THIRD STATE TICKET

INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATS PLACE ONE IN THE FIELD.

Everett Wheeler of New York For Governor Nominates on the Regular Ticket For Lieutenant Governor and Chief of Appeals Judge Indorsed Brooklyn Democrats Denounce Hill.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A third state ticket has been put in the field by the Shepard Democracy of Kings county and it is expected that it will be indorsed by the Independent Democrats throughout the state.

The ticket presents as the candidate of the Independent Democrats for governor, Everett Wheeler of New York, and in its order the members of the regular Democratic ticket, for lieutenant governor and chief of appeals, Daniel H. Lewis and Charles F. Brown.

After having a long opinion candidates Mr. Shepard's committee proceeded to nominate Ben Charles S. Fairchild as chairman of the campaign committee. He will be assisted by Franklin D. Locke of Buffalo, E. M. Shepard of Brooklyn, Henry A. Johnston of Buffalo, Seymour Van Antwerp of Troy, Michael O'Connor of Kings county, Robert A. Wilson of Rockland county, Thomas G. Shearman of Kings county, John A. Bral of New York, John Brooks Leavitt of New York, Dick S. Ramsey of Buffalo and A. R. James of Buffalo.

The ticket was nominated by a committee composed of Charles J. Patterson, Thomas G. Shearman, George R. Peabody, Michael E. O'Connor, R. B. Bowker, J. W. Greene, Richard S. Ramsey, S. Perry and J. M. G. Clark, Jr.

R. B. McKinley had been named as one of the committee but he declined to serve. The committee was appointed by Edward M. Shepard as a result of a meeting of Shepard delegates at the Saratoga convention.

That meeting was held Monday night and the committee met for the resolutions which were adopted without opposition.

As the Shepards are said to have received assurances that their nominee for governor will be elected, all that remains to be done is to make the ticket the regular ticket of the party to be secured.

The signatures of 3,000 persons as indorsers of the candidates and to file these with the secretary of state on or before Oct. 10. On this showing the secretary of state will issue the order for the printing of the third party ballot.

Event "Wheeler is about 60 years of age and a lawyer in this city. He is the senior member of the firm of Wheeler, Corlies & G. Clark, with offices in this city.

He was chairman of the New York Civil Service Reform association. He was a member of the New York board of education from 1883 to 1887. He was one of the original founders of the old County Democratic organization, one of the members of the committee of 100 which organized the New York State Democracy and he is a member of the present committee of 70.

For five years he was the president of the New York Free Trade club. He was also one of the millionaires who supported in favor of building the New York elevated railroad system.

Brooklyn Democrats Denounce Hill.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 10.—At a meeting of the Brooklyn Democratic club resolutions were adopted denouncing David B. Hill and the Democratic organization as it at present exists. The meeting was well attended and was presided over by A. J. Wolf, one of the vice presidents of the club. The first resolution of the evening was introduced by Everett Greene, chairman of the executive committee. It called for the resignation of Hill as follows:

"Resolved, That the Brooklyn Democratic club, in view of the nomination of an independent ticket and that this club and all good Democrats should refuse to support the ticket of Hill and his associates."

A second resolution adopted at the meeting was one for the appointment of a committee to confer with other Democrats regarding harmony in the congressional and assembly nominations.

which he connected himself and in 1860 was the nominee of that party for the governorship to which office he was elected by 52,000 majority. In his inaugural message Governor Curtin took strong ground for coercion of the seceding northern states. His administration was distinguished for the zeal and ability with which the national government was sustained in its war measures and for the efforts which he put forth for the comfort of Pennsylvania's volunteers in the field. Governor Curtin's health began to fail in 1881 and he signified his intention of accepting a foreign mission which had been offered him, as soon as his gubernatorial term should expire but in the meantime he was re-elected and re-elected by 15,000 majority. He went to Cuba for his health in 1883 and in the same year declined another offer of another foreign mission. In 1889 General Grant appointed him minister to Russia. He returned in 1872 and supported Horace Greely for the presidency.

last shattered. The last hours of Dr. Holmes were passed quietly with his family by his bedside. Dr. Holmes returned from Beverly Farms about 10 days ago and the removal greatly fatigued him, and it is thought hastened his end. The family residence was darkened and apparently deserted and few knew that Dr. Holmes was in Boston. The news of his death was kept quiet until a late hour last night.

United States Supreme Court Cases.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—All justices of the supreme court were present at the opening session and listened to arguments in cases of secondary importance after disposing of several motions. The case of the Texas Pacific Railway company against the Interstate Commerce commission, involving a question of foreign tariffs, which was on the calendar for next Monday, was postponed for Nov. 13 on the motion of the government because Mr. Kern, who is connected with the case as attorney, is engaged in preparing the report to be made by the Debs strike commission of which he is a member. Consideration of the case of the United States against Texas, known as the Greer county case, was also postponed. Ex Attorney General Garland said that he had been unable to hear from Attorney General Culbertson of Texas, who is candidate for governor and engaged in his canvass.

Schooner Kenduskeeg Goes Down.

CITY ISLAND, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Captain B. F. Cushman of the bark Henry Norwell, which arrived here reports Oct. 7, at 8 a. m., off Cape Cod, sighted the schooner Kenduskeeg, Captain Ginn, from New York for Bangor, Me., loaded with coal, lying to, with sails partly down and crew in the yawl boat alongside. The bark ran down to her and found her to be in a sinking condition. Captain Cushman took off Captain Ginn and the crew and landed them at this place. The Kenduskeeg went down a little while after the crew were taken off. This is the vessel sunk which was at first thought to be the Herald of the Morning.
