

OUR CITY PARISHES

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

HOLY FAMILY.

The marriage of Albert Schwab and Miss Lizzie Esse, of this city, was solemnized Tuesday morning in the Church of the Holy Family. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate friends of the contracting parties by Rev. Father Lauer. Frank Esse was best man and Miss Libbie Reichburger was bridesmaid. Mr. Schwab resides at the corner of Campbell and Whitney streets. His bride is a popular young lady among German citizens. They will live in this city.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.

Francis FitzGibbon and Miss Julia McCormick were united in marriage by Rev. J. P. Kiernan at the Cathedral Tuesday morning. The wedding was a quiet one, only a very few friends being present.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

St. Joseph's Church choir gave a concert and operetta in St. Joseph's Hall on Franklin street Tuesday evening. A large audience was present and the efforts of the participants were rewarded with frequent and liberal applause. The first part of the programme consisted of selections by individual members of the choir and was as follows:

Overture, Prof. F. J. Bauer.
Our Tiny Bark, Cecilian Mannerchor.
Soprano solo—Ernst.
Miss Eva Denlinger.
Trio—The Mariners.
Miss Mary Bauer, Messrs. Joseph Mura and Joseph M. Gerstner.
Bass solo—The Sentimental Am.
Charles L. Cramer.
Duet—Gently Sighs the Breeze, Misses L. and Amelia Murr.
Trio—My Mother, Misses Regina Deigert, Eva Denlinger and Marie Kocsterer.
Spring Song, Cecilian Ladies' Chorus.

The entertainment was brought to a close with the rendition of a two act operetta entitled "The Hunters' Camp."

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Immaculate Conception Church held a reception in the new school hall Monday evening. The following committees had charge:

Arrangements—James Meagher, Thomas Brannigan, John Leddy, B. V. Logan, Richard Holley, Thomas McKenna.
Reception—F. L. Hughes, John O. King, John H. Foley, Michael Cunningham, Charles F. Barnes, Richard Quinn, J. P. Henry, Joseph Quigley, A. I. McKittrick, John M. Murphy, Frank Madden, Joseph Lara, John O'Kane, George White.

David Harris, manager.

ST. MARY'S.

The Aid Society held an entertainment Friday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Gurry, on Chestnut street.

PERPETUAL HELP SOCIETY.

The Perpetual Help Society held its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon at St. Mary's Hospital, a large number of ladies being present. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. William Watters; first vice-president, Mrs. Joseph Flockenstein; second vice-president, Mrs. A. J. Kirley; third vice-president, Mrs. T. J. Heagerty; treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Barry; secretary, Miss O. Mahon; directresses, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. McCauley, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Kolb, Miss Joyce and Miss Purcell. The President appointed the committee. After giving a vote of thanks to the retiring officers the meeting adjourned.

The following letter has been received at this office:

EDITOR CATHOLIC JOURNAL, ROCHESTER, Feb. 8th, 1894.
DEAR SIR:—I have received No. 1 of the series of your Photographic Views of the World's Fair Portfolio, and am anxiously awaiting the appearance of Coupon No. 2. They are handsome and more comprehensive than any I have seen, and when the four numbers are complete, with your elegant and durable style of binding for seventy-five cents, ten times their cost would not induce me to part with them. I heartily commend them to all JOURNAL readers. With respect,
W. F. P.

BRANCH 157 CHURCH.

District Dept., Jacob H. Smith, of Branch 78, Danaville, visited Branch 157, Genesee, at its regular meeting Tuesday evening. Bro. Smith invited ten members of his Branch to come with him and enjoy a sleigh ride which they did, and the visiting Brothers were royally entertained by Branch 157. The visiting Brothers were P. F. Morgan, James Kelly, James Callahan, George Roberts, John Bush, Albin Altmeyer, Thomas Maloney, Thomas Earls and John Smith. The Dist. Dept. made his examination of the affairs of the Branch and found them in first class shape. Bro. Smith complimented the Branch for the way it did business, and the good condition of the Branch.

The members of 157 were favored with some good speeches from Bro. Morgan, who is an able speaker and staunch C. M. B. A. man. President Kelly, of 78, made some good remarks as also did Brothers Callahan, Burke, Earls and Roberts. After the meeting, the members were invited to the parlors of M. B. Toey, where a grand supper was served, after which the members spent an hour or so in telling stories and the like; the visiting Brothers were more than pleased with the way they were entertained and hoped that they would soon have an opportunity of returning the compliment; they left for home at 12:30 o'clock.

CENTRAL COUNCIL.

Last week we gave the list of officers elected by the Council for the ensuing year. President Stupp, on taking the chair, delivered a sensible address, and showed that no mistake had been made by putting him at the head of the organization.

THE $500.00 CLASH.

Now that $500.00 policies can be taken out in the C. M. B. A., the membership should largely increase. Young men who have heretofore been unable to join because of the smallness of their salaries, can now become members, and enjoy all the social and fraternal advantages of the order.

The Street Case.

All pass the corner of State and Main streets, and one of Calross's bakeries is a few rods from the corner, to-wit, at No. 30 State street. It is very convenient to stop at Calross's, purchase some of his delicious baked goods and then take a car home. Many persons come down town just on purpose to do their trading at the Calross bakery. This shows what an excellent reputation these goods have. Another of the Calross bakeries is at 429 State street.

THE PEOPLE of the State of New York, by the grace of God, free and independent. To Hugh Hogan, Edward Hogan, James Hogan, Catherine Kilgus, Martin Hogan, Mary Felt, Sylvia Hogan, the legatees, next of kin, heirs at law, creditors and persons interested in the Estate of Mary Hogan, late of the Town of Greece, in the County of Monroe, deceased.

You are hereby cited and required to appear before the surrogate of our county of Monroe, at the surrogate's court, on the 6th day of March, 1894, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the surrogate's office, in the city of Rochester, and there to defend or submit to the settlement of the account of Matthew Hogan, as the executor of the will of said deceased.

And if any of the aforesaid persons fail to appear at the time and place above specified, the account of Matthew Hogan, as the executor of the will of said deceased, shall be settled by the surrogate without any further notice, and the same shall be a final settlement of the account of said executor, and the same shall be binding upon all persons interested in the estate of said deceased.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of the surrogate's court of the county of Monroe, to be hereunto affixed. Witness, Hon. J. A. Adinolfi, Surrogate of said county, at the city of Rochester, this 15th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.
