MGR. DE REGGE.

ADDRESSES MADE TO HIM ON THE OCCASION OF HIS SILVER JUBILEE.

As promised last week we publish the addresses presented to Monsignor De Regge on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee as Chancellor of this diocese.

From the Students of St. Bernard's.

TO THE VERY REV. MONSIGNOR DE REGGE.

To-day dear Monsignor, in union with our bishop and clergy, in union with our invited guests and friends, we, the students of St. Bernard's Seminary, join in offering to you our heart-felt congratulations upon this your twenty-fifth anniversary as chancellor of our diocese. Rarely indeed does the celebration of such an event fall to the lot of any man and well may he rejoice whom God preserves for such an event. To you alone, so far in the history of this great free land has this special privilege been granted and well may you upon this occasion make holiday with your friends.

During this quarter of a century past, great has been the advance of the Rochester diocese in spiritual and material progress, and we dare say that in the effecting of this change so glorious, no one has labored with our bishop more faithfully with greater love and ardor than you. We feel that as our bishop looks over that long term of service, he can say to you what our Lord says to the faithful servant: "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

Rev. Monsignor, we will not even endeavor to recall all you have done for the Catholic Church of Rochester, your labors speak for themselves and their voice has a clearer, a sweeter and a more potent sound than any words we can utter.

This deep appreciation of your worth and of the esteem in which our bishop holds you tells us of the sanctity of your life, for our bishop loves and esteems only that which is good.

The motto emblazoned on your banner, and the same which you have ever held before us as an inspiration to sacrifice everything in serving Him whom you have so successfully served, has been "Omnia ad maiorem Dei gloriam." Fighting under such a motto, no labor has been heavy for you, no sacrifice too great; nothing could discourage, nothing force you to yield in serving that loving Master; that motto you have impressed upon the young Levites of the sanctuary (whose education has been entrusted to your care and they hope to fight, as you have fought, valiantly, courageously against the great enemy to our salvation).

We especially can and do rejoice with you to-day. We know the deep solicitude you have always shown for our welfare spiritually and corporally and we feel that your great and magnanimous heart burns for us as did the heart of St. Paul for his beloved Corinthians when in the overflowing of his love he cried out: "Our month is open to you O Lyon Corinthian! our heart is enlarged!" Yes, your self-sacrificing heart, that heart ever beating with love for God's church, with love for her advancement, has gone out to us her future ministers in manifold ways has it given expression to the ardent burning within.

St. Andrew's during these twenty-five years has felt the effects of that love, St. Bernard's, day by day experiences the outpouring of that great Belgian heart.

We recognize that deep seated love for us and to-day wish to give expression to our feelings by telling you, dear Monsignor that our hearts go out to you. They rejoice with you upon this happy occasion, they wish for you God's best and richest blessings. That God may grant you many more years of successful labor in the ministry where the yoke is sweet and the burden light, this is the wish, this the prayer of yours.

THE STUDENTS OF ST. BERNARD'S

From the Students of St. Andrews.

Alleluia! An unquestionably boundless blessing was conferred by Divine Providence upon the Catholic community of Rochester, when some thirty years ago, your advent among them was for the first time announced.

A still greater happiness was afforded them when through the wise judgement of our Rt. Rev. Bishop, you were elevated to the important office of chancellor of the diocese, the duties of which you have ever successfully, satisfactorily, and kindly discharged, but greater by far, is the joy and gladness which wells up in their hearts, as they assemble here in vast numbers, on this your Silver Jubilee as Chancellor, to manifest their love, respect and reverence for you.

That your strenuous labors and munificence by assisting our Rt. Rev. Bishop in diocesan matters and more particularly in his dearest and life-crowning work St. Bernard's Seminary, are gratefully appreciated and admired, is fully proven to-day by the presence of him and his primate, and by the large concourse of clergy associates from the surrounding country.

That the Catholics of our city desire to honor you is attested by the large numbers which have abandoned their various avocations and crowded the Cathedral Aye, even the little orphans, for whom you have always cherished so much paternal affection, and whose orphan tears have so often been turned to smiles by your generosity, come to pay their simple tribute of love.

With anticipations that your surroundings would be what they really are, should we be surprised that you have designated this as an Alleluia Day?

We too Very Rev. Monsignor, from St. Andrews Seminary rejoice at being permitted to gather around you, our President and Spiritual Director that we may extend our warmest congratulations and partake in augmenting if possible, your happiness highly increased as it must be by the company of so many of the Rt. Reverend and Reverend clergy of Rochester and other Dioceses.

Leaving space for others to further comment on your manifold worthy efforts as God's Minister, we wish to express our gratitude for your kindness, your spiritual care, and anxiety for our welfare at all times.

Nor do we alone, we venture to assert feel this debt of gratitude towards you; but those also who have preceded us, many of whom now worthy priests, are present here today whose spiritual career was first disciplined at St. Andrews. With these feelings on this day long to be remembered by us, we again congratulate you, and have procured from nature in this her unfolding season, a slight portion of her bounteous gift to present you as a token of our love-hoping that in its simplicity it will convey more forcibly and adequately than any words the kind wishes of the professor and students of St. Andrews.

We trust then Very Rev. Monsignor that God will grant your life's labors so auspiciously entered upon so successfully continued, with every favorable indication for further continuance a happy and blessed termination, and we also earnestly pray, that with an unaltered soul you may exclaim, when the vital spark has quit the earthly habitation, and you are being ushered into the celestial mansion by God's holy messenger: "O Grave! where is thy victory? O Death! where is thy sting?"

From the Children of the French School.

VERY REVEREND MONSIGNOR:

With joyous hearts we hail the glad day which chronicles our much honored Monsignor's "Silver Jubilee" as Chancellor of Rochester's fair diocese.

Accept then, this evening, very reverent Father, sincere congratulations from the pupils of "Our Lady of Victory." We are proud to be among the number of those who fittingly signalize this event, so memorable on account of its being the first of its kind upon the ecclesiastical record of the State.

Too, we feel that we have a special right to participate in its celebration, for to you, Monsignor, we owe the founding of the present site of our progressive Parish. True, you were not the direct instrument in erecting the present magnificent school structure in which we take so much pride, but to you we are told, must be attributed, in a large measure, the securing to us of the lot upon which it stands.

It is obvious how important a role this is, for had we no lot we would have no building, and might still be building "castles in the air."

Be pleased, then, Monsignor, to recognize this faint tribute of appreciation on our part. 'Tis but one of many among gratifying testimonials that flow in upon you to-day.

To these our well wishes, we unite the grateful promise of fervent remembrance in prayer.

May the Most High grant unto you, Monsignor, length of days, crowned with peace and truest benediction.

From the Orphan Boys and Girls.

The feast of St. Joseph, 19th of March last was a red letter day at the Girls' Orphan Asylum. On that day Very Rev. Mgr. De Regge fulfilled his promise made a year ago. That promise was to present the institution $500, and each little child with some appropriate gifts.

The manner of presentation was unique. The children came in procession to the large hall, the Mgr. seated at one end, surrounded by his faithful friends, Mother Hieronymo and Mrs. Dr. Moore, and received from his hands an absolutely new bill which each child in regular order deposited in a basket placed for that purpose, beneath the statue of St. Joseph at the opposite end of the hall. In this way each child was made a participant in this generous act of charity, and so in a manner required for the numerous blessings which Mgr. De Regge is pleased to
