

OUR CITY PARISHES

NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

ST. JOSEPH'S

Last Sunday a class of fifteen boys and twenty five girls received their first Holy Communion at nine o'clock Mass. Rev. Wm. Wayrich C. S. S. R. assisted by Father's Cook and Humeloise was the celebrant. At four o'clock Solemn High Vespers were sung after which the first communicants renewed their baptismal vows. Credit is due Rev. J. Breihof for the able manner in which he had instructed them, he having given them instructions for the last three months.

Members of St. Joseph's Parish contemplating attending the summer school at Plattsburgh this summer can receive a book of valuable information gratis by applying at the C. Y. M. A. library.

A joint summer outing of the C. Y. M. A. and Ladies Auxiliary is to be held at the Newport House July 24.

There will be no monthly meetings of the young men's section of the confraternity during the months of July and August.

Capt. J. J. Nisold was more than surprised upon his return home from Buffalo Friday evening with the first prize won by his commandery at the prize drill of Knights of St. John after a parade about the city in which his commandery, the Knights of St. Eustace, and St. Maurice participated. They sat down to a toothsome spread at which the different members told how they felt after winning the prizes. Rev. Wm. Wayrich C. S. S. R. who with Father Cook and Humeloise were guests of the evening complimented them upon the good work done, and in closing expressed his wish that they always stay where they are at the present time.

HOLY FAMILY

Last Sunday at the Holy Family Church 109 children (54 boys and 48 girls) received first holy communion. The Knight of St. Theodore, together with the servers, our students at St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminary (of which the parish can boast of six) and the priest of the parish escorted the children to the church where Mass was celebrated by Rev. D. Laurence.

ST. BONIFACE

At St. Boniface at 8 o'clock last Sunday High Mass was celebrated the occasion of the children receiving first Communion. There was a very large attendance, the church being completely filled with parents and friends of the communicants and the choir singing one of their latest Masses.

Father Rauber and the school sisters have been very active in preparing the children, who seemed to realize the solemn yet pleasant event at which they were taking part for the first time. A sermon by Father Rauber, addressed to the children concerning the future life when going out to the world with its temptations, and also advice and instructions to parents to keep these children in the path they now started out in was attentively received by the congregation. The Te Deum after Mass by the entire assemblage closed the very impressive ceremonies on this occasion.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S

Sunday last being the Patron Saints' Day of the Parish, solemn High Mass was celebrated at 8 o'clock. Rev. Father Pascale of St. Michael's being the celebrant, assisted by Rev. Father Meehan and Faber, S. J., of Buffalo.

The Knights of SS. Peter and Paul, SS. Peter and Paul Societies, and the Y. M. C. O. received Holy Communion at this Mass. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Faber, S. J., of Buffalo.

The singing of Dr. Witt's Missa Exultat by the choir of this and St. St. Michael's was remarkably well rendered, for which great credit is due our worthy choir director Mr. Frank Pohl and his brother Fred, director of St. Michael's, who presided at the organ.

Particular mention must be made of the singing of the Oremus by Sing-inberger at the Offertorium which was faultlessly rendered by the full chorus of 81 voices; and organ; also the singing of Laudate after Mass. The altars were beautifully decorated for which credit must be given the Sisters. Solemn Vespers was given at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The closing exercises of the school were given in the Parish Hall before a large audience. The following girls and boys were given diplomas by our worthy pastor:

The Members of the Y. M. C. O. are discussing the subject of when and where the annual picnic will be; they hope that the members of this parish will all be able to attend it.

Mrs. E. Gammach and daughter Maud have gone to spend the summer with relatives in Montreal and Quebec.

ST. MICHAEL'S

In Memoriam.

The undersigned committee, appointed to take action in regard to the sad loss sustained by the Knights of St. George by the death of their beloved brother Joseph Meisch and to give expression to their sorrow and their sympathy for his bereaved family, do so in the following manner:

In the violent death of this our beloved and respected brother the terrible uncertainty of life is brought home to us in the most dreadful manner and we hereby give expression to our sorrow for the loss of our brother who was a true and faithful member, a strong loving husband and father and an obedient and faithful son and an exemplary citizen. We assure his family of our most heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of affliction and pray to the comfort of the afflicted to console them and give them strength to bear the burden he has in his inscrutable wisdom imposed upon them.

IN MEMORIAM.

Catherine Francis Carney.

Art thou weary, art thou languid,
Art thou sore distressed?
"Come to me" faith our Lord, and coming,
Be at rest.

Catherine Francis, wife of John Edward Carney of Rochester and eldest daughter of William Leary of Lima, N. Y., died at the home of her parents June 22 1894. For nearly two years Mrs. Carney had been ill and nothing was left undone to regain her health but to no avail.

She had only two days previous to her death left home to spend the summer months with her parents and while seeking relief in the pure air and sunshine of her childhoods home that great relief came—death. All through her sickness and suffering she was ever patient and to the many inquiries made regarding her health always answered with the same sweet smile which was so natural in life and which even after death played around her lips as though the angels had kissed from them that pallor which death leaves. Not only are two homes made desolate by her death, but a pall of gloom and sadness has been cast over a whole neighborhood where her name was ever spoken in high esteem and affection. She leaves a mother and father, five sisters and three brothers, also her husband and two children Leah Grace aged 6 and William Mathias aged 3.

The burial service was held in St. Rose church at Lima, N. Y. Monday morning June 25 the Rev. Father FitzSimons officiating and where a large assemblage of friends paid their last tribute of love and respect to the departed.

FOR MORPHINE USERS.

The Telfair Treatment is a Sure Cure for That Disease.

As a usual thing would cure mention their treatment for the morphine habit in an incidental manner only. The truth of the matter is that most of them are afraid of this disease and prefer not to treat it; if they do, failure generally ensues.

This is not so with the Telfair Sanitarium. The cure for the morphine habit, given by Dr. Telfair, is simple, wonderful, and up to the present time he has never treated a patient by his own method and medicines, that has relapsed into using the drug again after leaving his hands.

In many cases, when they came to him, their condition was so bad that to all intents and purposes they were dead, yet at the end of four or five weeks, in every instance, perfect health was restored.

The drug had been withdrawn with so little suffering that in many cases it was difficult to make the patient believe it; a good refreshing night's sleep without the aid of any opiate could be obtained, and the appetite once more became healthy and natural. The morphine victim was discharged a new person in every way.

Dr. Telfair makes the statement that there is no user of this drug whom he cannot cure in a short while, provided there is no permanent brain disorder. Of course, his method of treatment must be conscientiously carried out.

Full information will be furnished, either in person or by mail, to anyone on application. Long distance telephone No. 923 in the office.
