

DIOCESAN NEWS.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Auburn.

The many friends of Rev. John T. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, of Cottage street, were pleased to see him in town this week.

Misses Frances M. Waldo and Mame Caraber, of Seneca Falls, are visiting friends in this city.

The children of the Auburn Orphan Asylum will present a literary and musical entertainment at the asylum Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week for the benefit of the asylum.

The death of Miss Margaret M. Masnie occurred at her late home on State street Monday morning after a lingering illness.

Miss Mary A. Cannon and Jerome Hayden were quietly married at St. Mary's church Wednesday morning.

Miss Mary Brennan, an estimable old lady, mother of James Brennan and Mrs. Michael McDermott, died in this village Dec. 21st, in the 81st year of age.

Miss Mary Rogers of Syracuse, spent Christmas in town with her parents.

Miss Katie and Annie McGreevy of Rochester, spent Christmas and New Years in town with their parents.

William Little of Auburn, and his sister Mary of Rochester, were home for their Christmas dinner.

Mr. George Connor and Margaret Connor were united in marriage by Rev. John F. Nelligan this week.

Miss Mary Margaret Murphy and Honora McCarthy of Auburn, were in town Sunday on business connected with the O. R. & A.

Mrs. Michael Harrington and three children, of William's Bridge, N. Y., spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Patrick Smith.

John C. Murphy was at Waterloo during the holidays visiting friends.

Miss Colla Connor has returned to Seneca Falls after spending the holidays with her parents.

Miss Winifred Lawton and Patrick Connor were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in St. Michael's church Sunday, the 17th, by Rev. J. F. Nelligan of Cayuga.

Miss Agnes Connor was bridesmaid and John Connor, brother of the groom, was best man.

It is with sincere sorrow that we record the death of Dr. Thomas A. Hammond, which occurred on Monday morning, January 8th, 1894, after a sudden illness.

Dr. Hammond was one of the most popular of Nunda's young men and in his death Nunda society has lost one of its most prominent leaders.

In his death also Nunda loses one of its most honored and respected citizens. His death has caused a void which cannot easily be filled.

His funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon from the old Hammond homestead, hundreds of his friends testifying to the esteem in which he was held, by their presence.

The services were simple, yet beautiful. Requiem floral tributes from far and near grouped around his magnificent casket.

Dr. Hammond loved flowers and it was a fitting tribute to his memory that his last resting place should be strewn with flowers that he loved. He was buried in Oakwood.

St. Morris.

Frank McGrath, of this place, while crossing the D. L. W. railroad was struck by an express train and seriously injured.

Miss Mary McKee is visiting friends in Elmira.

Miss Mary O'Connell, of Geneseo, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O'Connell, returned home this week.

Miss Katie Zinner is taking a two months tour through Canada and Geneseo.

Thos. Dwyer, for many years a farmer near Oake Corners, but who for the past year resided on the Slatery place, North Exchange street, died at his home Saturday evening, Jan. 6, 1894, at the respectable age of 71 years.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of George M. Healy and Maggie Murphy.

Malley Bros., grocers and brokers, Exchange street, have moved into their new block a few doors north of their old stand, and it is safe to say their new quarters are the finest in Geneseo.

Mrs. Schurtz left last week for her home in Florida.

Miss Elizabeth Barnes, who has been visiting friends here for the past week, returned to her home in Albany on Wednesday.

L. C. O'Connor started on Monday for Ann Arbor, to resume his studies. He was taken sick on the train and had to return home.

The third annual reception and ball of Branch No. 157, C. M. B. A., of this village will be held at Concert hall on the evening of the 28th.

Miss Mary Hackett, who has been an invalid for a number of years, died at the home of her mother, in this village, on the 23rd inst., aged 82 years.

Mrs. David Dwyer, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering.

The death of Mrs. A. S. Harmon occurred at the family residence on Brutus street, early Tuesday morning. Deceased leaves a husband, one son and one daughter to mourn her loss.

Tom Brennan and wife, of Avon, spent Sunday in town.

Jacob Smith has bought the James Armstrong meat market, possession taken at once.

George Elmenthaler has bought him a home on High street.

Richard Noonan and wife have the sympathy of all in this, their time of trouble, by the death of their infant baby.

A great many are ill with the grip.

Miss Maria Gray has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Emmett Ryan, in Seneca Falls.

Sad indeed was the death of Miss Mary McPugh, who was drowned in the canal on Wednesday last.

She was on her way to her brother's, and thought by going across the canal, she could shorten the distance.

The ice broke and she fell in, and before aid could reach her she drowned. The young lady who was with her was rescued.

The funeral, held from St. Michael's church Saturday morning, was largely attended by friends.

Mrs. Andrew Burns died at her home at Lime Rock on Friday afternoon from heart failure.

She leaves a husband and five small children to mourn her loss. The funeral was held from the LeRoy church at 9:30 Monday morning.

Miss Augusta McSweeney won first prize, a silk dress, for selling the largest number of piano tickets for the fair.

Miss Mary Reid second prize, a crayon; Miss Katie Graney a gold watch for the largest number of bazar tickets.

Katie Englerth a bible; second prize.

Daniel Turney will not return to Ann Arbor college for the present, owing to ill health.

Mrs. Michael Burke is on the sick list.

Miss Anna Sour is visiting Mrs. J. C. Foltz.

Dr. George Clark and Edward Nugent have returned to New York to resume their studies.

John Callahan and Miss Mamie Johnson, of Rochester, spent Sunday with Waterloo friends.

Miss Ella Hickey, of Auburn, spent Sunday with Rev. J. J. Hickey.

Mrs. Fred O. Stuart, of Rochester, is visiting a few days with her mother, Mrs. Leonard Story, on Virginia street.

George Zortman, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is very much improved.

Mrs. Dr. J. W. Day left on Tuesday morning for New York where she will sail on Thursday for Paris.

Bert Becker has taken a position at the Stony bank.

The new drinking fountain has been placed in position opposite the Craddock block on Seneca street.

A dwelling house belonging to Daniel Somers, of Centerport, was destroyed by fire Sunday.

Miss Allie Nolan has returned from Fall River, Mass.

John Riley, of Auburn, was in town Sunday.

Charles Glass, of Rochester, is home on a vacation.

Mrs. Charles Bolway still continues very ill.

Bert Kenyon arrived home from Chicago last week.

Mrs. J. E. Crissey, of Chubbville, was called to Weedsport last week on account of the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. B. J. Crissey.

Mrs. David Dwyer, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering.

The death of Mrs. A. S. Harmon occurred at the family residence on Brutus street, early Tuesday morning.

Deceased leaves a husband, one son and one daughter to mourn her loss.

The new officers of Branch 70, L. C. B. A., were installed on Tuesday evening by Supreme Deputy Mrs. M. D. Breen.

Miss Shea, of Rochester, has been visiting for the past week with Mrs. O. T. Hoover.

Two children of James Hurley are sick with measles.

Miss Alice Leyden, of Lima, visited friends in town last week and attended the fair Wednesday evening.

Miss Lena Sullivan won the diamond ring at the fair.

The New York, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co.

Raymond & Whitcomb California Excursions at Buffalo on February 15th.

Solid vestibule train, composed of sleeping cars, observation car and dining car.

Route will be via Cleveland, New Orleans and the Southern route.

For all information address F. J. Moore, General Agent, Nickel Plate road, 28 Exchange St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Children's Shoes at Less Than Cost.

Before buying your child a pair of shoes come and see us. We can save you from 25c to 50c on every pair.

J. W. Maser, 196 East Main Street, The One-Price Beek Store.

The "D. M. A." butter crackers are much superior to any other in Rochester.

Our Graham Flakes are a great delicacy. Made by home labor and sold at your grocery.

Sleigh Rides.

If you wish to take a sleigh ride leave orders with Sam Gottry & Co., at Erie office, 19 Exchange street, or house 8 Thompson street. Telephone 367 or 643.

All Our $1.25 and $1.50 Shoes for 90c, in Warm-Lined Goods.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

James M. Nolan has been elected chairman of the Democratic committee of the 3d ward, under the "Rainey Rules."

On Friday evening next—Jan 19—an entertainment will be given by Section One, of St. Mary's Aid Society at the residence of the Misses McNulty, 82 Alexander street.

A Good Showing for St. Mary's.

Rev. J. P. Stewart submitted his financial statement for 1893 to his people last Sunday.

Rev. Father Doyle's lecture at St. Bridget's church last Sunday evening on "The Hopes and Fears of the Rising Generation," was a fine effort.

The ten days retreat which opened Sunday has been well attended.

We desire a correspondent in all parishes in the diocese.

34 00 Ladies' Shoes for $1.00. See them in our window.

We print everything in our line at moderate prices.

Amusements.

The Pulse of New York, a realistic comedy drama of the present day.

A Pair of Kids' and "The Substitute," both produced by different companies.

Dr. M. J. Foran, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist.

When You Wish any Printing Done, Send to or Call Upon Us.

Our Number is 327 E. Main St.,

We are in the Business For Business,

And, Incidentally, Money.

Our Work is Good, and Prices Reasonable.

The Catholic Journal Company

327 EAST MAIN STREET.

CHIEFLY CHAFF.

Police Magistrate—Have you ever seen the prisoner at the bar? Witness—Never, your honor, but I've seen him when I strongly suspected he'd been at it.

Spencer—Why does Miss Holdleigh hide her face behind her fan when men compliment her? Is it to conceal her blushes? Ferguson—No. It is to conceal the fact that she can't blush.

Patent—The examinations seem to have delighted you doctor. I judge from your happy countenance that you can save my life.

Teacher—I hope you kept eyes and ears open while in Chicago and tried to learn something.

What a queer fellow you are! At one time you are exceedingly jolly and at another quite down in the dumps.

A young woman of Virginia, who took occasion to correct the errors of speech of all the little negroes within hearing.

The young man was prematurely gray, and was not a little proud of it.

Dr. M. J. Foran, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist.

When You Wish any Printing Done, Send to or Call Upon Us.

Our Number is 327 E. Main St.,

We are in the Business For Business,

And, Incidentally, Money.

Our Work is Good, and Prices Reasonable.

The Catholic Journal Company

327 EAST MAIN STREET.

Net a Prohibition Gatherer. Mrs. Elizabeth Storms Meade, the stately president of Mount Holyoke college, told her girls lately a funny story at her own expense.

Cook Opera House. H. R. Jacobs, Manager.

Popular Prices, 25 and 50c. Three Nights, Jan. 1, 2 and 3.

Academy of Music. Under New Management.

The Substitute. Supported by a Splendid Company of Players.

Health! Can you buy it? Yes, when it is possible with a single box of Beecham's Pills.

Dr. M. J. Foran, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist.

When You Wish any Printing Done, Send to or Call Upon Us.

Our Number is 327 E. Main St.,

We are in the Business For Business,

And, Incidentally, Money.

Our Work is Good, and Prices Reasonable.

The Catholic Journal Company

327 EAST MAIN STREET.