A SUGGESTION

The annual convention of the Catholic Young Men's National

Such a place will undoubtedly be the Plattsburgh of the future.

Undoubtedly, objections can be urged against this plan;

A BELIEVER IN MYTHS

Nearly all the great men of history have had a pet weakness.

Our able moralizing contemporary, the Herald, says we regret to say, a pet superstition.

ing of a statue to James Russell Lowell, the Herald contained an editorial

Now, in the hope of curing our esteemed contemporary of its illusions,

"Judge of my surprise," said the honorable John C. Linehan,

A sarcastic and effective disposal of "Scotch-Irish" claims.

Conan Doyle is fully as severe on the "Anglo-Saxon" myth. He says: "By the way, at the risk of a digression, what an unjustifiable word

Welcome to the A. O. H.

PUBLIC SCHOOL FOLLY.

Thousands for luxuries, none for necessities!

The Rochester Herald says: Philadelphia may be slow in some things but not in education.

Our contemporary is correct in its conclusion. Here is another quotation

A review of the situation shows a deplorable condition of affairs.

"But when these things have been laid before Councils and its finance committee, the matter has been either

The school sections of the city called last year for $3,000,000 to be expended in new school houses.

It is hardly necessary to comment on the above quotations. Taken together they show a tendency

POPE LEO'S INVITATION.

Our Holy Father has issued an Encyclical inviting non-Catholics to enter the True Fold.

The encyclical says that the Pope, at the end of his life, desires to invite all men without distinction of race

His Holiness then addresses the Eastern Churches and promises that their rights or patriarchal privileges will be maintained

Rev. T. A. Hendrick's article on "The Blessings of Monopoly," in the June number of Donahue's Magazine,

Come to Rochester to spend your Fourth.

The closing exercises of the convent school connected with the Convent of Mercy were held Thursday evening in St. Mary's hall

THE GOSPELS.

GOSPEL: St. Mark viii. 19.—At that time: "When there was a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, calling His disciples together, Weekly Church Calendar: SUN. JUNE 24.—Sixth Sunday after Pentecost. Nativity of St. John Baptist.

A Correction: Several items from our Greece' correspondent were accidentally placed under the head of Clifton Springs last week.

PULPIT AND PEW.

The Rev. Dr. Parkhurst says: "There is not a great deal of statismanship in the pulpit today, and outside of the pulpit there is none that I know of."

In the Nile valley some 75 prayer meetings for women and girls are held weekly, with an average attendance of 1,200,

The Rev. Dr. Philip S. Moxom of Springfield, Mass., has among his hearers every Sunday two people who come regularly from Boston,

It has been decided that the deaconesses of the Methodist church shall wear black gowns with gathered or plaited skirts,

THE MOVING WORLD.

A machine has been invented to count dust particles in the air.

Window panes of porous glass, which allow a pleasant and healthy ventilation of a room while preventing drafts,

A German officer has invented a motor in which a fine stream of coal dust is utilized to drive a piston by explosion.

A baby carriage, designed especially for the use of those who live in flats,

R. W. Wyatt of Australia has invented an important attachment to the pool-table, consisting of inclined rods or tracks running beneath each pocket.

BEAUTY SPOTS.

Cornmeal is an excellent cosmetic for the face. It brightens up the skin and cleanses the pores.

Take a spoonful of phosphate of soda in a glass of vichy water three or four times a day if you wish to lessen the yellowness of your skin.

Peroxide of hydrogen rubbed on the face each night will soon whiten and cleanse the worst complexion.

If the skin be coarse looking and you desire to improve the texture, bathe it before going to bed in very hot water and good toilet soap and rub thoroughly with a coarse Turkish towel.

WAVES OF WATER.

Niagara falls are travelling backward at the average rate of nine feet a year.

Henry's lake, in Idaho, has a floating island, the trees of which serve as sails.

Near Chestertown, Md., there is a small lake called Still pond, which has never been known to be ruffled, even by the most violent storms.

If all the oceans of the globe should be suddenly taken from their beds, leaving them perfectly dry, it would take all the rivers of the world 85,000 years to fill them again.

The only instance on record of a lake being pumped dry in order to get at the iron ore in its bed was Lake Angulene, near Leppening, Mich. It was 70 feet deep and covered 150 acres.

CURIQUS CULLINGS.

Mary Hamilton, an English female fraud of the eighteenth century, married 14 of her own sex.

In Morocco the face of a bride is painted white and red, and her hands and feet are dyed yellow with henna.

"Boston baked beans, Philadelphia style" are to be had in a Brooklyn cheap luncheon, which bears the name of the New York restaurant.

Indians declare that prior to attacking some large animal the alligator always swallows a heavy stone to increase its weight in dragging its victim under the water.

Sibley, Lindsay & Curr

The purpose of the Brooklyn Bridge was to join Brooklyn and New York.

The purpose of the miniature Brooklyn Bridge of soap in our our Main street window is to join you with the best soap of its kind
