

A Book Every Catholic Should Possess!

THE HIERARCHY OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

EDITED BY MAURICE FRANCIS EGAN, LL. D., AND RICHARD H. CLARKE, LL. D.

A magnificently illustrated History of the Catholic Church in the United States, the biographies edited by Drs. Egan and Clarke—whose fitness for the reverential labor of outlining the lives of the Heads of the Church, is well known to clergy and laity; in the verification of facts and data the Prelates have afforded them valuable assistance, revising and approving before their publication.

The illustrations are photogravure reproductions from photographs taken by the most competent artist photographer, and embraces views of every Cathedral in the country, showing most beautiful pictures of these landmarks of faith throughout the land. Various views of the Cathedrales are given—a handsome exterior and then a large engraving of the complete interior; or possibly some sacred spot of especial interest to the faithful. Views of the various residences are given, and some of the private apartments of the Prelates are shown.

Their seals and signatures head the Biography of each prelate, showing most conclusively their approbation.

Each part printed on fine super calendered paper, size of page being 11 x 15 inches, and enclosed in a neat and emblematic cover. Issued fortnightly.

As an additional premium are also offered fine steel engraved portraits of the Prelates. All superb collections of portraits executed by the leading engravers of the United States, France and Germany, and almost correct representation of the art of portraiture in the hands of the masters of the art of the present day. The close of the 19th century. Carefully printed, and handsomely mounted on cards size 11x15 inches, fac-simile of autograph of each Prelate engraved upon plate.

Part 3 will contain biographies of the Rt. Rev. Bishops John J. Kain, D. D.; Alfred A. Curtis, D. D.; and Leo Haid, O. S. B. Giving fac-similes of their seals and autographs. Views of St. Joseph's Cathedral and Bishop's residence—Wheeling, W. Va.; St. Joseph's Cathedral interior, St. Peter's Pro-Cathedral and interior views, Bishop's residence, Wilmington, Del.; St. Thomas' Pro-Cathedral and general view of interior, Wilmington, N. C.; The Bishop's residence, Mary-Help Abbey, Belmont, N. C.

Part 4 will contain the biographies of the Most Rev. Archbishop John J. Williams, D. D.; and the Rt. Rev. Bishop's Louis DeGoesbriand, D. D. and Lawrence S. McMahon, D. D. Giving fac-similes of their seals and autographs. Views of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross—interior and exterior—the Archbishop's residence; Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception—interior and exterior—Bishop's residence, Burlington, Vt.; Cathedral of St. Joseph—interior and exterior—the Bishop's residence and reception room, Hartford Conn.

WORKS OF ART.

Every one pronounces the Journal portfolios gems of artistic beauty. The demand has been large since they were put before the public, and there is nothing but praise for these works of art.

"The Hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States" is a magnificently illustrated history of the Church in this country, such as no Catholic family should be without. The portraits of the great American prelates are superb, taken from photographs and are all superb examples of the best steel engravers of this country, England, Germany, and France; most unique representation of the art of portraiture of this the close of the 19th century. They are all faithful copies of the originals and every portrait bears the autograph of the prelate showing his approval.

Truly this is an age when rare and valuable things may be had cheaply. A dozen years ago works of art, such as the Journal portfolios, would have cost not less than a dollar a number. Now we sell them at 10 cents and a coupon. By mail 3 cents additional for postage. Try one number.
