WORKS OF ART.

Every one pronounces the Journal portfolio gems of artistic beauty. The demand has been large since they were put before the public, and there is nothing but praise for these works of art.

"The Hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States" is a magnificently illustrated history of the Church in this country, such as no Catholic family should be without. The portraits of the great American prelates are superb, taken from photographs and are all superb examples of the best steel engravers of this country, England, Germany, and France; most unique representation of the art of portraiture of this the close of the 19th century. They are all faithful copies of the originals and every portrait bears the autograph of the prelate showing his approval.

True! this is an age when rare and valuable things may be had cheaply. A dozen years ago works of art, such as the JOURNAL portfolios, would have cost not less than a dollar a number. Now we sell them at 10 cents and a coupon. By mail 3 cts additional for postage. Try one number.

Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishops Ryan, Ireland, Williams, Elder, Janssens and others, a beautiful steel engraved portrait. Ten cents with JOURNAL coupon. Three cents extra for mailing.

HONESTY IN BUSINESS.

A Symposium of Views on the Subject. Quite recently the managers of a popular magazine obtained the views of a number of prominent men on the question of how a rigid adherence to strict honesty was advisable in the conduct of business—that is as regards the pecuniary results. The great majority unhesitatingly said that only by being strictly honest could a business be placed on solid foundations. It is on this principle that the large coal business of L. C. Langie has been established. He sells only good, honest, hard white ash coal and his customers remain with him. Yards on So. Clinton St., near Alexander and on North Ave., near railroad. Office on E. Main at cor. East Avenue.

The JOURNAL portfolios are also getting different and far superior to those given by the daily press. The Hierarchy of the Catholic Church in America. Every Catholic wants it. Only 10 cents with coupon. Three cents extra for mailing.
