NEWS DOTS FROM IRELAND

Interesting Paragraphs Concerning the Doings of Our Friends Across the Ocean,

Gathered from All Parts of the Emerald Isle for Our Readers.

CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

Martin Moran, of High street, Tuam, while laboring under temporary insanity, committed suicide by hanging himself to a rope suspended from a beam in his stable, at Bishop street.

The greatest excitement witnessed in Galway for a long time was caused by the incursion of the street preachers into the city from Cork. The new comers opened their proceedings in Eyre Square with a hymn. In a few minutes a large crowd collected. One of the singers, doffing his hat, commenced an address, but was repulsed with jeers. Afterward a collision occurred between the preachers and the crowd, and the police ran in to keep order. This incident has provoked much ill-feeling and caused great disturbance in the town.

LEITRIM.

The numerous friends of Mrs. McDermott, principal teacher of Manorhamilton Female National School, will be pleased to learn that she has been promoted to first class as a result of the recent examination of teachers held in Sligo.

MAYO.

With sincere regret we record the death of Mr. James Delany, for many years an extensive trader in Ballyhaunis. Mr. Delany died at the age of 84 years, at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Fitzgerald, the proprietor of Errew Hotel, Lough Conn.

The Royal Humane Society have awarded their medal to John Kelly, a young Chapel street, Castlebar, lad, for gallantly saving the life of another young lad, near the springboard, Lough Lannach. The medal was presented to Kelly by the magistrates at the Petty Sessions.

ROSCOMMON.

General Chavenix Trench, of the Indian Service, recently committed suicide. He was a member of the Ashtown family.

Heavy rains have fallen all along the east coast of Ireland, and as far west as Boyle, and did immense damage to the crops, while hardly a drop fell in Sligo and Leitrim. Throughout Roscommon the continuous broken weather has worked disastrously for the crops, further injuring potatoes and seriously retarding the saving of hay. In many districts the former crop is a failure; in many others it has been so effected by the wet and harsh weather as to leave it much below the average. Hay saved at the rare favorable periods turned out well, but in most instances this has not been the case. The oats that by its lateness escaped the former rains has been laid by the latter downpour and seriously injured.

SLIGO.

Mr. Feeney, Bridge street, Sligo, acknowledges the receipt of a cheque for £10 from Very Rev. Canon McLaughlin, being the value of a prize he won at the Sligo Cathedral Bazaar. Among other winners of prizes at the Bazaar, we noticed the names of Mrs. P. J. Sheridan, 104 South 14th street, Denver, Colorado, £1, and Mr. William Robinson, 169 E. 92d street, New York, £1.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed the following gentlemen to the Commission of the Peace for the County of Sligo:—Mr. P. S. Kilgallen, Grangebeg, Skreen, vice-chairman of the Dromore West Board of Guardians; Mr Thady Tiernan, Woodville, chairman Dromore West Board of Guardians; and Dr. Martyn, M.D., Sligo. All these gentleman are Catholics, and as the county magistracy has so far been almost exclusively Protestant and Tory the appointments have given the most widespread satisfaction.

LEINSTER.

CARLOW.

The Carlow Town Commissioners have appointed a Clerk of Works over their new waterworks, Mr. Tudor McDermott, nephew of the late Charles Stewart Parnell.

At the Petty Sessions in Carlow, Elizabeth Whelan, publican was accused by the police of robbing a returned American named Michael Lawlor of £130. She was returned for trial to the next Quarter Sessions.

DUBLIN.

The report of the House of Commons Select Committee on the Irish Land Acts throws a great deal of light upon the social history of Ireland, and amply justifies John Bright's famous assertion that the Irish landlord was only entitled to 'prairie value' for his land, and demonstrates the absurdity of Mr. Chamberlain's pretense that the Irish tenant was 'the pampered minion of specially favorable statutes.

At the last meeting of the Board of the City of Dublin Steampacket Company, Mr. John Murphy was elected a director of the company in succession to the late Mr. Michael Murphy, J.P.

Hugh O'Neill won the ten miles scratch at the Celtic F.C. Sports at Glasgow, J. H. Naylor being second, and the pair of Irishmen outpacing Leitch, the London crack.

Several Catholic churches in Dublin, including St. Catherine's, Meath street, have recently been broken into and robbed. The police are engaged in looking up the perpetrators.

His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin warns the charitable public against the danger of being imposed by people seeking money in the guise of Eastern Catholic ecclesiastics.

KILDARE.

The Celbridge Board of Guardians are £1,149 in debt to the treasurer—that is the bank, which allowed them to overdraw their account to that amount.

Lord Connemara's reported purchase of Furniss is not yet completed.

KILKENNY.

Mr. Comerford of Coolgreany has been elected Clerk to the Kilkenny Union.

All through Kilkenny it is feared the potato crop will be a very poor one.

KING'S.

A meeting of the Parsonstown Guardians was recently held, at which a resolution was passed declaring in favor of the combining of the Parsonstown, Abbeyleix, Mountmellick, Roscrea and Urlingford Unions for the establishment of an industrial school for children, at Donoughmore.

LONGFORD.

The City Coroner held an inquest, in the Mater Misericordiæ Hospital, Dublin, on the body of Lena Gray, aged nine years, who died from injuries received by falling from a window of the Midland Hotel, Dominick street. The deceased was the daughter of Dr. Gray, County Coroner of Longford. The jury found a verdict of accidental death and expressed sympathy with the family of the deceased.

LOUTH.

The death of Mr. H. Garvey, Sergeant-at-Mace of the Drogheda Municipality, is learned in town and county with unfeigned regret. Mr. Garvey had hosts of friends, and never made an enemy.

Mrs. Smith, of Thomas Street, died suddenly at her residence.

MEATH.

The wife of Mr. Cristopher Stapleton, Kilalderman, Navan, gave birth to triplets, all sons. Mother and children are doing well.

QUEEN'S.

A resolution condemning the action of the House of Lords, in rejecting the Evicted Tenants Bill was adopted at the last meeting of the Mountmellick Board of Guardians.

WESTMEATH.

The beautiful ceremony of the profession of a nun and the reception of a young lady recently took place at the Convent of Mercy, Moate. The young ladies were Miss Katie Fahey and Miss Dardis.

WEXFORD.

In the neighborhood of Gorey, as well as in other parts of Wexford, the condition of the weather is creating much anxiety among the farmers. The damage done by the wet weather is incalculable.

WICKLOW.

With deep regret we announce the death of Mr. James Kelly, of Dunlavin. The genial, good natured old 'Man-o-War' will be greatly missed by the legion of friends who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was a typical Irishman of the old school, warm-hearted and hospitable to a high degree. He died full of years, after having rendered signal services as a Nationalist Poor Law Guardian. The immense procession which followed his remains to Killeen, the family burial ground, after the celebration of Solemn Office and High Mass in Dunlavea Church, bore eloquent testimony to the deep regard and respect in which he was held May his soul rest in peace.

MUNSTER.

CLARE.

In the matter of the registration of voters, the Freeman's Journal says, the Redmondites, in East and West Clare, have been very unsuccessful apparently. The Journal adds:—'It would have been better if they had abstained from praising their activity and intelligence until after the sittings of the Revision Court; and it would at all events have saved them the crushing exposure which we publish. We are told, however, that Clare is not the only place where objection notices of quite an original character have been sent out this year.'

CORK.

Lord Cork was the only Irish Peer who voted for the Evicted Tenant's Bill.

Musgrave Bros., Cork and Tralee, have turned their firm into a Limited Liability Company.

Owing to the unfavorable state of the weather for crops, Most Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan has ordered the clergy of Cork diocese (secular and regular) to say the special prayers for fine weather.

Mr. Wm. J. Fitzgerald, Solicitor, Mallow, has been appointed Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the West Riding of the County of Cork, which office was rendered vacant by the death of Mr. Thomas Babington.

The want of a male school in Mill-street, was felt a long time, as the number of boys attending the old schools increased considerably, and the length of time they have been in use has worn them out. Besides, they were badly situated in the corner of the graveyard, and there was no play-ground. Canon Griffin having placed this state of affairs before Mr. McCarthy O'Leary, he at once granted a splendid site, which commands a view of the Killarney mountains, of Mushera, and of Clare. The Canon invited Miss Madeline McCarthy O'Leary to lay the foundation-stone, and presented her with a silver trowel for the purpose. The people of the town attended the ceremony in great numbers. Canon Griffin was accompanied by the Rev. Charles Sullivan, Rev. C. McCarthy and Rev. M. Tuller.

KERRY.

Lord Kenmare's agent has notified the Poor Law Guardians that he intends to evict from their holdings Margaret Sullivan and M. Hefferman, of Firies.

Rev. Brother J. V. Kerrigan, who, for a number of years, was principal teacher in the Christian Brother's Schools, Edward street, Tralee, has been promoted to Superior of the institution at Monaghan.

In the district around Killarney, the hay crop is very plentiful, so much so that several auctions were held and no buyers put in an appearance. A great deal of hay that was cut had suffered considerably in consequence of the almost constant rainy weather. The potato crop is greatly damaged in some places by blight. The oat crop is looking well, and promises to be a heavy yield. A great many farmers in the district appear to be only half-stocked.

LIMERICK

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Mr. William Whyte O'Dwyer, of Spring House, Ballylanders—the popular Vice-Chairman of Mitchelstown Union—to the Commission of the Peace for the County of Limerick.

TIPPERARY.

A terrible gun accident recently befell a young man named Regan, when hunting rabbits, three or four miles from the town of Nenagh. He was crossing a ditch, when the contents of one of the barrels of his gun accidentally went off, completely destroying one of his hands.

WATERFORD.

The intelligence of the death of the Very Rev. P. Casey, P.P., V.G., Dungarven, which occurred at the Parochial House, Dungarven, will be received with the deepest regret by all who knew him.

Mr. Alfred Webb, Nationalist M. P. for West Waterford, intimates that he will not contest the seat at the next election. Great regret has been caused by Mr. Webb's determination, and every effort will be made to induce him to reconsider the matter.

ULSTER.

ANTRIM.

Recently, the death occured, in the Mater Infirmorum Hospital, Crumlin road, Belfast, of Constable Henry Kelly, one of the best known figures in the Canstablulary in the Northern capital. 'Harry' Kelly, as he was popularly designated, had won for himself a host of friends. He was an artist of no mean order, and made a great hit, on one occasion, when the Argus reproduced drawings he had made of several eviction scenes in Ireland; and he was advised by the late John Rea to quite the Force and pursue an artistic career. To his many personal qualities he added a wonderful fund of anecdote and jest, and was an educated man on topics that would have fairly staggered his superiors in 'the Force.' He recently retired through ill-health.

ARMAGH.

At the Armagh Petty Sessions, an Orangeman named John Warren was fined ten shillings and costs for firing a revolver on the public road at Mallanstown (an exclusively Catholic hamlet.) Had Warren been a Nationalist, he would probably have been sent to the Assizes to get a term of penal servitude.

CAVAN.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Mr. Joseph O'Reilly, of Doogra, Killeshandra, to the Commission of the Peace for the county Cavan.

DERRY.

At the monthly Court of Petty Sessions, at Draperstown, before Dr Carleton, J.P., chairman, Dr. Waters, J.P., Colonel Stewart, R.M., Henry O'Neill, Samuel Sinclair, and G. Ramsay, J.P.'s—Michael Deane and William Lees were charged by District-Inspector Irwin with discharging firearms with intent to do grievous bodily harm to Patrick McGulgan and Bernard McIldowney, on Major Milliar's estate. The accused are gamekeepers. There was also a charge, against Robert Johnson, of firing with intent to do grevious bodily injury at William Lees on the same occasion. When the cases against Deane and Sees were called, Mr. Gaussen applied for a postponement, and, after a somewhat heated confab, an adjournment for a week was agreed to.

DONEGAL.

The number of claims to vote sent in by the Nationalist agents for the following Donegal polling districts are:—Letterkenny, 155; Newtowncunningham, 115; Raphoe 138; and Ramelton, 26, in all, 434 claims. The Nationalist agent has served objections on the Unionists in the following districts:—For Letterkenny, 131; Ramelton, 64; Newtowncunningham, 334; and Raphoe, 304; in all, 833. Mr. E. McFadden, jun., and Mr. John Doherty, registration agents, have conducted the business with indefatigible energy.

On the last day for the receiving of objections to the Parliamentary lists of voters for the borough of Newry, Mr. William Orr, registration agent, lodged, with the Town Clerk, 989 objections on behalf of the Unionists; while Mr. Simon F. Hanratty, solicitor, handed in 388 on the part of the Nationalists.

The new parochial residence at St. Augustine, Ill., is receiving the finishing touches, and when completed it will be an honor to the diocese of Peoria, and a monument to the zeal of the pastor, Rev. Father Kinery.
