ST. MICHARL'S

St. Michael's church has added an other beautiful specimen of ecolesiastical art to its already experb oillection. The members of the congregation were pleasantly surprised last Sunday morning to see the hitherto empty niche under the high altar filled by a beautiful piece of statuary, representing the last supper. It is the work of the sculptor Frank Pedevilla, a local artist, whose studie is at 85 Oakland park. The group is carved in wood, the figures being in two colors, brown and cream, with gold ornamentation. The figures are grouped about the table in a highly artistic manuer, and seem to be full of life and action. The heholder cannot tire contemplating this superb work of art, and new points of bearty are discovered each time, the eye facis upon it. No lover of the beautiful should fail to pay a visit to St. Michael's.

No less than thirty applications for membership have been received by Branch 104. L. C. B. A. during the month of Augrest, and more are coming. Pather Pascalar has promised the Branch all the assistance and encouragement in his power, and he will make his promise good.
