SS. PETER AND PAUL'S

Miss Eva Vay died at the residence of her parents, corner King and Maple streets, Thursday evening, May 31. The funeral took place Sunday morning at 7:30 in SS. Peter and Paul's church, Solemn Requiem Mass being celebrated by Rev. Dr. Sinclair. Before Mass a Requiem Credo by F. Chopin for violin, violoncello and organ was rendered by Pohl Bros. At the close of the service Miss Emma Haacker sang the "Fields of Paradise," by Chopin. The following named young men acted as bearers: Frank Siener, E. Moran, C. Egan, H. Hilbert, Frank Horn and Henry J. Renaud. A curious incident of this funeral was that of the deceased, being buried on the day of her birth, as Miss Vay would have celebrated her 31st birthday Sunday. She was a member of the Young Ladies Sodality, of this parish, who attended services in a body.

On SS. Peter and Paul's day "Missa Exultet," by F. Witt, will be sung by this choir, assisted by St. Michael's choir. Last Tuesday evening the first rehearsal took place after which a reception was tendered the visitors.

There is no doubt but that the fifth anniversary celebration of the Y. M. C. C. will be a success as the following committee have been appointed: Arrangement committee, Henry N. Brayer, P. F. S. Baur, Henry J. Renaud, J. S. Miller, floor com. Joseph S. Miller, Charles Mattie, M. Schried, Edward Moran, floor manager; Henry N. Brayer, general manager.

As a general manager our worthy president is a handy.

The members of the Y. M. C. C. are highly elated to see Father Poppel at their club rooms.

Herman Pohl's Orchestra have been engaged by the arrangement committee for Monday evening.

During the past two weeks the children of SS. Peter and Paul's school were working diligently for a raffle on the beautiful quilt, representing the United States, which was exhibited in the Cathedral Hall last July. This quilt was raffled Friday evening. Freddie Dangler was the fortunate winner. The $200 collected will be sent to the Sisters' Mother House at Baltimore, to liquidate the debt for two windows in their new chapel. The Sisters extend their heartfelt thanks to the children, as well as all generous contributors.

ST. BONIFACE

At St. Boniface at early Mass, at 7:30, and High Mass at 10 o'clock, sermons were delivered by Father Rauber on the Gospel of the day, which were explained and delivered in an instructive manner.

June 5th being St. Boniface Day, will be celebrated on Sunday in an appropriate manner. St. Boniface's "Informed Nation" will have a short parade, headed by the Reg. T. band and attend High Mass as usual on that day in a body. The programme for special celebration will appear in the CATHOLIC JOURNAL.

ST. JOSEPH'S

All arrangements for the Bonnie Gem festival, to be held at the parish hall, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 12, 13 and 14, were perfected at the joint meeting of the C. Y. M. A. and Ladies Auxiliary, Thursday, June 7. Judging from the reports of the various committees, it will surpass all previous festivals held in this parish. The hall has undergone a wonderful transformation, there having been erected eight booths, the decoration of which reflects credit upon Mr. George Noeth, Jr., who, with the assistance of M. E. Bartholomay, had charge of the same.

It will well repay one to visit this festival on any of the evenings, as the committee assure every visitor in advance a pleasant evening's amusement.

Some interesting parish news next week.

ST. MARY'S

On Sunday last at the 8:30 Mass a large class of children received Holy Communion for the first time. All were neatly dressed and presented an attractive appearance. Father O'Hanlon delivered a short address to the children regarding the solemnity of the occasion.

Sunday June 10th at 4 p. m. Bishop McCune will administer confirmation to a large class.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Judging from the number of tickets already taken for the lecture of Rev. Dr. E. J. Hanna on the evening of the 24th, the church will be well filled.

Confirmation will be given on the 17th.

An enjoyable recital by the pupils of Mrs. Mary Vogt, was given Tuesday evening, June 5th, at Mozart hall, Cox building, North St. Paul.

WORKS OF ART.

Every one pronounces the JOURNAL portfolio gems of artistic beauty. The demand has been large since they were put before the public, and there is nothing but praise for these works of art.

"The Hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States" is a magnificently illustrated history of the Church in this country, such as no Catholic family should be without. The portraits of the great American prelates are superb, taken from photographs and are all superb examples of the best steel engravings of this country, England, Germany, and France; most unique representation of the art of portraiture of this the close of the 19th century. They are all faithful copies of the originals and every portrait bears the autograph of the prelate showing his approval.

Truly this is an age when rare and valuable things may be had cheaply. A dozen years ago works of art, such as the JOURNAL portfolio, would have cost not less than a dollar a number. Now we sell them at 10 cents and a coupon. By mail 2-cents additional for postage. Try one number.
