died a little Christian
And we know your pain is o'er
And we hope to find you waiting
For us on the other shore.

THE LEHIGH VALLEY STRIKE.

Its Effect on the Rochester Coal Trade.

The Lehigh Valley strike has had no effect on the mammoth coal business conducted by the old established dealer, Louis Langie, whose office is just underneath the JOURNAL office at the corner of East Main street and East avenue. Mr. Langie's South Clinton street and North avenue yards are well filled with the famous hard white ash coal which he has sold to Rochesterians for so many years, and orders will be filled as promptly as ever. Speaking of coal, we might add that no dealer in Rochester can undersell Mr. Langie, and many cannot sell as low. Give him a trial order.
