SE. PETER AND PAUL'S.

Last Monday evening Mrs. Rossenbach gave a delightful party to about fifty of her friends, in honor of her birthday, at her residence on Jefferson avenue. The entire party sat down to progressive euchre, which had been arranged by Miss Tessie Rossenbach, after which a sumptuous supper was served. Music was furnished by Hoag's orchestra and dancing was indulged in until the wee hours of morning. Lieut. Schwarz. in a neat little speech, presented to Mrs. Rossenbach a bandsome upholstered rocker—the gift of her hus-band; and in behalf of the assembled guests he thanked the host and hostess for the elaborate entertainment furnished and wished them many happy returns of the day.
