

DIOCESAN NEWS.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Livonia

Miss Minnie Egan and brother William of Avon, visited their aunt, Mrs. John Kinney, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Michael Kernin and Miss Kate Murphy were married Thursday morning by Rev. J. W. Hendrick. After the ceremony the happy couple started on their voyage of life in their new home.

Mrs. Walter Beem, (formerly Miss Kate Mortuary,) of Chadron, Neb., who has been visiting her parents at Conesus Lake, this summer, returned home with her baby on Monday.

Miss Theresa Concessan, who is attending school at Concessan and Agnes, of Lima, temporary, spent Thanksgiving at home.

There was a month's mind for Joseph Dowling Saturday morning.

Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 22d, occurred the marriage of Mr. John Winn and Miss Della Lyons, both of this place.

The church decoration is well under way. Miss Kathleen Rotchford and Wm. Rotchford, of Rochester, spent Sunday in town.

The pupils of St. Mary's school are taking a course of delicate and physical training under Mrs. Perry.

Canonization is well under way. Miss Kathleen Rotchford and Wm. Rotchford, of Rochester, spent Sunday in town.

ST. PATRICK'S ASYLUM.

Thanksgiving Donation and Reception at the Institution.

The new St. Patrick's Asylum on Olifton street was formally opened for inspection by the public on Thanksgiving day. A reception was held from 8 to 8 p. m.

The occasion was a most enjoyable one, and those who attended and who inspected the asylum were more than pleased with the new building.

The building is a large structure three stories high, admirably planned for its purposes and comfortably furnished. The dormitories are on the second and third floors and the school room is on the second floor.

Amusements

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Vernona Jarbeau, that most piquant of all soubrettes, supported by a strong comedy company, will commence an engagement at the Cook Opera House next Monday evening.

The play is full of animation, with Miss Jarbeau as the most animated character of all in the leading role of Carlotta, or, as she is known to her audience, "Starlight".

ACADEMY

"The Pay Train" will be presented at the Academy all next week. Florence Bindley is a clever little soubrette, and quite pleasing in her songs and instrumental playing.

MUSÉE THEATRE

The management at the Musée have secured Lottie Gilson for this season, and the popular little strouss will appear at every performance during the coming week.

The Jonghmann sisters, who created quite a furore during the past week, will remain.

The entire Fitzgibbon family will appear also in a superb musical act. Foster and Evans' novel sketch articles, Dick Jaggott, eccentric comedian, Gray and Dowley in an original skit, and the Magnolia quartette are also strong attractions for the week.

The M. S. Robinson Comic Opera Company will occupy the boards for the week commencing December 11th with "The Mascotte."

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

Official Organ C. M. B. A. All communications in this department should be addressed to Bro. T. H. Donovan.

Judge Kinney's reason for resigning the presidency of the C. M. B. A. was that its duties occupied too much of his time, to the detriment of his law practice.

Branch 98 has seven candidates for representative to the State convention, and a lively contest will take place.

At a recent meeting of Branch 87, C. M. B. A., of which the late James D. Egan was a member, it was resolved to adopt resolutions on the death of that Brother.

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Egan, the members of this Branch feel they have lost a worthy associate and one of whom they will always cherish the kindest recollection.

Resolved, That in order to publicly testify to the sorrow which exists among us by reason of the death of our Brother, we have this token of regard published, a copy sent to the bereaved relatives and a copy spread upon the minutes of our Branch.

L. O. McCreel, C. J. Chism, Jas. F. Donovan, D. Driscoll, J. A. Torney, Committee

BRANCH 189

Corpus Christi Branch 189 nominated officers last Tuesday evening. There is a contest for an office, that of representative to the state convention.

The nominees are, president, Geo. M. Legler; first vice-president, Fred. Tyler; second vice-president, Robert Hilley; recording secretary, Owen B. Daly; assistant recording secretary, D. Dooley; financial secretary, Wm. L. Peasley; treasurer, A. J. Young; Tusteen, Henry Hebing, Wm. L. Peasley, A. J. Young; Delegates to the Central Council, Chas. Orowley, Frank Carberry, T. H. Donovan; representative to the State Convention, Frank Carberry, Chas. Orowley.

Honorary Falls

Mrs. William Murray died at her home Monday after a brief illness. Deceased, with her husband, was one of the early settlers in this vicinity.

Or 499 State street, and take home some of these excellent Crackers, Pies, Cakes, Etc., for which the Catholic Bakeries are famous.

The social problem—how to improve the condition of the poor and prevent pauperism—has been solved in Vienna, whose population is about one-fourth that of the capital of the British Empire.
