CALENDAR FOR NEXT WEEK

Thursday—Division No. 2

The following officers have been elected by the County Board:

P. R. Murphy, pres.; W. E. Hogan, vice-pres.; J. S. Barnes, sec. gen.; J. U. Meenan, rec. sec.; W. J. Cullinan, treas.

Div. No. 4 have changed their meeting nights to second and fourth Thursdays.

The Ancient Order is doubling in their membership since their convention in this city. Div. No. 4 meets at the Immaculate Conception Hall, and is growing rapidly in numbers. Already this Div. has on its rolls the names of some of the prominent Irishmen of this city. There is no wonder, when they have such a man for spiritual adviser as Vice-General Very Rev. Father James P. O'Hare. They are justly proud of him. In the near future this Div. intends to have a lecture by one of the prominent men of this country.

At the meeting of Div. No. 2, Monday evening, County Pres. J. R. Murphy installed the new officers, and three candidates were initiated. The meeting was an interesting one and under "good of the order" remarks were made by County Pres. J. R. Murphy, Pres. Dr. Crowley, Vice-Pres. J. Meenan, Sec. Gen. J. U. Meenan, and others.

At Division 3, Tuesday evening, two candidates were initiated. Vice-Pres. W. J. Cullinan filled the presidency in the absence of Dr. Gorman, very acceptably.

A. O. H. General Fella

At the last regular meeting of Division No. 1, A. O. H., of Rochester, the following officers were installed by the County delegate, J. R. Cullinan:

County President, Patrick Ryan; President, Thomas J. Garry; Vice-President, John W. Ryan; Recording Secretary, James P. Jones; Financial Secretary, Geo. W. Winkler; Treasurer, John H. O'Brien; Secretary, Patrick F. McKee; Sentinel, Thomas Noonan.

The retiring President, Charles S. McBride, in a well-delivered address, welcomed the new officers, gave a brief history of the Division, for the past year, which was well received.

CALENDAR FOR NEXT WEEK

Thursday—27.

The C. M. B. A. is growing in spite of the hard times. Council 18 received three applications at its last regular meeting and Council 20 at its meeting Monday last, received 13 applications, elected 3 to membership, and expect at least 12 more for their next meeting. The members of 25 are working for a gold badge and each one is desirous of winning the same.

Council 23 initiated one member and received several applications at its last regular meeting.

During the past week John J. Haveron, of Council 23, has held fair way in the Rochester daily press. There have been columns printed in regard to what our District Superintendent has accomplished since he has taken charge. The improvements and reforms are many, and Mr. Haveron is certainly to be congratulated.

Sixty-four ballots for Sup. V. Pres. John J. Haveron, for Supreme Medical Examiner Dr. P. C. Gorman. They are Rochester's candidates and deserving of the honor.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

From Our Special Correspondents.

Auburn.

St. Mary's.

The twenty-sixth anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's church was observed Sunday with due pomp and ceremony. A solemn high mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock at which Rev. John McGeehan, pastor of St. Mary's, officiated as celebrant. Rev. James Dougherty, of Danville, deacon; Rev. John Mahon, of the Holy Family, church, sub-deacon and Rev. William Mahuron, pastor of St. Mary's, assistant of ceremonies. The altar was profusely trimmed and decorated with vines, flowers and potted plants, and numerous burning candles added materially in beautifying the altar and surroundings. Rev. Father Dougherty, who was formerly assistant at St. Mary's, delivered a masterly and eloquent sermon on the Assumption.

Miss Mary G. Murphy, of Fleming, and Edward Wiggan, of Rochester, were united in marriage at St. Mary's church Tuesday at 10 o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends. Rev. William Mahuron, performed the ceremony and officiated at the nuptial mass which followed. The bride was assisted at the altar by Miss Mary Mahuron, of this city, and the best man was Mr. Wiggan, of Rochester. Mr. and Mrs. Wiggan were the recipients of numerous wedding remembrances as well as the best wishes of their many friends. After a brief bridal tour they will go to Rochester to reside.

The marriage of Miss Julia Finnegan and Jeremiah Danahy was solemnized at St. Mary's church Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock. Rev. Father Mahuron officiating. Miss Julia Danahy, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and James F. Driscoll, best man. After the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride where a wedding repast was served and where the newly married couple received the congratulations of their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Danahy will reside in this city after a bridal tour in the east.

Seneca.

A concert of unusual brilliancy was that which took place at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening, to which Mr. John Francis Gilder, pianist and composer of Boston, Master Charles Meenan, boy soprano of New York, Miss Minnie B. Woodworth, contralto soloist, Miss Marie Lovell, piano soloist and Mr. Wm. Campbell, baritone soloist, took part. A large audience of music lovers was present and enjoyed it. The playing of John Francis Gilder can be summed up in one word—it was magnificent. It is safe to say that no greater pianist has ever appeared in Seneca. He was enthusiastically received, and was many times recalled. The star of the evening was the exquisite boy soprano, Master Charles Meenan, who received an ovation. He sang in a charming manner "Summer" and the "Waltz Song" from "Euphon and Juliet". In the latter his wonderful voice was shown to perfection. He sings with "full throated tone" and sweeps away with majesty, compass and brilliancy of his tones all criticism and prejudice. Miss Minnie B. Woodworth, the beautiful contralto, sang in a delightful manner "Past and Future", DeLore, but could not be induced to respond to an encore. Miss Marie Lovell the talented pianist, late of Boston Conservatory played two solos and displayed perfect technique and a complete control over the instrument. The last number of the program, a vocal duet, "The Angel" was sung in a magnificent manner by Master Meenan and Miss Woodworth, thus closing one of the musical events of the season.

The many friends of Mr. Albert Woodworth will regret to hear of his serious illness, and will hope for a speedy recovery therefrom.

"Juda Hiss", A Comedy Drama of much merit, will be at the Academy of Music Sept. 2nd.

Clyde.

Miss Helen Tobin, a life-long resident of Clyde, died at her home on Columbia street, in this village, Sunday evening, August 15th, aged 43 years. Miss Tobin was a lady of quiet domestic habits, but kind and generous to all, and in this trait of character won the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends, with an aged mother, one brother, and two sisters, under the loss of one dear to them all. Funeral services were held at St. John's (Catholic) church, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Father Gleason.

Miss Lou Hannon, of Rochester, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. O'Neil.
