The pupils of Nazareth Academy gave a recital Thursday evening, Feb. 22, at the convent.

Next Sunday the men and boys of the Cathedral are invited to their monthly communion.

The confessionals will be reserved for men this Saturday evening

Rev. Father Breen delivered the Wednesday evening sermon at the Cathedral

Our Rt. Rev. Bishop preached on Sunday last at the Cathedral taking the Gospel of the day as his text.

The Bishop drew an elequent picture of the transfiguration. He explained how faint an idea the Apostles had had of the significance of that event when the glory of Heaven came down and encompassed Jesus transferred to the south wing. and Moses and Elias. They were just as stupid until on Pentecost Sunday the clouds were lifted and they were no longer in darkness, no longer in doubt. And what a lesson for us! The great troths of religion are presouted to us by God's grace; and it has come to pass that men stand before these truths of Heaven simply bewildered; year after year hearing these same traths until this same spirit of Pentecost comes down upon them and enlightens them.
