ST MARY'S.

The Sunday evening sermous at St. Mary's church are becoming more popular each week Last Sunday evoning the sermon was a very eloquent one, the subject being the Blessed Virgin. It was preached by an Irish pricet who is visiting this Country.

The announcement of a lecture by Very Rev. Dr. Longblin on the 11th, of November is pleasing to St. Mary's parishioners. Dr. Lougblin is an able and interesting speaker and St. Mary's church will undoubtedly be filled on the occasion of his lecture.

Miss Mary Johnston and John H. Callahan of the firm of Sweeney & people on the nest and tasty im-Callaban, were united in marriage at provements made in the church. Bishop McQuaid administered the Secrement of Confirmation at St. Anthony's church on Oci. 10th, to a class of twenty-eight boys and ten

Mass was celebrated by Father Neisel at which the Brahop was at tended by Father Evans and Father Hickey.

At the conclusion of the Mass the Bishop addressed the children, explaining briefly the great graces to be obtained by a worthy reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation, and said be felt satisfied that Pather Hickey had tried his best to prepare them.

The Bishop then administered the sacrament and again spoke to the children trying to impress on their minds that they should now be strong in doing right and that they shoold all live so to be ever atriving

The Bishop's remarks on the sub ject of Temperance were very flac and also bis advice to keep away

We wete never so proud of our Bishop before as when he an earnestly and firmly condemed that which is the rain of so many bright young men. Would that we had many more such carnest outspoken advocates for the cause or Temperance.

Father Hickey has been notiring in his duty towards the children of this class having given them many mouths of instruction

Mr J Shea and Mr James Dalton soled as sponsers for the boye and the girls were attended by Miss Anna-Morris.

On account of the rain many were prevented from attending.

In closing his remarks the Bishop announced that he would soon send a pastor to reside at Groton, and Politics is an exciting game—this fall more exciting than usual. The campaign seems to be waxing hotter every day. Speaking about campairno le diode us that extraordinary preparations for the winter campaign in the coal trade have been made by that voterant dealer, L. U. Langie, whose headquarters are at the corner of East Main street and East avenue. Large quantities of coal have been placed in his yards on So. Clinton street and on North avenue and before spring be will make it exceedingly warm for his competitors as well as comforably warm for his customers. Try his hard white ash coal.
