Union Springs

The most successful fair ever held in Union Springs was closed last Wednesday night with a grand ball at the Opera House. The decorations of the hall were very attractive—The American flag and the flag of old Erin hung side by side.

The booths were filled with rich and valuable gifts, donated by all the merchants in Union Springs besides the merchants of Auburn, Rochester, Seneca Falls and Syracuse donated liberally. The young Cadet Drum Corps of the Auburn Orphan Asylum gave the audience a delightful surprise which was fully appreciated. The boys were dressed in beautiful uniforms and their music was a credit to them and to the institution they came from. The program for the first night consisted of an instrumental duet by Anna Murphy and Anna Creagan. Recitation "American Flag" Anna McGrath—Song by the little ones—Recitation selected by Anna Murphy.

Tuesday evening program—Quartette, Lizzie Foley, Lizzie McGrath, John McGrath, Jas. McNaney, recitation "Irish Flag" Henry Drew, Duett—vocal, Madden sisters, Recitation, "Old" Maids, solo, Minnie Cunningham—Song Birdies Dream by the children, Recitation—Auction Extraordinary, Bridget McKean.

Wednesday evening—Night caps, by the little ones, recitation, Lizzie McGrath, Duett vocal—Lizzie Creagan and Francis McNaney, Solo, Selected duett, Miss Madden and Wm. Gray.

Following are the names of those who drew the door prizes each night, one ton of coal donated by H. H. Morse, drawn by Timothy Cunningham. Suit of cloths, given by Cleary Bros. of Seneca Falls, drawn by Wm. H. Cotter, lap robe and whip donated by Wm. C. Richardson, drawn by Geo. Counsell.

The other prizes were drawn by the following lucky ones: Silver action case, drawn by Theodore Smith, Mapleton; album, Miss Hattie Cooper, Miss Helen Vasiland; and Mrs. Patrick Rogers; 10 gold pieces, John Lane, Auburn; oil heater, Wm. Robins, Auburn; barrel flour, Mrs. Mansfield, Cayuga; top coat, Mrs. Owen Connor, Union Springs; pair shoes, Miss Maggie Drew, Union Springs; Loretto Madden, of Auburn, drew the large picture, receiving the largest number of votes; pair of ladies shoes, Timothy Cunningham; also silver butter dish; accordion, John Gillespie; car pet sweater, Wm. Scully, Cayuga; bed spread, Miss Mary McDonald; water jug and bottle cologne, Miss Maggie Murphy; neck tie, Miss Anna F. Murphy; pictures, Daniel Falvey, Cayuga; clock, Dennis Kennedy, Cayuga.

The three young ladies who so kindly acted as solicitors, deserve the warmest praise and thanks of the congregation, and to their exertion and perseverance are in a great measure due the whole success of the fair.

And as to the Rev. Father Neilligan who so successfully engineered the whole affair, my pen fails to do him the justice he so richly deserves. His reverence has not been four years here yet, and in that short space of time he has reduced the debt on the church thirteen hundred dollars besides paying off a number of small debts.

The whole amount collected by the young lady solicitors are as follows: Margaret Murphy, $137; Lizzie McGrath, $103; Agnes Connor, $73. The total receipts of the Fair will be about $750. The young ladies wish to extend their thanks to all those who so liberally helped the good cause along. They also wish to return their thanks to each and every one who so kindly assisted them and for the kind and ladylike treatment they received everywhere they called. To the merchants of Union Springs—Auburn, Rochester, Syracuse and Seneca Falls, who so kindly and liberally donated to the Fair, the congregation extends to them their heartfelt thanks. The ladies who so kindly assisted in the hall elsewhere deserve the thanks of all. Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, Mrs. Owen Connor and Mrs. John Donovan deserve thanks for the splendid coffee they furnished.

Rushville

Miss Anna Sheehan and Miss Mary Dwyer were the guests of Miss Ella Hogan at the parsonage of Rev. Father Dougherty, in Dansville, for several days last week. They had the pleasure of attending services at St. Patrick's church Sunday and listened to a very fine sermon at the early and late Mass. Also to the beautiful singing of the choir. They noticed the beautiful new windows in the church which were donated by Rev. Father Dougherty and former pastor, together with the different societies of the church. In the afternoon they were kindly invited by Mr. Earis and daughter, Lizzie to take a ride to the new cemetery which is beautifully located a mile and a half out of Dansville, returning in time to be present at meetings held by different societies in the evening, which was very interesting. They also visited St. Patrick's parochial school, a very fine building and with a roll call of 180 children, and were pleased to see them so far advanced. Much credit is due both pastor and teachers whose ability and unwearied labor contribute largely to the progress of the children in their studies. They also had the pleasure of visiting the church of the Holy Name at Groveland which has been built by Father Dougherty within the past year, and were surprised to find such a beautiful little church in so short a time. It is very evident that the people of Dansville and Groveland appreciate their pastor in working so faithfully with him. Last, but not least, they visited the celebrated Jackson Sanatorium, and with a party of friends partook of a beautiful dinner in the large dining hall. Afterwards they went through the building finding it a great place of interest, with the beautiful grounds and grand location to appreciate the size and artistic proportions of the building, a visit is necessary. Willard.
