

OUR CITY PARISHES

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

ST. MARY'S.

Rev. J. P. Stewart was the celebrant at the high Mass last Sunday. Rev. Father O'Hanlon preached a very able sermon on the duties of Catholics during the holy season of Lent.

Substantially he said: "A great many people consider that they are exempt from fasting; but if they would only try to abstain from various things that they could get along just as well without, they would find it not such a hard task after all. Our Holy Mother, the Church, does not require us to do anything that would injure our health; but everybody is required to perform some little act of self-denial during this holy season, excepting those who are in a tender or advanced age; those who are sick and those who are obliged to do hard work; also nursing women."

Father Stewart thanked the members of the choir for their regular attendance, and added that as they had quite a number of new recruits, he hoped he would be able to say that St. Mary's had the best choir in the city.

The following new members have joined St. Mary's choir: Miss Fannie A. Moran, Miss Kittie Moran, Miss Emma Rosney, Miss Julia Corbett, Mr. Richard Finnegan, Tenor.

Giorzas's 2nd Mass will be sung by the choir Easter Sunday.

About $22.00 was realized at the entertainment given by St. Mary's Aid Society at the residence of Mrs. Gurry, on Chestnut Park last week. On February 23rd, a Washington's birthday social will be given at the residence of Mrs. Dempsey, Rowley street.

CATHEDRAL.

Mrs. George Cobb died at the residence of her mother, Mrs. John O'Grady, 378 State street, Saturday afternoon. Besides her husband and mother, she leaves two sisters, Miss Christina Grainger, and Mrs. Nell Lawrence, and three brothers, Thomas, John and William O'Grady, all of this city. A large circle of friends mourn her loss. The funeral was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral.

Lenten services at the Cathedral are being largely attended.

ST. DONIFACE.

The Ladies Sodality of St. Doniface received Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, Mass on Sunday with all members taking part. On Sunday a. m. at 8 o'clock the funeral of Frank Richter, age 20, son of Mrs. E. Richter, of 188 South avenue, was held, death having been very suddenly caused by peritonitis. The funeral was attended by a large circle of sympathizing friends of Mrs. F. Richter.

Mary B., infant daughter of William and Mary Flugler, died Wednesday morning at 297 Meigs street.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The Aid Society of the Immaculate Conception parish realized the handsome sum of $300 from its entertainment last week.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

William Beecher, aged 51 years, died at the family residence 102 University avenue on Feb. 9th, after a lingering illness. He leaves a widow and three sons, John and Edward, of Rochester, Wm. Jr., of Pittsford, and Ellen, of this city.

The funeral services were held at Corpus Christi Church, and he was buried in the family lot at Chili, N. Y., Monday, Feb. 12th.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

Ellen, widow of William Punch, died at 203 Central avenue on the 10th. She was born in the County Tyrone, Ireland, in 1827, and came to this country when quite young. She had resided in this city over 40 years. She was one of the oldest members of St. Bridget's parish and had been until a few years ago one of its most earnest workers. She leaves five children, Richard D., John W., Edward A., and Joseph A. Punch of this city, and Thos. Punch, of Melbourne, Australia, and two sisters, Mrs. A. Coyle and Miss Margaret Casey.

Father Smith will lecture in St. Bridget's church Feb. 25th, for the benefit of the Aid Society.

Gift to St. Bernard's.

Friday afternoon of last week, the new set of stations of the cross presented St. Bernard's Seminary by Rev. Mgr. De Regge, were blessed, Mgr. De Regge officiating at the ceremony. The stations were presented by the monsignor in memory of his sister, Madame Verocruysen, who died a few weeks ago in Belgium and are said to be of the finest design ever seen in this part of the country. Bishop McQuaid pronounced the benediction at the close of the afternoon's ceremony.

We print everything in our line at moderate prices. Hard times prices prevail at our office.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The severe weather of Monday evening prevented so many members of the Catholic Literary from attending that it was decided to postpone the meeting until Monday, Feb. 19. Daniel O'Loughlin, a New York Central flagman, of 129 Jay street, who was struck by an engine at the Kent street crossing, on Friday evening last, sustained severe injuries about the head and shoulders. The ambulance was summoned, and, contrary to previous records, arrived in an incredibly short time. O'Loughlin was taken to his home, where he was immediately attended by Police Surgeon Cartwright.

Governor Flower has re-appointed Hon. William Carroll and Mr. F. S. Minges managers of the State Industrial School.

Our Rt. Rev. Bishop blessed the new chapel at St. Mary's Orphan Asylum last Sunday.

Misses Margaret and Marie Keyes sang at a children's festival in New York recently and gave great satisfaction.

The date set down for the lecture of Hon. James M. E. O'Grady at Cathedral hall in Friday evening, Feb. 23d. The subject is Charles Dickens. He should have a large audience.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Clara Vogel, who was killed by the cars at Lincoln park on Wednesday, will be held on Saturday morning.

William, son of Henry and Josephine Erbland, died Saturday in Irondequoit, aged 23 years. He was a member of St. Fidelis Society of Holy Redeemer church.

Patrick Judge, foreman in the City Street Department, dropped dead in the office of the Street Superintendent Tuesday morning. He had just issued orders to the men and said, "All right boys, let's go ahead," when he fell to the floor. He was picked up and a physician and his family were summoned, but before assistance arrived he died.

Mr. Judge was 55 years of age, and lived at 95 Alexander street. For a number of years he was employed as a floor-walker by Burke, Fitzsimons, Hone & Co. Three months ago he entered the employ of the city.

He leaves a widow, two sons, Thomas and Charles, and two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Mahon and Miss Katherine.

Mr. Judge was a faithful attendant at St. Mary's church and for years has been one of the collectors. The sympathy of hosts of friends is extended to the bereaved family. The funeral was held Friday morning from St. Mary's church.

The funeral of Catherine Purcell, widow of William Purcell, took place from the family residence, 179 Reynolds street, at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning, and from the Immaculate Conception Church at 9 o'clock.

Honorably Discharged.

Chas. A. Hudon, of 286 North st., who was charged with passing a counterfeit bill upon George W. Dancy, was honorably discharged last Saturday morning by U. S. Commissioner Gilbert.

THE BLIZZARD.

It was a Regular Old Timer.

The mind of the oldest resident does not go back to a winter having a storm that surpassed this week's blizzard. In this city snow is piled up four feet high, and still it keeps on snowing. Trains are delayed on nearly all the railroads and the temperature is away down. Those of our citizens who have filled their bins with good hard coal from Langie's can snap their fingers at the blizzard. Office corner East Main and East Avenue. Yards on Alexander and North Avenue.

Sleigh Rides.

If you wish to take a sleigh ride leave orders with Sam Gottry & Co., at Erie office, 12 Exchange street, or house 2 Thompson street. Telephone 367 or 445.

The Street Cars.

All pass the corner of State and Main streets, and one of Outross's bakeries is a few rods from the corner, to-wit, at No. 30 State street. It is very convenient to stop at Outross's, purchase some of his delicious baked goods and then take a car home. Many persons come down town just on purpose to do their trading at the Outross bakery. This shows what an excellent reputation these goods have. Another of the Outross bakeries is at 499 State street.

A Purely Domestic Bread.

Anthony's Cream Bread made from highest grade Patent flour. Purest and best flavored made by Rochester mechanics. Get of your grocer.

Go for California.

We were compelled to close The Store Thursday.

Since our great closing out sale began, our store at 206 East Main street has been thronged continually. Every clerk that could find room behind the counters has had all he could do. The stock has necessarily been disarranged. In justice to ourselves and to our patrons we decided to close yesterday.

To Put Things in Order and Mark Prices Still Lower.

This means a clean sweep and a startling sacrifice, but the stock has moved so rapidly that we have determined to finish it without delay. Everything and anything in the very best Men's Furnishing Goods at your own price.
