

A Book Every Catholic Should Possess!

THE HIERARCHY OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES,

EDITED BY MAURICE FRANCIS EGAN, LL. D., AND RICHARD H. CLARKE, LL. D.

A magnificently illustrated History of the Catholic Church in the United States, the biographies edited by Drs. Egan and Clarke—whose fitness for the reverential labor of outlining the lives of the Heads of the Church, is well known to clergy and laity; in the verification of facts and data the Prelates have afforded them valuable assistance, revising and approving before their publication.

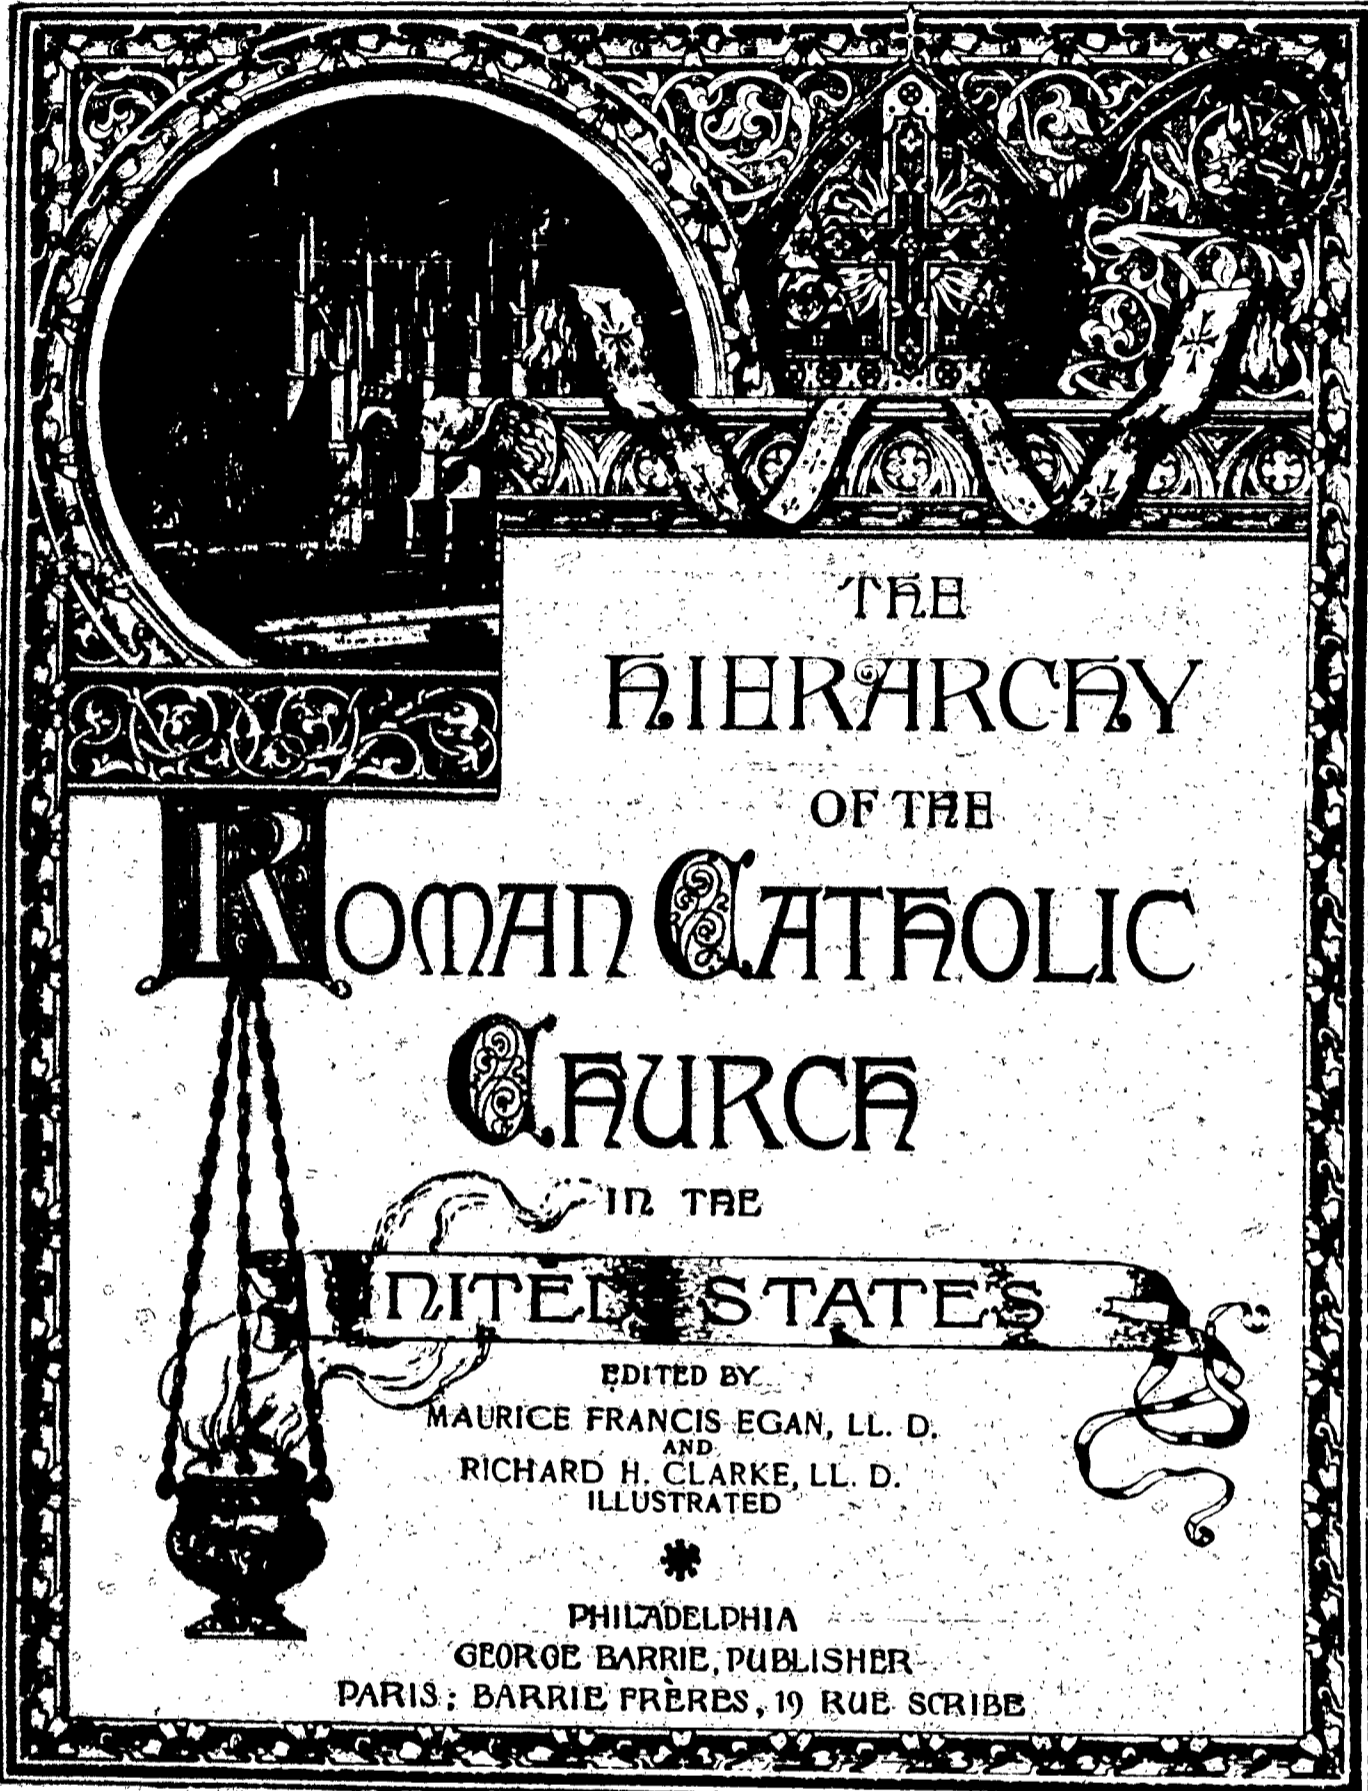

The illustrations are photogravure reproductions from photographs taken by the most competent artist-photographer, and embraces views of every Cathedral in the country; showing most beautiful pictures of these landmarks of faith throughout the land. Various views of the Cathedrals are given—a handsome exterior and then a large engraving of the complete interior, or possibly some sacred spot of especial interest to the faithful. Views of the various residences are given, and some of the private apartments of the Prelates are shown.

Their seals and signatures head the Biography of each prelate, showing most conclusively their approbation.

Each part printed on fine super-colored paper size of page being 11 x 15 inches, and enclosed in a neat and emblematic cover. Issued fortnightly.

As an additional premium are also offered fine steel engraved portraits of the Prelates. All superb collections of portraits executed by the leading engravers of the United States, France and Germany, and almost correct representation of the art of portraiture in steel of the masters of the art of the present day—the close of the 19th century. Carefully printed and handsomely mounted on mats size 11x15 inches; facsimile of autograph of each Prelate engraved upon plate.
