NOTES JOTTED DOWN BY THE JOURNAL'S REPORTERS.

ST. MICHAEL'S

At 10 o'clock Forty Hours Devotion was opened by Solemn High Mass, celebrated by Rev. Dr. F. H. Sinclair, assisted by Fathers: Pascual and Regenhogan. Rev. P. Last Thursday Michael Hoefen, aged 81 years, died at his residence on Chifford street. The deceased came to Rochester from Baden, Germany, in 1851, and had resided here since. He was one of the founders of the congregation and one of its first trustees. Mr. Hoefen was a deeply religious, honest and upright man, therefore highly respected. He leaves two sons, Ignatius and Leopold Hoefen, and four daughters, Sisters M. Benedicta and M. Terista of the Order of Notre Dame, and the Misses Anna and Appollonia Hoefen.

The funeral took place on Saturday at 9 o'clock. Requiescat in pace.

WEDDED BY THE BISHOP.

Mr. Beckman C. Little and Miss Lois Gaffney Married.

One of the most select weddings that has occurred in Rochester in a long time took place Wednesday evening at the Burke mansion on Lake avenue, at the corner of Birch street, when Mr. Beckman C. Little, of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Lois Gaffney. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock by Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid, assisted by Rev. Felix O'Hanlon.

There was not a large assemblage at the mansion, only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties having been invited. At the hour for the ceremony the bride party appeared in the parlors. Miss Gaffney was accompanied by her brother, Mr. Augustine Gaffney, and six bridesmaids. The bridesmaids were Miss Katherine Cook, Miss Marie Louise Barry, Miss Laura Page Ward and Miss Berenice Perkins of Rochester, Miss Theresa Smith, of New York City, and Miss Ramsey, of Bath. The maid of honor was Miss Margot Postlewaite, of St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Seeley Little, a brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Sidney B. Roby, Harry Preston, William S. Roby, of Rochester. Mr. Augustine Gaffney gave the bride away.

Anthony Langie died Thursday morning at his residence, No. 508 North street. He was born in Champlain, Vt. April 4th, 1814, and came to this city in 1839. In the same year he went to Chicago returning the year following. He had resided here continually since. He was one of the founders of the French Church of Our Lady of Victory on Pleasant street and was a devout and consistent member of the congregation. He was a man of sterling character, independent and outspoken in his views. His rugged honesty and manly demeanor won for him the respect of all with whom he came in contact. The deceased is survived by a wife, eight adult children and numerous grandchildren. The funeral will be held from the house, 508 North street, at 8:30 o'clock and from the Church of Our Lady of Victory at 9 o'clock this Saturday morning.

At noon Friday, Oct. 6th, Martin W., infant son of Martin W. and Mary A. Rigney, died. The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. from the residence, 114 W. Main street.

Irene Cassidy Gilboe, daughter of Daniel and Catherine Gilboe, died Saturday afternoon at the family residence, 16 Hibbard st., aged 1 year.

THE SEASON FOR FURS.

A Few Words of Advice to the Lady Readers of the Catholic Journal.

Every lady is interested in making the best possible bargain when she sallies forth to buy her winter furs, and it is for this reason that a visit to the great house of the Kenyon Hat and Fur Company is recommended. This concern buys largely of raw skins, which it makes up in its own shops. It employs the most skillful sewers and cutters and takes just pride in its quality of manufactured furs. Its stock of fur capes and fur trimmed jackets is the largest ever shown in Rochester, and such is the demand for its goods that it can afford to sell at the lowest prices known. As an instance, we will mention a beautiful fur cape, 34 inches long, at $4.95, for which $6 would be asked by any other dealer in the city. By all means look at Kenyon's goods and get his prices before you invest in furs of any kind this fall. And while you are in see the dainty things in children's hats and capes. No. 140 East Main street is the place.

The Nickel Plate Road gives you the lowest rates to all points west, and unexcelled service. Elegant dining cars run by this line.

NEW CHURCH AND NEW CEMETERY.

Bishop McQuaid dedicated the Catholic church of the Holy Name at Graveland Sunday afternoon. He was assisted by the Rev. Father John Van Ness, of Rochester, and the Rev. Father Dougherty, pastor of St. Patrick's church, of Danville. A special train over the Danville and Mt. Morris road carried upwards of 300 to witness the ceremonies. The new church is a pretty wood structure, 24x48 feet and cost about $1,500.

In the afternoon, the bishop, assisted by the Rev. Fathers Van Ness, Dougherty, Day and Huver, blessed the new Mount Calvary cemetery. A procession of upwards of 1,000 embracing the church societies and children of the parochial schools marched to the grounds. The grounds cover an area of twelve acres and are situated one and one half miles south of the town. The cost of the plot without improvements was $1,200.

The new cemetery is located on a slight elevation in a delightful rural locality with picturesque surroundings. All present regretted that the bishop's speech had to be cut short on account of the approaching rain storm.

Local Notes.

The inspection of the parochial schools by the health authorities shows they are in excellent condition.

Mrs. Francis Lavery and sister Cecilia McCarthy leave on the 6th of Oct. for a two weeks visit to New York City and Long Island.

Rev. J. P. Kiernan Sunday morning at the Cathedral condemned in scathing terms what he termed "disreputable Sunday papers," and told his congregation that they should not read such papers. In fact, he practically interdicted the reading of such publications by Catholics in his parish. He did not name any papers.

The Knights of St. John the Baptist elected the following officers Thursday evening: President, Edmund P. Bombaut; vice-president, Henry La Casse; recording secretary, Frank Rivard, jr.; financial secretary, Albert La Casse; treasurer, Louis B. Saverd; captain, Alfred Stone; first lieutenant, Charles A. Parr; second lieutenant, Frank Rivard; first sergeant, Edmund P. Bombaut; second sergeant, Joseph Roy; color sergeant, Remi Sentens; quartermaster sergeant, Leo Lussie.

Rev. Thomas A. Hendrick, pastor of St. Bridget's Church, who is a delegate from this city to the convention of Humane societies now in session in Albany, is quoted by the Argus of that city as having spoken in the convention in support of Mr. Elbridge T. Gerry's proposition to introduce the whipping post into this state to be used especially for the punishment of those who are cruel to children. Father Hendrick is a member of the committee to endeavor to introduce humane instruction in the schools of the State, and to instruct public officers as to their duties in regard to the society.

Devotions in honor of the Rosary are being held in the city churches.

Mr. Read.

While addressing his faithful people last Sunday on the importance of contributing to the annual collection for the ecclesiastical students the venerable and beloved Father Maurice suddenly fainted. He was tenderly lifted from his chair and carried outside where he was soon surrounded by his sympathizing flock. He revived after a short time. Next week we will give a sketch of the labors of this beloved priest—the oldest in the diocese.

We Can't Live Without It.

"We can live without poetry, music and art," but we can't live very well in extremely cold weather without coal. It is well, then, to occasionally stop thinking of the book store, the music store and the art gallery and give some attention to the more practical side of life. Music, poetry and art will be enjoyed all the more if the house is comfortable. We advise our readers, then, to look after the coal bin, and when it needs replenishing go to L. O. Langie's. Office on East Main street cor. East avenue; yards on So. Clinton near Alexander, and North avenue near railroad.

ABOUT NEW CLOTHS.

It is not a difficult matter for a man to select material for a suit or an overcoat nor for a lady to select something suitable for a Coat, Cape or Wrap from our Cloth Department. Such a variety of fabrics is here that even the most fastidious can purchase as satisfactorily as in the largest store in the country. On account of the great increase in our sales last season, we decided to enlarge this department, and in consequence this season sees our cloth section enlarged to almost double its former size, making it by far the leading one in this section of the state. It is our wish that all our consumers generally who have not yet visited through our stock do so now. It will more than please them.
